this afternoon.

afternoon.

storm over there.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Raiston arrived last night from Seattle.

Mrs. D. C. Burkheart returned this noon from a Portland visit.

afternoon on a visit with friends at Silverton.

trip up the valley.

McMinnville, returned home this afternoon.

being mentioned for the Chinese mission. Poor Burke.

of this city, is here doing carpentry work on the Marshall farm.

Ah Swill was around this noon with out any covers to his shops, a double violation of the swill ordinance.

Tom Cummings and family returned today from an outing at Newport, bringing back some fish and fish stories.

Jack Latourette has been elected captain of the Mulrnomah foot ball team. A mighty good fellow and a hot player.

Dr. Seth M. Keron, a former crack U. O. foot ball player is now a practicing physician and has located at Tillamook.

Herman and Fritz Hoflich have rented the lunch house recently run by J. M.
Dow, near the depot, and will hustle for business.

Ote Johnson of Portland has made thirteen home runs this season and leads the coast league in batting. That ought to bring good luck.

Prof. Cordley, of the O. A. C. writes that he will furnish some pretty wall papers for the apple fair, along lines of apple raising and their care.

F. M. Redfield and F. M. French went to the Bay this afternoon after some salmon, they had heard were trisking about in the Bay.

Lovalt is a popular name these days for president. Rev. Lovatt, of Grants Pass, is president of the Baptist convention in session at Roseburg.

The railroads, express companies, Pullman and all the boys did a big business in Oregon the past year. Some of the small roads, though have some picking.

While on a trip to LaGrande Superintendent Buckley of the S. P. lost a pocket book containing considerable money, a big draft and numerous passes.

John Groshong, formerly of Scott's Mills, left this afternoon for Coquille, and thence down the coast to California. He recently sold his property near Scott's Mills.

Fred C. Brandshagen, of Portland, has been in the city on a commercial trip, while here also visiting at the home of his father-in-law W. C. Breckenridge.

Frank Hammer, of San Francisco, is in the city on a visit with his sister, Mrs. D. C. Burkheart. He is a break-man, running out of San Francisco, and since leaving here has grown almost beyond recognition.

In the list of apple fair premiums one of the prizes has been left out, that of the Albany State Bank, of $5 for the best box of Northern Spies and the free use of a security box at the bank for a year.

There will be no opposition to the confirmation of the award of the referees in the Hackleman partition suit, the division of the estate, with a little change, being accepted by all the heirs, and will thus stand substantially as reported.

In Patterson, N. J. yesterday a blind negro was refused a drink and drawing a revolver began firing promiscuously around the room, killing two men. If he had been able to see he would probably have missed all of them.

Judge M. S. Woodcock, of Corvallis, offers a reward of $50 for any one found hunting or trespassing upon his farm.
Having had two registered backs killed and two ewes torn to pieces by cogs he is getting tired.

It is said it is doubtful if the three convicts that lived after the recent escape, will be prosecuted. District Attorney McNary doubts if the statute applies to a case of this kind, but more especially to resisting arrest inside the penitentiary walls.

Frank L. Armitage, a young farmer a few miles from Eugene sold his 300 acre farm to a new man from the east, and has bought a block in Eugene. He received $34,000 for his farm, over $100 an acre, showing how things are going in this Willamette Valley country.

Frederick Hoss, a shoemaker who died at Colville, Wash., a few days ago, supposed to be in poverty, left $35,000.
In an old rare pair $4500 in gold, $2500 in paper money and numerous securities were found, making the total mentioned. Now what good did the money ever do the miser.

A Corvallis woman wants the boy scored for stealing grapes. She is right. They ought to be. The grapes were hers just as much as if money.
The boy who steals grapes is as much a thief as if he stole goods from a store or money from a till. It is time boys understood this. If you want such things to and ask for them in a decent way. Don't be a sneak.

That Picture Souvenir.
A copy of the Farns pictorial folder, has arrived at the rooms of the Albany Commercial Club. One of the neatest things ever gotten out for Albany.
The order for these was rescinded at the last meeting of the club because they were to be here within two weeks in order to fill in before the big booklets, and six weeks have elapsed without them. The club is getting tired of such delays.

IN THE MAIL.

Everybody's for November. A great Magazine, full of great subjects treated by men of brains. Always something doing in Everybody's. The Beast and the Jungle by Judge Ben B. Lind say continues to lead. It is a revelation told in matchless language. While it hits Deaver particularly there is something for others.

