John Minto to His Friends.

Fellow Citizens of Linn County.

I am here today to address you as the oldest living apple grower of Southern Marion county and the oldest well wisher to the city of Albany, being the last living comrade of the brave brothers, Walter and Thomas Monteith, who planted the seed of your city after doing soldiers duty in the first Cayuse war of 1847.

Being among the first to help give Oregon right to the name of the "land of big red apples" in the mining camps of the coast, I congratulate the men of Albany and Linn County for this effort to demonstrate that big red apples are not a product limited to any locality of Western Oregon. From the tide wash of the ocean to 5000 feet above it on the west slopes of the Cascades is apple growing land. It is the men of Hood River and Medford that have spread the fame of those localities. It is not yet known where in Eastern Oregon apples can not be grown. It is only limited by water supply. In fact that is the only limit up the west side of the Rocky mountains.

I am here to press upon the attention of enterprising men the need of cooperation in getting a double track electric line 40 miles east from Detroit to Black Butte, on Dechutes Plains. J. MINTO.

Catholic Conference.

A conference of the deanery of the Southern Oregon district is being held at the Catholic church today, with about ten present, from Eugene, Roseburg, Brooks, Siletz and Corvallis.
This noon a fine dinner was served the visitors in the new rectory.

The Weather.

down to one foot again.
The rainfall was .08 inch.

Mr. King, head pressman on the Per-tland Journal, has been in the city.

L. A. Newton is home for the apple fair, always welcome back in Albany.
Besides a brother dying Senator Chamberlain's mother is seriously ill at Natchez, Miss.

Coalings, Calif., is now on the map.
It has offered $100,000 for the Jeffries-Johnson fight.

Tom Richardson himself, always boosting, arrived last night and is on hand to fill in or anything else for Albany and the rest of Oregon.

Forest ranger Durbin, of Waldport, went to Eugene today to attend a ranger's convention.

Editor Moore, the versatile and aggressive genius at the head of the Corvallis Gazette-Times, has been attending the apple fair today.

First Lieutenant S. C. Worrell went to Portland this afternoon to attend a banquet of the Commercial Club given in honor of the regular army stationed at Vancouver.

Marion license Frank Saffley, 23, of the Home Telephone Co., formerly of Benton county, and Miss Margaret Bodine, daughter of Mr. Albert Bodine, 18.

Mrs. F. L. Trace arrived from Omaha this week on a visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Smalley, Mrs. Lydia Hoxie, of Salem, is also visiting at the Smalley home.

Mr. Daniel E. Combs and Miss Allie Art Palmer were united in marriage yesterday Rev. Gordon officiating. Two worthy people having the best wishes of many.

BIG CROWDS
AT THE FAIR.

This is Willamette Day and a Big One.

The formal opening of the apple fair was made last evening, when Councilman Miller on behalf of the city gave a short address of welcome, followed by a musical and literary program in the Christian church, with a splendid address by Prof. Peck of the O. A. C. on horticulture in keeping with the spirit of the fair. The orchestra furnished some fine music, the Treble Clef Club of girls pleased exceedingly, Mr. Gram-ham received a warm encore and deserved it, Prof. Kendall was heard in a couple selections, Messrs. Irvine and Parsons made a hit with their flute and violin duet, Miss Smith, of the College gave a delightful song, Prof. Gallery was heard in a well rendered violin solo, the male quartet gave a good selection and a large chorus of girls were heard in the new official song of the apple fair, "In the Land Where the Big Red Apples Grow," which proved a popular air.

There are about two hundred boxes of apples on exhibition, a collection that cannot be beaten in the world in quality. The three county exhibits from Marion, Benton and Lane are particularly fine, speaking marvelously for this valley as an apple grower. Each has twenty boxes. The Marion exhibit consists of 6 boxes of Waxens, 4 Spitzenbergs, 3 Canos, 2 Red Cheek Pippins, and one each Seek No Further, Arkansas Black, Swann, Yellow Newton and Winesap, nine varieties. The Benton display is made up of 4 boxes of Jonathans, 3 of Baldwins, 2 each of Wagener, Ben Davis, Spitzenbergs, Vanderpool and Newtons, and one each of Northern Spys, Black Twigs and Bell Flowers, ten varieties. The Lane display has 5 boxes of Spitzenbergs, 6 of Newtons, 2 each of Bell Flowers, Jonathans and Baldwins and one each of Ben Davis and Sawyer, seven varieties.

Near the display is a card reading:
"Who can blame Adam and Eve if apples like these grew in the garden of Eden."

The plate displays are good ones, not showing the producers. Some special are: some Famuser Snow, by E. A.
Pernet, some immense quinces by J. A.
Nimmo, Henry McElmurry, J. F. Asche and A. B. Caster. Joe Smith of Lebanon has some Canada Reds, Mrs. Plunkett of Eddyville some Kings; Henry Sheak some Coals; A. R. McCoy a fine plate of peaches. There are also 10 oz Pippins, Rambos, Orleys, Russian Baldwins, etc.

At noon a good sized crowd came from Corvallis and about four hundred arrived from Salem, headed by Mayor Rogers and the splendid band of the city. The band played, but on account of the lateness of the train and the confusion the address of welcome and response were omitted, and the crowd marched down street, led by D. O.
Woodworth and I. A. Munkers marshals, fifteen or twenty horsemen and a line of automobiles, a long and live procession, enlivened with college, high school and other yells.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock an instructive program was presented, consisting of an able talk on practical orchard growing by Hon. A. H. Carson of Graust Pass, the management of the orchard by W. K. Newell of Hillsboro, president of the state horticultural association, and cooperative fruit shipping by F. G. Decklebach of Salem.

Postmaster Van Winkle delivered his address of welcome at the apple fair, from the balcony, with the response by Salem's live and progressive mayor, George Rodgers.

