

OREGON'S GREATEST BOOSTER

Spreading the Gospel of Get There.

The great and only Tom Richardson and Wallace R. Struble, of this city went to Brownsville yesterday afternoon and addressed an enthusiastic meeting of boosters of that city last night. Brownsville people are thoroughly in earnest and propose to keep up with the pace set through the valley. Big improvements are being made in the city and many more are in prospect.

It always entuses a people to have Tom Richardson around, and no doubt Brownsville will feel the impulse. A money raising meeting will be held next week, with $1500 as the mark.

Mr. Richardson had also been at Eugene, Springfield, Creswell and Roseburg, carrying the gospel of boost and helping to raise money. Whether big places like Albany and Corvallis or towns like Creswell and Eugene it is all the same to Richardson, he does his best, in his inimitable way.

One trouble just now is that there is a feeling that it is coming this way anyway, and some think that the other fellow whose prosperity has been greatly increased should put up more.

Richardson will attend a booster meeting in Lebanon next week. He is always on hand, indefatigable in his efforts for the whole of Oregon, which means great things for Portland.

Corvallis is to be left off the main line of the Oregon Electric, and the Commercial Club is asked to get busy and learn why. On the wrong side of the Willamette.

Gypsy Smith last night took fifteen thousand people through the red curtained district of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowell left this afternoon for a fish before going.

Albany Peaches.

Off a four year old tree at his home in this city A. R. McCoy this year secured five bushels of peaches, one at the Democrat office being 10 1/2 inches in circumference, a cut an average one. The tree is 3 1/2 inches in diameter and has a spread of twenty feet.

A St. Louis man is said to be making a big thing locating people on Oregon and California lands at $75 per acre. This is developing into one of the biggest fancies of the age and should be exposed generally. The victims can't stand the ghost of a show according to reliable opinions.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 63-40. The river is 3 of a foot. Prediction: showers tonight and Tuesday.

J. T. Russell, a farmer residing near Roseburg, and Mrs. Mary Hall, recently of Clatsop, O., were married last week at Roseburg, the result of matrimonial bureau advertising. Unlike many such affairs both parties were satisfied when they met upon the arrival of the bride and her two children from the East.

Miss Vesta Wallace went to Portland to see Mrs. Eugene Laforest, who has been ill for some time, going down on the local, of which Mr. Laforest was the conductor.

Miss Mamie McKnight returned to her school at Jefferson.

The new train caller is all right. His voice is about equal to that of the veteran of the Portland depot. We have a union depot for sure, and the service is appreciated.

Rectory Dedicated.

The new Catholic rectory was dedicated yesterday and the brief rites assigned for the blessing of a new dwelling were performed by Father Lane with the chanting of the liturgical prayer. A house warming is being planned for the evening of Oct. 26, and an informal reception will be held on that occasion. The old home is now occupied by the St. Mary's literary society and will serve as a guild room for the several parish societies.

Fred Fisher Returning.

U. S. Consul Fred Fisher sailed from Japan October 3, on the steamer Tango Maru, due to arrive in Seattle October 29. He will come to Albany at once on a visit with his mother and brothers Hugh and Earl, and has many old-time friends here who will be glad to see him again. He has made a marked success of his consular work, and the Albany boys who have made good in the world.

Back from Iowa.

J. C. Way returned yesterday from a business trip to his former home at Dennison, Iowa. He was gone two weeks and was on the cars every day while gone. He couldn't get back any too quick, and is more of an Oregon booster than ever. When he reached there his father, who had been ill, was dead. The weather there was horrible, snow, fierce winds and the thermometer down to 10 degrees above zero. He is glad to be home for sure.

It takes 61 teachers at Salem.

The state Baptist convention will be held at Roseburg this week beginning tomorrow.

Multnomah defeated Willamette only 11 to 0. Capt. Walter Cummings, formerly of this city, was unable to play on account of an accident in practice.

The Reeves-Clark Department Store has been incorporated at Lebanon, with $25,000 capital stock. E. L. Clark recently from Nebraska, has bought considerable stock in it.

J. C. Donovan, a motorcyclist, was arrested at Corvallis charged with violating the speed limit. Eight miles is the limit in Corvallis, and likewise Albany.

Prof. Irving, principal of the North Albany school, arrived Saturday from Virginia. The addition to the school is nearly ready, and work will begin under the grade system next Monday.

The Salem Statesman says five hundred Salem people will come to the apple fair on Thursday the 28th. Going to more than get even with us for that big crowd that stormed Salem from here at the cherry fair.

ALCOS WO. OBSERVED

Score 18 to 0 Should Have Been Double That.

The Alco foot ball team won its first game of foot ball Saturday afternoon, defeating the Independence team, with several college men, including the famous Floyd Williams, in line. Some of the Albany men had hardly practiced, making a somewhat ragged game. It showed splendid material for a fast and strong team. The score was 18 to 0, all made in the first half of 25 minutes. At least that much should have been made in the second half.