A copy of the Protestant Magazine, issued quarterly, published at Washington, D. C. Advocating primitive Christianity. Protesting Against Apostasy.
The foundation of it are these words:
"If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Judge Hewitt and Hon. J. K. Weatherford went to Salem to argue the case of Paul agt. Paul which has been hanging fire for several years. Judge Hewitt remarked that he wrote his brief in the case a year ago, and it has just been called for argument. A decision may be looked for sometime this century. But suppose the court declares itself unconstitutional.

A. J. Caldwell returned to Stayton.
He has sold a half interest in his knitting factory, to a man with twenty-five years experience in the business. The new firm expects to branch out into different kinds of hosiery instead of making a specialty of just men's woolen hose, as now.

Senator Miller went to Portland on a business trip.
Rev. Jamison came down from Brownsville and went to Roseburg this afternoon.

Wayne Stuart and Del Bogart were prominent drummers leaving for other places.

No. 16 arrived at 7:10 in charge of George Pepler, a former Lebanon young man, two sections following later.

The College Student.

Arrangements have been begun for the issuing of the Albany College Student again this year. Yesterday afternoon officers were elected by the board of control as follows:

Martha Montague, Editor in chief; Grover Birtchett, associate; Lucille Harr literary editor; Rhoda Stalnaker, local and personal; Inez Easton, exchanges; Gil Ogden, athletics; Gordon Dunn, business manager; Dollie Bending, assistant; Anatta Burch, subscriptions.

This will mean a live college paper, the force being made up of some of the brightest students Albany College has ever had.

Stole Mixer's Mat.

During the darkness of last night some one stole surreptitiously to the front steps of the home of W. D. Mix-ter, the real estate man, and stole the mat from a steel foot mat, costing the sum of $1.50, the best made, and carried it off. It will probably continue to take off the mud from feet, but it can never take the mud out of the character of the man who stole it.
Mixer would like to mix with the fellow for about five minutes. He promises to leave him a mixture of dust and depravity.

Albany and Eugene.

The Eugene high school foot ball team is one of the best the school has ever had, and aspires to the state high school championship. The team is being coached by Mullen and Zacharias, old U. O. players. The boys will play the Alco club next Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, and the home team will have to get a hustle on, but expect to be equal to the occasion.

Will Play Ft. Stevens.

The Alcos and Ft. Stevens will play foot ball at this city during the apple fair, on Thursday, Oct. 28. This ought to be a great game. Ft. Stevens has one of the best foot ball teams in the N. W., old players who have been in many battles, and it will mean that the Alcos will have to get together and work the rags off.

Albany to Have a Kindergarten.

Miss Helen Wright, sister of Miss Wright of the public schools, arrived this week from her home at Hancock, Mich., and expects to make Albany her home. Miss Wright is a kindergarten teacher, a former student at Oberlin, and is splendidly recommended as a teacher in this work. Albany has not had a kindergarten school for several years, and there is undoubtedly an excellent field here for this very important work, one deserving promotion in the Hub.

Out Two Nights.

An Ellsworth street man says that for two nights the electric light at the very door of the mayor and only a short distance from the back door of a councilman has been out, shedding not its beams upon the traveler now and board nights. The city needs more lights, not less, declares the informant.

The Weather.

The range of temperature for the day ending at 8 a. m. was 51-46.
The rainfall was .9 inch, making 2.62 inches since the present storm began.
The prediction is: Occasional rain tonight and Friday.

FRIDAY

finance committee, Mrs. Carrie Hale-man the P. G. C. of H.

Ghrysanthemum Carnival Postponed.

It will be held Nov. 10 and 11.
The committee having charge of the Ghrysanthemum Carnival to be given at the same time of the Apple Fair have found it necessary to postpone it on account of the 'mums blooming so late, there not being enough out to make a creditable showing.

The prizes will be held over and given as previously announced.
It will occur Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 10 and 11. The place of holding it will be given later.

Changing the date of holding the carnival will enable those wishing to make an exhibit to have their ghrysan-themums in much better condition.
Remember the date and be on hand with your choicest 'mums.

Oregon's Famous Towns.

The Medford Tribune claims Congressman Hawley said that Medford was the best known in Oregon outside of Portland. This has stirred things.
Eugene completely outshines Medford in publicity according to local papers there. Everybody knows that Salem is better known than Medford. Col.
Hofer alone is. Some one recently said Albany was the most talked of town in Oregon. Corvallis and the O. A. C. are famous clear to Chicago, for the fine school and the woods of the town, while Hood River is on the map even in London. The Tribune had better try again.
Certainly it prevaricated about Congressman Hawley.

