THE COMING ELECTION.

The coming city election is beginning to attract attention. Just now it is difficult to tell what will be evolved. Street talk often doesn't materialize.

For mayor, Mayor Wallace is generally spoken of as being needed in the office another term; but other good men are being mentioned also, Senator F. J. Miller, Ex-mayor Dr. W. H. Davis, and William A. Barrett, prominent in the affairs of the city.

For chief of police, or as the charter calls it marshal, I. A. Munkers, former county sheriff and the present official Fred Reis are spoken of.

For city recorder no one has been mentioned but the present efficient official, F. M. Redfield, filling the office in a satisfactory manner to everybody, as is also E. D. Cusick the treasurer.

The retiring councilmen are L. C. Marshall in the first ward, F. J. Miller in the second and L. M. Curl, filling the unexpired term of M. L. Wilmot, in the third. Who wants the jobs.

Heard From Again.

In Saturdays issue we made mention of Duluth capitalists telegraphing money to the president of the Mexican Mines, Doctor Hill, for stock in the mines. Today a letter came asking for a larger amount of stock.

The message says "Money is here for investments before stock is taken off the market. Answer by wire." The Democrat is promised further news from the mine in the near future, which will be given the public. The directors have received word from an expert kept on the ground to make frequent assays and direct work that "Your property is worth millions. Work is being crowded day and night and you need not be surprised to hear something big at any day."

Two Natives.

Mrs. Anna Mansfield Webber and Mrs. Anna Griffin Coursen, of Portland returned home yesterday afternoon after a home coming visit of two or three days in Albany, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Hopkins. Both were born in Albany over forty years ago. Mrs. Webber in the house now occupied by C. D. Van Dyke at Broadbain and Third, and Mrs. Coursen in what is known as the Brink house, in the first ward.

Mrs. Finch in Albany.

Mrs. Finch, of Portland, has been in the city securing signatures asking for a commutation of the sentence of her son from hanging to life imprisonment, and some have signed it. A good many do not wish to interfere in the matter one way or the other. Mrs. Finch, though, has the sympathy of all in her afflictions, a pleasant appearing woman.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 52-45. The river is rising and is 1.8 feet. The rainfall for 24 hours 1.48 inch, during the month of October 2.38 inches, rather below the average for October.

A Monmouth Gloria Mundi weighed 38 ounces.

E. J. Crow, owner of the Fiecd corner, has been in the city. Considerable Hallowe'en cussedness is reported in and around the College. An Albany man advertised a farm for rent, and had two answers right along.

Miss Crosno went to Jefferson today, called there by the death of a nephew.

Mr. C. I. Leavengood and family, of Myrtle Creek, went to Lebanon today on a visit.

Mrs. Mida McCoy Jackson, of Cozburn, is visiting at the home of her folks.

Mr. Neil C. Macdonald, formerly in the real estate business here has returned from Montana, where he has been looking after his stock farm for several months.

Mrs. J. M. Ish returned this noon from a visit with her son Geo. E. Fish, of Portland, who passed through the city for points south of here.

W. Hollich of Riverside, was in town today on a visit with his six sons. Another son resides in Portland and he has two daughters.

A week has passed since Tom Richardson started the promotion ball for next year at Eugene, and the fund is only between $6,000 and $7,000. What's up.

U. O. Beat Willamette Saturday 29 to 9. Washington defeated Idaho 50 to 0, which means that U. O. will have her hands more than full in her Washington game.

The Democrat recently mentioned Mrs. J. E. Knox of Portland, a home-comer as a native of Linn county. No quite. She was born in Ireland, coming here when quite young.

John Catlin went to Portland yesterday morning to attend the cremation of the body of his friend S. W. Reece. Mr. Reece was a fellow member of the Albany Camp of the G. A. R. for many years, prominent in its work.

Three men yesterday were trying to handle a bucking horse on Washington street, one doing the riding, the other two helping to keep him on, causing quite a show and some noise. Finally some one turned in the police alarm and the bucking stopped.

The street at the corner of Ferry and Water needs improvement badly and the council should be prompt in attending to it. The business men there are doing their best to have it fixed up, and are entitled to what they ask.

IN A SALEM PAPER.

The Salem Journal on Saturday gave a special writeup of the apple fair excursion from Salem to Albany, presenting pictures of Albany the State Bank corner and the Elks building. Besides its account of the apple fair it says: Albany added six blocks the past year and several hundred new residences.

The new high school is a $50,000 structure. Quite a number are contemplated. There were twenty six blocks of bitulithic pavement put down during the year. An electric street car line has been added with modern cars of the latest pattern. There are 121 feet of brick blocks planned and will be constructed the coming year. A five and possibly six story modern hotel is being promoted.

Certainly that is sufficiently complimentary of Albany's progress and prospects.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Geo. B. Whitcombe, president of the Albany, Lebanon and Bend Railroad Co., left for Portland on a business trip. Mr. Whitcombe reported more good strikes in his mine ten miles up the river from his place, showing up fine in gold and copper.

S. N. Steele, one of Portland's prosperous real estate men, returned to Portland after attending the apple fair, and particularly the home-coming part.

V. W. Robnett, a member of the famous grand jury that indicted many during the Heney days in Portland, came down from Shedd on a short business trip.

