THURSDAY.
THE MEN
At the M. E. Hold a Banquet.

About sixty middle aged men from the congregation of the Methodist church gathered at the parsonage last evening at an early hour and partook of a banquet furnished by the Women's Bible class.

A committee from A. M. Hammer's class of "rifty stalwarts" received at the door, and did the serving like professionals.

The following toasts were responded to, well spiced with wit, wisdom and good stories:

1. How Organization Helps a Sunday School Class.—A. M. Hammer.
2. The Booster Spirit applied to Church Work.—W. R. Struble, manager of the Commercial Club.
3. The Methodist Brotherhood.—W. S. Gordon, pastor.

Why We are Here.—Dr. C. V. Littler, Supt. of the Sunday School, who emphasized the fact that the boys are likely to follow the example of the men in their attitude to the church.

Nearly all of those present signed cards enrolling them as members of the Men's Bible Class, which was organized with the following officers:

President.—J. S. VanWinkle.
Vice president.—J. B. Loughlin.
Secretary.—R. K. Ohling.
Treasurer.—Co. Sheriff Smith.

Mr. VanWinkle was called for a speech, and sustained his reputation of being ready for any emergency.

A vocal duet by Messrs. Hammer and Littler, and a solo by J. H. Raiston were well rendered. The remainder of the evening was spent in getting acquainted and in a general social time.

A Klamath Falls Man.

Mr. Clarence H. Underwood, of Klamath Falls, was in the city today on his way home from Seattle where he had been called by the death of his step-father. Mr. Underwood was a member of Albany's foot ball team when it held U. O. down to a tie and beat O. A. C. 5 to 0, and continues interested in the game, for he is going to happen to be in Eugene tomorrow during the big game. Mr. Underwood is a son-in-law of Mr. H. C. Chamberlain of this city. He is in the drug business in Klamath Falls and is doing well.

Hon. P. R. Kelley left last evening on a Portland trip.

Mrs. Bessie Simpson, of Eugene, returned home last evening, accompanied by Miss Eva French.

Mrs. Elfreda Parkes of Charleston, Wash., left for home last evening after a several weeks visit with her son and brother A. H. Parsons of the jewelry store.

Kenneth Merrill, Gale Sanders, Buford Payne and Earl Fortmiller went to Eugene this afternoon to be ready for the great foot ball event.

The Portland Journal of last evening gave a couple fine pictures of the Albany Commercial Club rooms, among the finest in the state.

Some white radishes seen at Eastburn's today, are perfect monsters, larger than most turnips. They are solid and very palatable too.

Distinguished men passing through this noon were Ex-Sheriff Wm. Frazier of Portland, Detective J. F. Raitley and O. C. Richey, of the postal service.

Garfield Bilyeu was arrested today by Chief of Police Ries charged with being drunk and disorderly, and placed in the city jail this forenoon to await his trial.

The Eugene Guard declares that a new jewelry store there is the best between Portland and San Francisco. It is a good one if it is any better than several in Albany.

A daughter of Lillian Russell, the actress, is about to marry a Japanese prince. No worse than marrying a French spendthrift or an English nut-head.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Webber of Brownsville recently celebrated their golden wedding, two splendid old people. Both were born in Germany in 1837 only four days apart.

Clarence Edwards, the boy drowned at Alsea Sunday, had run away from home, and had not been heard from for a year. The boys parents had separated and the mother had married again.

Gazette-Times.—Fred Harris, of Albany, was in Corvallis today looking over the local laundry with the idea of purchasing, but Mr. Strange was hardy of the disposition to part with his business.

R. Koehler passed through the city today on his way to Lane county. He is now purchasing agent for the S. P. Years ago he was the Oregon manager, quite conspicuous in the affairs of the road.

A bazaar by the ladies of the Catholic church of this city will open in the Armory November 30. There will be many useful articles on sale at the booths. Meals will be served each evening and a musical program will be rendered by the best talent to be secured.

Prof. Luck has been chosen for the important position of referee of the U. O. O. A. C. game tomorrow. Absolutely impartial, knowing the game as well as any one in the Northwest he may be depended upon to do the square thing.

Col. John Jacob Astor, has been lost twelve days while on a cruise on his yacht, and there are fears of an accident. But the public cares very little for what happens to these Astors, who make so much and do so little for the world, characteristic aristocrats.

Tomorrow will occur the great U. O. O. A. C. foot ball game at Eugene. The excursion train from Corvallis will leave there about 9 o'clock and Albany about 10 o'clock. Last year there was a $1 round trip rate. This year it is about $1.75. The admission to the game will be $1 and 50 cents for a grand stand seat.

Their willingness to assist and their generosity made the work a pleasure and the many things donated made the $550 possible. The splendid success of the booth and the entertainment was due to the enthusiasm of the committees and the spirit of those who took part so beautifully. "Nothing great was ever achieved without enthusiasm."

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Just one lone little veal was the extent of the express business of the W. F. Co. on the Lebanon train; but it was more than made up last night when the 1700 pounds of dressed poultry was brought down.

Full back Keek, of the O. A. C. came over on crutches on his way to Eugene ahead of the crowd. He was out of the Washington game, and certainly doesn't look as if he could go in the game at Eugene. It is said Wo'll will do the plunging and kicking.

L. L. Swan returned from a Lebanon trip.

J. W. Swank came down from Tallman.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clevenger went to Salem on a visit with friends.

Mrs. Croissant, a niece of Mrs. Fred Ries, who is here on a visit from Oklahoma, where she resides, left for Kingston on a short visit with friends.

