DOINGS OF THE WORLD.

The Spoilers, something extra, Oct. 28. The Salem business men will have a banquet tonight, an annual affair, just a good feed for the fun of it. Miss Elizabeth Cone, formerly of Albany college, is now in a tuberculosis sanitarium at Fondula, Wis. $20,000 was recently paid for 150 acres in the suburbs of Lebanon, and is being platted preparatory to being put on the market for town lots for homes. Joe Matlock, of Eugene, was examined yesterday for insanity and pronounced sane. In the meantime a divorce has just been secured from a brother in Portland. What's the matter boys.

Leader:—Prof. E. K. Barnes, superintendent of the Cottage Grove public schools, will set out 1,000 peach trees, 1,000 apple trees and 500 pear trees on his newly acquired Creswell fruit farm, this fall and winter.

In the Portola games yesterday Smithson, the world's champion hurdler, was defeated by Edwards, of the University of California, in 15.15, the world's record. Edwards is also a marvel.

Strangler Smith threw Peter Buzkus the Greek, in a match in Portland yesterday, when Buzkus got mad and knocked out two of Smith's teeth. Both men were in Albany a few weeks ago.

ALBANY

Doings In and Around It.

Oysters at The Crest. How about THAT chair. Have you ordered that chair yet. Boost the Albany made chair. Hot chicken tamales at The Crest. Sit down in one of those Albany made chairs.

Good weather for oysters. Try Hofflich's. The sauer kraut season is here. Conrad Meyer has it.

Some fine home-made sauer kraut at Conrad Meyer's. Try it. What's better than well prepared and served oysters. Go to H. Hofflich's.

Carry a "Hull" umbrella and you have the best. French sells them. Ice cream and lunches at the Vienna Bakery. Call and try them.

Class, all sizes, all kinds, for sale at the Albany Planing Mill, cheaper than anywhere else in Albany. Skillfully if desired.

Hot tamales, new receipt, something fine, up to date, at Hofflich's. Go around and have a hot old time and a good one.

The "Hull" detachable umbrellas are perfection of style and utility, and cost no more than other umbrellas. French, the Jeweler, sells them.

Dr. Lowe Oct. 28 and 29 Oct. 28 and 29 Dr. Lowe, the optician, will be at Revere House.

The weather prediction is fair tonight and Sunday. Halloween novelties for Halloween parties at the Mission Parlors. See the windows.

The Catholic Young Men's Club, of Portland, went to Corvallis this afternoon to play O. A. C. Among the players was Loyd Beam, a former Albany boy.

A. H. Sandstrom, the furniture man, returned from a trip south of here last evening, with more orders. Union furniture is meeting with general favor.

The 1st Madison foot ball team yesterday afternoon tore the Holts' to pieces in two sections, 15 to 0. The Madison boys fairly wiped the ground with the Holts', plunging, running, punting, and when the game ended it was all Madison.

SALOON HELD UP.

OLYMPIA, Oct. 28.—Three masked men held up the saloon of Simpson and Schaefer at Little Rock last night. They shot up the place, slightly wounding Simpson, and robbed the till of $600. Mat Burke, J. J. Cronin and Jack Welch were arrested at the train here today on suspicion.

Sentenced.

SALEM, Oct. 23.—Arstell was sentenced indeterminate today. Smith filed a motion for a new trial.

A Court Row.

SALEM, Oct. 23.—There was a sensational row in Judge Burnett's court today.

Rebel Yell.

HOUSTON, Oct. 23.—President Taft had a hot reception, and was given the rebel yell.

Killed by a Live Wire.

WALLA WALLA, Oct. 23.—Reed Crews, a bricklayers helper, fell from a building today, receiving a 2500 volt from a wire, being fatally burned. It stopped all the electrical supply of the city.

A Mining Story.

An interesting picture at Dreamland is Across the Divide, introducing some fine scenes and a thrilling story, in which a miner makes a strike, loses his money at a gambling table, and has it restored to him on the deathbed of the gambler just as he is about to be arrested for murder by a sheriff's posse, repenting of his crimes in the last shuffle.

Our chicken tamales are pronounced by the traveling public to be the best on the coast. They are made in our kitchen with the best ingredients, and cleanliness. The Mission Parlors.

Imported balls at M. S. Sanders & Co's.

Sauer kraut. Sauer kraut. Sauer kraut. At Conrad Meyer's.

BIG TIME

On Willamette Valley Day.

The committee on Willamette Valley day met at the commercial club rooms last night, with E. H. McCune in the chair and Rev. F. H. Geselbracht acting as secretary.

Postmaster J. S. Van Winkle was appointed to deliver the address of welcome at the depot, Rev. W. S. Gordon a committee on having the schools adjourn for the event and D. O. Woodworth grand marshal to head the Elks Band.

Mr. Woodworth as head marshal expects to have a cavalcade of fifteen or twenty horsemen and many automobiles with a prize for the best decorated.

Willamette Day will be Thursday. Salem will bring a special train and crowds will come from Corvallis, Eugene and other places.

The following yell for the fair has been composed by H. N. Cockerline, and should be learned, for use:

Albany apples, Albany pie, Apple dumplings, Oh, my, my.

A Bohemia Strike.

Geo. W. McQueen, of Cottage Grove, president of the North Fairview Mining Co., has been in the city today showing some ore from a rich strike just made in the mines; It runs from $200 to $300, and there is two feet of the stuff in a five foot ledge, with splendid prospects of a long vein of it, a fortune for the North Fairview owners if it proves to be as extensive as thought to be. There are quite a number of stockholders in Albany, who will be interested in knowing that it is proposed to push the development of the mines, later putting in a mill, now owned by the company.

"Keep by" carry a "Hull" detachable umbrella. French the Jeweler sells them.