Z. H. Rudd and L. P. Hubbs returned from Lebanon. Miss Marcus returned from a Sunday visit at Lebanon. Lawyer J. Fred Yates came over from Corvallis.

Mrs. Bakr left for her home at Oregon City, after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. S. Richards. Mrs. Royal Shaw and son returned to Mill City after a visit at J. A. Shaw's. Miss Lila Patton returned from a visit at her home at Hals ey.

C. Sam Smith Injured.

C. Sam Smith, well known in Albany, was seriously injured last week at his farm in Crook county. A horse threw him and rolled on him, breaking several ribs, causing a concussion of the brain, and wrenching his neck and shoulders. Ed Parker, one of the Parker brothers, was with him. Mrs. Smith at the time was in Albany, at the funeral of her father, Henry Cleek, and left for home at once.

Former Albany Man's Orchard.

Wm. Boegli, a former Linn county boy, took twenty prizes on fruit at the Crook county fair, including first prize on exhibit of apples. He displayed Baldwins, Golden Russets, Gravensteins, Newton Pippins, Northern Spys, White Pearls, Winesaps, Rambos, Fawcetts, Bell Flowers, Wolf Rivers, crab apples, Idaho pears, Winter Nelis, Fall Butter, prunes and plums. Pretty good for one Crook county orchard.

Didn't Lose $200.

The Corvallis Gazette-Times says an Albany young man lost $200 on the O. A. C.—Whitman game. The young man, who requests his name left out of the paper, says the statement is not true. That the amount was only about $10, that as a matter of fact there were no takers. The result was about as much a surprise to O. A. C. men as to people generally.

In the Forests.

M. S. Durbin, forest ranger at Walport, was in the city today, after attending the convention of rangers at Eugene. There were about thirty present, covering the Cascade and Siuslaw districts. The reports showed a splendid record in the prevention of fires and in trail making. Mr. Durbin on his range built sixteen miles of new trail, opening up new sections, a great thing for the country.

Not Afraid of Cannon

Madison, Wis., Nov. 1.—Speaker Cannon's Challenge to read out the republican party such as Cummins, La Follette, and "their followers" was accepted by Senator La Follette of Wisconsin. Notice of willingness to enter the contest is served upon Speaker Cannon through La Follette's Magazine. Cannonism is ridiculed and his dismantled doctrine is held up as the "snarlings of a grim old wolf who hears the beaters in the woods, and scents them closing in."

A First Street Theft.

Some one entered the Royal restaurant rooms, upstairs, during last night, getting some clothing, razors, etc., belong to a roomer. The thief forgot to leave his card, and is still at large.

A most pleasant evening was spent by the members of Manzanita Circle and their friends last evening. A delightful basket supper was served and games were played till a late hour. Those present declared they had not had such a pleasant evening for a long time and all expressed a desire to have another social gathering in the near future.

A BIG INCREASE.

The receipts of the postoffice for October were $1489.95, almost an $18,000 rate. Those for October, last year were $1195.25, showing an increase of 24 per cent, which speaks for itself, and Albany.

MARRIED

Clevenger-Smith.

Mr. C. Frank Clevenger and Miss Jessie L. Smith were united in marriage Saturday evening, Oct. 30, at the residence of, and by, Rev. W. S. Gordon. The marriage was private. The groom is a popular young man, an electrician, and the bride, a former clerk in the Elite, is a young lady of splendid character, both having many friends whose best wishes they will have.

TUESDAY.

Primary Meetings Must be Held.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: I see an article in the Evening Democrat giving names of those who are mentioned as candidates for the various city offices at the coming city election. And this calls to mind the fact that some voters are saying that no primary election will be held the 6th instant for the reason that no petitions have been filed for candidates and the time for filing has passed. But this is an error, a serious error. No voter is required to sign a petition naming a candidate but in lieu thereof he may wait until the primary election is held and then write in the blanks the name of his candidates. Every voter in the city has this right and to hold no primary is to disfranchise all of them, if no petitions have been filed. The law has expressly provided this way for those who do not, for any reason, want to nominate by petition. Salem finds herself in the same condition that we are as to candidates. No petitions have been filed. But the city recorder will prepare blank ballots and each voter at the primary will write in the names of his candidates. This is the only legal way. No mistake should be made about this matter. VOTER.

Rain galore. And that's camp more. Rub a dup dup. The river'll go up. Ripity rap. Nothing but sap. Apples we can raise. Fit for a king's praise. The women have spoke. The park's no joke. See Albany grow. For the P. O. Says so.

That Green Fruit Out

In giving a recent item about a suit brought by A. B. Hudson of Gates against the U. & E. the Democrat did not give the whole figures in it. It is charged that the rate to Albany on green fruits is 32, 25 and 19 cents according to the class, while the shipments through Albany to points beyond, such as Portland and Salem is 15 and 12 cents, a discrimination against Albany shipments, that is prohibitive. This will be investigated before the R. R. Commission.

A good sized crowd enjoyed Prince Otto last evening, a company of experienced actors. The chrysanthemum show is to be on Wednesday and Thursday the 10th and 11th and promises to be a drawer. At that time there will also be a Japanese fair under the Ladies Auxiliary and the Modern Travellers for a depot park fund, which deserves the united support of the people of Albany.
