

GROWING ALBANY.

The following from the Portland Journal is a sample of how Albany is attracting attention:

For October the postoffice receipts show an increase of 24 per cent over the same month last year at Albany. The fees for real estate transfers in the recorder's office are the largest yet known in that city.

Albany is in the center of the famed Willamette valley. It is the meeting point of more railroads than any other city in Oregon.

JABS.

Nobody wants the north pole, anyhow. Let Cook or Peary or the Eskimau have the old thing. We have Linn county which is enough for any mortal man.

The republican assembly boomers are now trying to assure the rank and file that they will not do anything to the primary but help it along a little and improve the thing in a few spots.

If the assembly outfit keeps on its scolding it may make us believe that it is the only protector the direct primary and statement one has left in the world.

Farmers are often given to think that they own the land. In Portland they are selling corner lots 50 by 100 feet for $450,000.

We have water power enough in Oregon to pay half the taxes of the state. It is all grabbed and mostly held for speculation.

WHAT SPRAYING WILL DO.

An Albany man gave the Democrat the following from an Eastern paper, as showing what spraying will do, and now is the time to spray:

Nearly everyone strives to make a record of wormy fruit, but it remained for Mrs. Viola Widney to take the record for clean apples.

This shows that if proper methods are employed the wormy apple is something which can be easily eliminated.

AN ELECTION SUGGESTION.

Editor Democrat:— It appears to me as a citizen and taxpayer that it would be the proper thing to re-elect the present mayor and the outstanding councilmen.

A Portland woman has secured a divorce from her husband, who called her an 'obnoxious weed.'

Jack Lupton, of Eugene this week was fined $200 and 30 days in jail, by Judge Harris, for violation of the local option law.

CITIZEN.

There is more to learn in this section, so we country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.

LINN COUNTY COUNCIL.

On Saturday, Nov. 6th, the Linn County Council met in the hall of Crowfoot Grange near Lebanon.

It was a beautiful day, the sun shone brightly, and regardless of the muddy condition of the roads quite a number of faithful patrons were present.

Six granges were represented. The exercises commenced with a song. The time until the dinner hour was fully occupied with the regular order of business.

The dinner was a fine one. Afternoon session was public and a number of invited guests were present.

The literary exercises is one of the most important parts of grange work, for we often receive assistance from visitors who are not members.

The next meeting will be held in the hall of Western Star Grange, Dec. 4th, when much business of importance is likely to come up for consideration.

People are beginning to find out that Albany is becoming a BUTTER center, and have been able this year to get it in any desired quantity.

Some Game Cases. Two men named Pugh and Murphy were tried at Sweet Home Monday charged with killing doe.

In Dreamland. The electrical and mechanical effects are bewildering and keep the audience bordering between laughter and awe.

MISFITS.

Chrysanthemum week.

Prediction: A busy week.

Albany is a big butter maker too.

Mr. Taft is going to talk with the insurgents.

Favors are always slab-sided unless two sided.

Spend doodles of money at the fair, for the park.

Dates to remember 10 and 11. Don't keep mum about the mums.

Just now the depot park is the center of thought. Boost it.

Korea will be just a grease spot when Japan gets through with her.

The women can vote in Colorado, but it is wet. No they are to be put to the test, with a campaign in Denver.

An aviator has been arrested in Paris for fast driving. When he really gets down to business there will be something doing.

A Kansas City woman who has had six husbands, says no more wedding bells for her. And the poor husbands, think of them.

A new ordinance in Tacoma prevents the shouting of wares in the early morning, which hits the newsboys. Tacoma is a sleepy city anyway.

Jack Johnson was recently knocked out in a saloon row. He is going the usual pace, and will go out for good when Jeffries gets a whack at him.

One of the men who will be here next Saturday with a fez is the editor of the Oakland Owl. Albany people are warned to lock up their chickens.

The average weight of wheat in the U. S. last year was 58 pounds, for ten years 57.4. It is rare that Oregon wheat goes below 60 pounds.

Every dollar sown at the carnival will mean that Albany people will reap pride and joy in a beautiful park at the gateway of our city, in the spring time.

There is a well developed lake all ready for the depot park. It is said to be stocked with fish, one of the men in the freight depot yesterday seeing some jump up, evidently having gotten in from the canal.

District Attorney Fickert of San Francisco is an old foot ball star, and Geo. McMillan, of Portland, gave him his start. McMillan says he is honest, and will run things himself, and that no thug element will dictate his policies.

A minister requested hats off, and one of the first was an old lady with a bonnet that made no difference anyway, appreciating the power of example.

OREGON.

A Campaign for Publicity.

Portland, Or., Nov. 9.—Under the banner of the Oregon Development League, the state has never taken a more decided forward movement in community publicity than now.

During the past week, under the direction of the Oregon Development League, remarkable meetings have been held in various parts of the state. Tremendous interest has been shown everywhere.

Lebanon raised a publicity fund of $2500 at an enthusiastic meeting. Corvallis has just organized a woman's auxiliary.

Silverton, at a meeting during the last week, raised a fund of over $2000 that will still further increase. A strong commercial club has been organized with over 40 members.

Scio and Jefferson are in line for their share of publicity, having each raised $900 for development work.

Glendale, at a meeting Friday, showed a splendid get-together spirit. The centenary of the first American settlement on the Pacific Coast will be celebrated by Astoria in 1911 and plans for the affair are already being discussed.

Establishment of a direct steamship line between Portland and Antwerp was announced this week.

Thousands of new settlers have come to Oregon and Washington during the period that the low one-way colonist rates were in effect and are now building permanent homes here.