Eugene Dooley played a strong full back. Paul Driver, practically without practice did great work at half and kicked all three goals. Clyde Ward at the other half, without any practice did well. Nelson Wilbur kept his head at quarter. Victor Yates was the star man in the line, though all did good work. Barnes and Schumate at ends, Merrill at tackle and South, Meiner and Ellis at guard, with Flo in center. Patterson was on the line.

The game was a splendid experience, and will mean a good deal for the next contest.

The penalties were numerous and Albany generally suffered. Dunlap and Van Marter officiated.

The attendance was small.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

County Commissioner Russell came down from Sweet Home this morning, bringing with him the ballot box for the presidential election last Nov., it never having been delivered yet. A little late, but Mr. Taft is president just the same.

Miss Vesta Wallace went to Portland to see Mrs. Eugene Laforest, who has been ill for some time, going down on the local, of which Mr. Laforest was the conductor.

Miss Mamie McKnight returned to her school at Jefferson.

The new train caller is all right. His voice is about equal to that of the veteran of the Portland depot. We have a union depot for sure, and the service is appreciated.

OBSERVED

By the Man About Town.

An auto party down at the east end of First street hunting for the road to Salem. They finally had to come back to Main street and get another start. The Albany fathers have a big job on hand laying out streets, building walks and cross-walks, etc., down there, and it is time it was started in earnest.

A good many new houses going up beyond Main street, and pains taken to make property look well.

Two wonderful transformations, the Universalist church into a modern structure, and the old Isom house at First and Canal into a pretty residence.

A couple walking hand in hand, and squeaking to beat the band.

That Albany has gotten about as much paving as it can keep clean with its present equipment.

The high school building is up a story. That looks slow, but it is a big structure and twenty men are hustling all the time.

Not a water main east of Sherman street, nor a sewer. What a shame.

Some of Albany's suburbs must come in, and the sooner the better. They are needed.

More Winners.

Mr. Ed School's hogs were not the only Linn county hogs that made a big winning at the Seattle fair. Keller Bros. of Waterloo showed there the fine herd of Poland Chinas of Chas. Pfeiffer of this city, raised on the Waterloo farm, and a big sweep was made, the total premiums it is declared being more than those of Mr. School on hogs, the exact figures not being known here, but were over $700 at the three fairs.

Though Linn county may not have had vegetables and fruits there it certainly made a showing on hogs and sheep.

Another winner is also reported. A comforter made by Mrs. D. M. Walters of this city, was exhibited by her daughter, who resides in Seattle, and Mrs. Walters has received a medal for it.

Too Much Business for One Crew.

Albany is the railroad center for sure. Business has increased so fast at the union depot it has become necessary to put on a night crew in the yard, and one will begin work tomorrow, 7 p. m. to 6 a. m., an all-night shift being found necessary to keep up with the work. This will require the services of a yard master, Mr. Kindorf being appointed to the position, engineer, fireman and two switchmen.

With a train crew honors are coming thick and fast for the Albany union depot, the busiest on the line.

A Big Hay business.

G. W. Simpson, of Portland, has been in the city on business and on a visit with his mother, Mrs. G. F. Simpson. Mr. Simpson is in the commission business, making a specialty of hay, and principally timothy and alfalfa. Last year he handled 23,000 tons, mostly bought up in eastern Washington and Eastern Oregon. It takes three warehouses to meet the large business. Hay is high this year, the Portland price for timothy now being $21.

Whirlwind Out.

The first copy of the Whirlwind for the present school year blew into the Democrat office. Under the editorship of Mr. Earl Fortmiller and the management of Mr. Park Stalnaker it makes a fine showing. Several stories by the high school girls and numerous bright takeoffs are given, filling the paper with spice. The Whirlwind is an excellent exponent of the work and doings of the schools and deserves a liberal support.

Will Soon Be Here.

The celebrated McCalley entertainers now touring the Northwest after a trip abroad and Alaska. Endorsements from the public and the press show this company equal to any entertainers on the road today. Novel program of readings, impersonations, violin, piano, vocal, burlesque political speech.

First Baptist church, Wed. Oct. 20, 8 p. m. under auspices Y. M. & Y. W. C. A. of College.

Wright's Body.

The body of Geo. Wright, alias Carter, killed at Buena Vista yesterday by the Salem posse, was taken through Albany this noon for lone Lane county, where his folks reside, for burial, the end of a bad life.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 63-40. The river is 3 of a foot. Prediction: showers tonight and Tuesday.

TUESDAY. COMING.

Two Electric Lines.

A Salem dispatch states that Mr. A. Welch, of the Portland and Eugene and Eastern R. R. announces that work will begin on the building of the road between Salem and Eugene within ninety days. The plan is to parallel the Southern Pacific most of the way. The franchise has already been let for the road through Albany covering both First and Second streets at the east end, and Main and Eighth, going out of the city on Ninth street.