Tonight, with E. W. Cooper Presiding the program will consist of music by the orchestra, a reading by Clyde Williamson, the official song, Westward the Star of Empire, by Manager Struble, and what Tom Richardson knows about apples, at the Christian church.

The home coming program Friday night at the Christian church has been arranged. There will be a reception at the Alco Club parlors by the committee to former Albany people in the city, from 8 to 9 o'clock, when the Christian church will be used, with this program up. Music by the orchestra, address of welcome by Judge Hewitt, response by State Printer Dunniway, official song, reading by Orah Harkness, piano solo by Nellie Hart, reading by Clyde Williamson, short address by Congressman Hawley, solo by S. N. Steele.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

That ferry down in California has been fixed, the stub taken off, and No.
14 is again getting a late fever on, this morning arriving at 8:45. Instead of being late, California trains, with the slow schedule on this line, should be along at the tick of the clock.

Newport & Hornbach's new lunch wagon appeared, a neat looking concern well stocked with eatables.

Dr. Lowe arrived ready for his regular Albany engagement, which he has been making for nineteen years.

Good sized crowds came down from Brownsville and Lebanon to the apple fair, worth attending.

Chas. Knecht left on a short Portland trip.

E. H. Rhodes went down to his prune orchard near Jefferson. He also has apples numerously.

Apple fair post cards are already out, showing off the display to advantage.

A Boy on Apples

An Albany school boy runs wild as follows:

Apples, apples, everywhere.
And good ones, too, you bet.
But not a taste have I had yet Of all the apples in the show.

Apples, apples in the tree.
Apples everywhere can I see.
But to taste one is an impossibility, That's the way it looks to me.

non this afternoon.

lins during the apple fair.

BOOSTERS
HERE.

Booklets and Souvenirs Have Arrived.

The much talked about, long anticipated booklet under the Harriman contract arrived this morning and 25,000 of them will be sent broadcast over the United States and the rest of the world.
The booklet is one of the finest issued, beautifully illustrated, covering not only Albany and its industries and advantages, but the surrounding country.
The cover is a good one, showing a general view of Albany with the bridge in the foreground, with apples and grapes in the setting, and a good looking woman to add tone to it.

The little Barnes souvenir folder is also here, one of the neatest things ever issued on Albany.

Our people should get copies of these and hustle them eastward, genuine boosters for Albany and Linn county.

Trains.

J. M. Rankin returned to Portland after an Albany visit, his first for many years. Mr. Rankin came to Albany in 1852 with the crowd that brought S. E.
Young, both boys. He married Miss Beach, a sister of Mrs. George, and has the distinction of having brought the first dray to Albany. He is a painter now.

H. K. Luggar, chief engineer of the North West Co., left for Walla Walla in response to a dispatch. He has hardly had time to see his new bungalow, one of the prettiest new homes in the city.

P. W. Spink returned to Portland.
W. E. Turrell, of Tacoma, left for home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Laubner, of Halsey arrived.

Raymond Burkhart, of Lebanon took a car load of dried prunes to Salem, where they had been sold at a net return of about 4 cents, or about $1600 for the car load lot.

John Robson went to Portland.

Miss Macneil, the nurse went to Gates for an engagement.

W. L. Jones returned to Jefferson.
He was thinking of another deer hunt before the season ends Sunday.

Wm. Babcock, of Salem, went up the C. & E.

Mrs. George Washburn and Mrs.
George McKnight returned from a visit at the Lasselle home in the country.

Alcos Won.

The Alco Club foot ball team yesterday afternoon won another victory, making a clean sweep so far this season.
They defeated the well trained team from Ft. Stevens 22 to 0, the same number of touchdowns in each half.
Albany tore through the line of the soldiers, while the army men could do nothing with the Alco phalanx. Victor Yates played a star game at full back, a new place for him. Driver and Ward were sent for repeated gains at half.
Wilbur Nelson kept his head at quarter.
Dunlap, an old-time O. A. C. man did great work at tackle. Barnes and Schumate stopped the blue coats every time at the end. Flo did good work at center.

Alton Coates officiated with a Ft.
Stevens man, and Erb Schultz was field man.

The Baptist ladies today gave a splendid dinner for the customary price, 25 cents.

A new residence going up in the third ward is that of A. Thur. McClain, on 11th street, between Hill and Main.

Adjutant John Catlin has had the G.
A. R. flag at half mast today in honor of Gen. Howard, a man with a splendid record as a man as well as a general.

Gazette Times—The little son of Albert Wood is still very sick. Dr.
Davis of Albany was called in consultation the first of the week and made arrangements for the little boy to be taken to the Albany Hospital.

Register—It is getting to be that no great undertaking in the west is the acme of success unless an Oregonian takes part in it. Even an Oregon girl was selected as queen of the great Portola festival at San Francisco and an Oregon boy won the swimming contest during the festival.

COMING DAY.

All day yesterday crowds viewed the splendid display of apples at the fair.

Salem particularly did itself proud, bringing a record crowd here. But after Salem had gone in the evening the apple fair room was packed just the same.

On account of the Christian church being used the exercises in the evening were held at the fair, on the platform arranged for the purpose. Manager Struble delivered an address to the point on the westward star of empire, showing the trend of the times, and Tom Richardson spoke on the apple as the coming gr at power in this valley, the raising of which in the right way cannot be overdone. The Oregon apple is wanted. Versatile and resourceful Richardson always strikes to the point.

This is home coming day, and a good many old time Albany people are here.
They are all requested to meet the reception committee at the Alco Club parlors at 8 o'clock. At 9 o'clock a program will be given at the Christian church, when Judge Hewitt will do the welcoming, with responses by State Printer Dunniway and Congressman Hawley, and some good musical numbers.
