LEBANON'S BOOSTING.

$2500 Raised for Promotion Work.

Lebanon held a booster meeting last night. It was a hummer. The hall was packed. Speeches galore, warm from the shoulder, were made. The program was a live one, and the enthusiasm was intense. The object was to raise money to boost Lebanon, and it was done.

Who was there to do it? Tom Richardson, of course. He always is, unsurpassed in the world as a promotion money raiser. After making one of his characteristic speeches, he called for subscriptions of so much a month. Lawyer Garland at the jump off started it at $10, and Hon. M. A. Miller was close behind, with A. M. Reeves & Co. and others following, nine or ten giving $10. In all $1750 a year was pledged on the spot, no very small ones being asked then. Today the amount was increased to approximately $2500, the goal set, a big one for a city the size of Lebanon. All the towns boosting is going to make the Willamette Valley hum.

Death of S. W. Reece.

S. W. Reece, a former Albany man, died in Portland Thursday night. He came to Oregon in 1877, residing in Lebanon awhile and then coming to Albany, where he resided a number of years, prominent in G. A. R. circles. It is said he had just patented a water wheel for sluice mining. He leaves a wife and three children, William S. Reece, Mrs. John Scroggs and Mrs. Daisy Pullis.

He was born in Indiana, served in Co. B, 124th Indiana Infantry as First Lieut., participated in all the battles fought under Gen's. Thomas and Sherman. Comrade Reece was a charter member of McPherson Post No. 5 G. A. R. and a Past Post Commander.