There is also assurance of the extension of the Oregon Electric to Albany next year. Electric prospects just now are rapid.

W. J. Henderson's Stamp Mill.

The Democrat has received a prospectus of the California Rapid Stamp Quartz Mill, issued by the Oakland Stamp Mill Co., which is of particular interest to Albany people on account of the principal men in the Company, W. Lair Hill, the president, being a brother of Dr. J. L. Hill, and a former Oregonian, and W. J. Henderson, the secretary, is a former Albany man, a brother-in-law of Mrs. W. E. Pfeiffer. It is said to be meeting with great success, and as well a demand for a mill of its character. Mr. Henderson is reported to have been the inventor of considerable of the mill.

Mr. Donovan the Motorcyclist.

J. C. Donivan, who was fined $25 at Corvallis for exceeding the speed limits on his motorcycle, has been in the city today. Mr. Donivan says he has been all the way from Los Angeles to Portland on his wheel and this was the first time he ever had any trouble, always trying to be careful of the rights of others. He says he was not arrested, but when he learned a warrant was out went and gave himself up.

The Next Game.

The Alcos and the Eugene high school team will play at this city next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, which will mean a game worth seeing. The Eugene high school team is one of the best school teams in the valley, and it will take playing to beat them. This week the Alcos are doing better practice work, smoothing off the ragged edges seen in the Independence game.

Benton Too.

The county court of Benton county is back of a move to have a splendid display of apples at the fair at this city, and there will be a crowd here. Harold Rumbaugh has been a leading promoter in securing the county exhibit, and it promises to be a hummer.

Henry Alters left this afternoon for Roseburg to attend the Baptist convention.

Miss Grace Payne, a student of Pacific University passed through the city this afternoon for Eugene, to attend the Congregational convention.

A feature of the apple fair week will be a foot ball game on Friday, with the Alco club team in the lineup and a strong team against them.

Miss Blanche Lingley, of Forest Grove, has been admitted to the bar of Oregon, and is being congratulated. Better wait until she gets a practice.

In order to secure the Alco gym for the apple fair a special floor has to be laid. The Albany Lumber Co. will help boost by furnishing the lumber free.

A surprise party was tendered Miss Ruth Fisher last evening at the home of her father, city surveyor Hugh Fisher, by a crowd of her girl friends. A fine was held in games, and a lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sears have moved from their former home at 526 E. 5th, where they have resided for a good many years, to the Hillington residence, next the Episcopal church. Mr. Sears has sold his former home property.

A force of carpenters are putting the Linn county front in place at the commercial club rooms, delayed sometime by the inability to secure carpenters, made possible now by the rain preventing outside work for a few days.

Couch Frazier, of the O. A. C., is a cousin of J. R. Metzgar of this city. He has the kind of metal that counts and people generally appreciate the stand he has taken for clean foot ball and against the bossism of star performers.

A trip to the Yosemite Valley was immensely appreciated at the Empire last night by a good many Albany people, a fine thing. Another specially good thing was the series of glass blowing scenes, showing that industry in an interesting way.

A man at Gresham recently put some bisulphide of carbon down a chimney in order to drive some boys out of the rooms below. There was a fire in the stove, and a live explosion followed throwing the man forty feet from the building. The boys got.

The committee on securing rooms for apple fair visitors will appreciate the volunteer report of rooms that can be used if desired. Notify A. W. Bowersox, Wm. Fortmiller or F. P. Nutting. The hotels and restaurants can take care of the eating part, but will be short on rooms.

Eugene is raising money for its third year of boosting, with a big response, for instance, $100 a month from the First National, $50 from the Booth-Kelly Co., $25 from F. L. Chambers, S. H. Friendly, E. E. Dunn, etc., but the total so far is only a third of last year.

The annual convention of the Congregational churches of Oregon will be held in Eugene, beginning tomorrow. Mrs. D. Bussard and Mrs. J. N. Upham, prominent Albany Congregationalists, left here this afternoon, promising to help keep the Albany church, without a pastor for some time, on the map.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

In Its Weekly Session.

The regular meeting of the Albany Commercial Club last night was attended by Vice President McCune, in the chair, Secretary Van Winkle, Manager Struble, Treasurer Bain and Directors Miller, French, Fortmiller, Lee, Veal, Rawlings, Stewart, Burgraf, Cameron and Nutting.

A communication was read from President Lowe of the California Light and Fuel Co. stating he would be up through the valley in about a month and stop at Albany. He is being encouraged.

The depot park prospects were discussed.

Also the improvements at the south end of Lyon street, and Secretary Van Winkle was appointed a committee of one to urge action by the S. P. people before the paving equipment is shipped to The Dalles.

Messrs. Bowersox, Fortmiller and Nutting were appointed a committee on securing extra rooms for the apple fair visitors.

Councilman Miller reported that the council will probably order lights at alternate corners on Lyon street.

Having broken the contract the Barnes souvenir was ordered countermanded.
