Rev. H. L. Nave.

Rev. H. L. Nave left this afternoon for Portland, where he will officiate as for Fortiand, where he will officiate as pastor of the church at Montavilla, Thirty-three years a minister and pastor he is anxious to remain in the har ness and will give up his work as field worker for Albany College, though he will always be found ready to help in any way possible for the endowment of the college, and is confident it will secure a good endowment and be in a position to meet the heavy competition of the state institutions.

THURSDAY

ED SCHOEL'S CLEANUP

A Total of $1291.50 at Four shows.

Ed Schoel has returned home with his hogs and sheep and chickens, those that he did not sell, with a splendid record in prize getting. His total receipts spooner, $10.25; J. A. Whitesides, were $994 on hogs, $221 on sheep and $86.50 on chickens, the latter being entered only at Sacramento and Salem, and six Gold medals, two silver cups and two silver medals for special distressives of the recorder and treasurer showed the following:

and two silver medais for special displays.

He was at Sacramento. Calif., at the state fair, at Oregon's state fair, at the Portland show, and at the Seattle fair, where he had a great competition, going up against some $1000 sheep. His Seattle winnings were as follows:

Two firsts, two seconds, two thirds and one fifth on boars; four firsts on sows, one second, two thirds, one fourth and one fifth, was first on aged herd, first on young herd, also third; first on breeders herd, first and third on get of sire, first and fourth on produce of sow. He had the champion senior boar, champion s nior sew, champion junior sow and the reserve champion sow; the grand champion sow and my age and the grand champion sow any age.

sow; the grand champion boar any age and the grand champion sow any age. Notwithstanding the strenuous competition he took $47 on his sheep.

Last year his earnings from premiums were $774, the gain this year being $517.50.

Mr. Schoel has helped put Albany on the map and is entitled to a booster's can.

Jack Has Been Busy.

Jack Hammell says business is good. He is pushing his fifth block this season, the Burggraf brick on Second Street, a fine job. This promises to be one of the neatest buildings in the city. But for the lateness or the season it woul go up two stories. J. C. Hammell owns the lot on the corner adjoining, snd it is said contemplates the erection himself of a fine four story brick hotel on it. If this should be done the second floor of the Burggaf block would be splendidly situated for rooms for it. With a big yard of hops and the product getting up to the 25 cent mark, perhaps more, Mr. Hammell is liable to do almost anything. Jack Hammell says business is good.

Tomorrow the Day.

About the most entertaining lecture ever given in Albany was that of U. S. Senator Robert Taylor, of Tennessee, more famous as Governor of that state. He has been famous as a fiddler as well as a speaker; but he left in fiddle at home and instead runs in several old-time songs. Happy Vailey, the place where he was born, was the theme, and into it he wove philosophy and story, in matchless language, full of flowers and splendid thoughts, those of a Christian man, with high ideals and splendid motives.

Babyion, Kome and Egypt fell when about two per cent of the men owned practically the whole country, and the United States is gradually getting that way. He has been famous as a fiddler as well
