ENTITLED TO A DIVORCE.

A decidedly warm complaint was filed by Barney S. Martin, the Brownsville lawyer, this morning, in Maud H. Lambert agt. Frank Lambert. They were married in Nov. 1898, in Iowa, and according to the complaint the husband was a holy terror, the charges being cruel and inhuman treatment, vicious and malicious conduct, that the defendant struck plaintiff with his fist, that once while drunk he pointed a gun at her and would have shot but for a sister, that he kicked plaintiff, that once he deserted her in a house during a flood, being surrounded by water, just escaping by wading out with the two little children, that once when she was sick he made her dig a cellar, barefooted and jumped it up and down in a cactus plant, etc.