At the Hotels

A. S. Williams, Eugene.
A. A. Allen, Portland.
F. E. Wallace,
L. Edwards, Philomath.

E. C. Davis,
H. C. Zehrung,
A. H. Lea, Hazelwood Creamery.
R. Edson, Astoria.
L. H. Shellenberger, Easton, Pa.
E. P. Scanlon, Portland.
J. E. Scott, Portland.
P. N. Mendenhall, Portland.
A. L. Rainwater, Philomath.
H. A. Hirschaw, of the S. P.
E. H. James, Medford.
J. B. Johnston, Lebanon.
S. J. Beachy, J. J. Mullett, McMinnville.
E. H. Green, Portland.
Ed Billings, Portland.
M. D. Tottem, Spokane.
Leonard E. Shaw, Lancaster, O.
L. B. Carter, Newport.

Had a Crowd

A Vanderpool, of Wells, residing on Albany's R. D. 4, was in the city today. Mr. Vanderpool was in the midst of the recent convict hunt, at one time having twenty-three men at his house, a lively place for a day or two. He makes a good report of the posse and says he saw nothing to justify the report by the Corvallis Times of bad treatment of the convicts.

Of the Oregon Lit.

L. Samuel, manager of the Oregon Life, has been in the city today, promoting the interests of Oregon's life insurance company, which is said to be getting a strong hold here. The money that goes into the Oregon Life stays in Oregon and that is a strong slogan with the company.

Married

J. F. Koenig and Miss Mary Nelson, two worthy young people of near this city, last evening were united in marriage by Judge Duncan, at the court house.

PICKED UP
By the Man About Town.

The Linn county front is now in place in the Albany Commercial Club rooms, with a little staining to do, cut up and rearranged, with the thirty eight different kinds of wood in shape.
Some one says the place looks like Solomon's Temple. But it can't be beat all the same.

The paves resumed work this morning at the First street end of Lyon street and also at the depot end, with prospects of the S. P.'s part being left until the Company gets ready to fix it.
Just beyond now a large pond is accumulating, an eye-sore to the district. It should have been filled before the rainy season.

House builders have gone to work again, hustling to get the roofs on.

Hotel building just now is all on paper. Later some four story bricks.

Soth has a dandy Hallowe'en window, suggestive of an approaching event of concern to the small boy. It will occur on Sunday night, and therefore is out of place, and Saturday night is too early in the season, but will be the time observed.

There is a rumor of a real estate banquet at one of the hotels Saturday night.

There is a new element in the real estate world in Albany, and there will be something lively doing in town.

Red raspberries in October, is an Albany report.

Miss Mary Nolan, of Corvallis, was in town last evening.

Col. Eddy, right-of-way man, went out to Lebanon again this afternoon.

C. N. McNary and F. W. Waters, prominent Salem lawyers, arrived this noon on Albany business.

Conrad Myer jr. went to Portland last night for special treatment for his eyes.

Mrs. M. E. Houlton and daughter Imogene, of Los Angeles, are visiting at the home of Capt. C. B. Winn.

Messrs. Scott and Conn, former Summit merchants, who recently sold to H. L. Bush, came to Albany this noon.

H. F. Merrill and J. L. Tomlinson returned this afternoon from the Baptist convention and Henry Albers this morning.

H. K. Luger has returned from another trip to Walla Walla, headquarters of the Northwest Co. of which he is chief engineer.

Mrs. Faust and daughter, of Hood River, are visiting here. Mrs. Faust is formerly of this city, the daughter a native of Hood River.

No orders have been received for the improvement of the street at the south end of Lyon street, beyond Tenth street, and it will be fixed up by the S.
P. at its leisure.

Dr. Tom Settlemier is down from the wilder of Lane county with his kit of chirodoid tools, prepared to pare corns and bunions in the latest style, with care and skill.

The sample rooms are being tested to the limit these days with the trunks of traveling men. Yesterday J. A.
Nimmo, the drayman, handling about fifty of them, some of them regular houses.

A charge of insanity has been filed by a brother against Joe Matlock, under arrest for assault upon a sixteen year old girl. Matlock is married, and is said to be very erratic.

The operating revenue of the C. & E. last year was $289,014 23, the expenses $182,465 91, a revenue income of $97, 548 32. The actual net income was $24,926 96, certainly a fine showing for the road.

C. W. Sears has bought of Rev. Billington the residence now occupied by him, just west of the Episcopal church.
The consideration is reported to have been $2750. L. L. Swan had charge of the sale.

Ernest C. Cochran, fireman on the Junction freight the past month, has been transferred to the passenger between Portland and Roseburg, and tomorrow will move to Portland to reside.

President H. M. Crooks will leave next Tuesday for the east in the interest of the endowment of Albany College. Oregon has done its part. It is up to the east to duplicate what has been done here according to the promise of the national presbytery.

D. C. Frazier, a national vice president of the travelers association, has