John Maxwell left for the Mission Bottom, eight miles from Gervais, but by taking the Oregon Electric at Salem he will get within 10 miles of his logging camp, where he has been working the past summer, helping to get out 1,500,000 feet of logs for the Spaulding Co., and seven hundred cords of wood.

The Gabas Certainly Moved.

An interesting divorce suit this week was that of Gaba against Gaba, brought by Lawyer Risley. Mr. and Mrs. Gaba live together and share a half years, and never in one house more than two months, living in about thirty different houses and eight or nine different places. California, Salem, Corvallis, Oregon City, Springfield, Marcola, Independence and Albany. If three moves are equal to a fire what a conflagration there was in the life of this poor woman, and she certainly was entitled to a divorce and a gold medal for standing it so long.

There Are Others.

The Democrat recently mentioned the fact that the editor had not tasted a Celestial rooster this season. It seems that there is nothing strange about this. Prof. F. M. Mitchell, in the very midst of the birds, an old hunter at the game, informs the Democrat that he also has not had a single taste of Chinese rooster this year.

A Social and Menagerie.

An enjoyable social was held in the basement parlor of the U. P. church last night, with a good attendance. A feature was the guessing the names of a menagerie of wild animals in cages, an ingenious affair. Crokinole and other games were played and refreshments were served.

EUGENE
Joe Matlock Gets a New Trial.

Guard.—
Jos. F. Matlock, charged with a statutory offense, was today released from jail, his father, Mayor J. D. Matlock, and brother, Dr. Matlock, signing his $1500 bond. His second trial is to be held on Dec. 1, the judge having granted him a new trial on the ground that one of the jurors in the first trial was guilty of misconduct which was against the law.

At the city council meeting last night an ordinance was passed prohibiting restaurant keepers and employes from serving meals in any closed room containing less than 100 square feet except when the room is abutting on the street and has unobscured windows.

This law is to do away with enclosed restaurant boxes, and is the result of several escapades in one of the restaurants of the city lately.

Bids for a site for the proposed new city hall were opened. There were nearly twenty sites offered ranging in price from $5500 to $22,000.

Nomes R. R.

One railroad has been built at Nome, running from that city a distance of ninety miles to Candie, a big mining town. It is only run in the summer, the drifts of the winter absolutely stopping traffic on it. An interesting place on the road are the hot springs gardens, sixty miles from Nome, where almost everything is raised in profusion, about the only place there where vegetable raising is successful. People have the advantage of this only in the summer, except as things are kept in storage during the winter from the summer output. The ground is warm enough to melt the snow as fast as it falls, and the soil is wonderfully rich, says Mr. F. N. Wood, in telling about it.

An Electric Suggestion.

Albany, Nov. 18.—It is shocking to the sensibilities of some of our people to see the way the electric roads are coming up the valley. They try to block their advent with prices for right of way that would make a New Jersey farmer sit up and call them grafters. However, the railroads are coming, and the land values that will follow will cause some of the men who sold right of way sore hearts, for the extortionate prices received will look like thirty cents, and thereafter each nickle will be bitten to make sure that it is not counterfeit. PROGRESS.

A Big Revival.

Baker City, Nov. 16.—Dan Shannon closed his six weeks' revival service here last night when he preached a farwell sermon to the converts. More than a thousand were converted, including gamblers, drunkards, business men and others. The evangelist was given a thank offering of $1500 Sunday. The people of the city built a $1200 tabernacle, and paid the heavy expense of the revival. A law and order league has been formed, and also a Young Men's Christian Association. The people are well pleased with the results.

Corvallis' Postmastership.

A fight has already begun for the postmastership at Corvallis. The four year term of B. W. Johnson expires next summer. W. P. Lafferty is out with a petition, and Mr. Johnson will also be a candidate. He has been a very competent official and besides is one of the best boosters in the valley. The Democrat makes the guess that he will get the job another four years.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 52-39.
Rainfall .30 inch.
The river is 3 feet, almost summer stage.
Prediction: rain tonight and Friday.

FRIDAY.

NEW SUITS

An Odd One for Property and Damages.

Complaints were filed today in the following:
Oscar Black agt Mary E. Hurst. A suit to recover possession of about 160 acres and $3200 damages. In 1896 the plaintiff's mother, Mrs. Isabelle Wright, and her second husband sold the land to Rebecca Hall, who sold it to the defendant. After the death of the father of the plaintiff there was no administration of the estate and the plaintiff took no part in the transfer by his mother, now dead. The plaintiff besides possession asks for $2000 for timber taken from the farm and $1200 for six years rental of the place.
Moulton and Scobey, of Portland, are the attorneys.

She leaves three children, Miss Mae Montgomery, of the state printing office, Mrs. Sina Cummins, of Salem, and James, better known as Pete, of Washington, and a step-son, Spratt Montgomery, of Eastern Oregon.

She was a woman of excellent character, a good wife, mother and citizen.

French, "Bill" Coates, and Roy Nutting, of this city. Jack Labourette, captain of the "Blutnomahs", famous in many U. O. battles, was on the same train.

A FOOT BALL TRAIN.

The special foot ball train, bound from Corvallis to Eugene, with eleven cars packed to the rails, and a baggage car, passed through Albany this forenoon, just before 10 o'clock, with about seven hundred on board. The train stopped five or ten minutes. Several young men in khaki suits, including Ray Roberts, came out and remarked:

Hooray, hooray, hooray,
Peter, Peter,
O. A. O. A. O. A. C.

Which seemed to suit everybody. A small crowd of Albany foot ball enthusiasts, such as Charley Stewart, once famous as a quarter back, Nelson Wilbur, a present day quarter back, Vic Yates, Dave Patterson, Billy Hogan, Frank Will, Albrecht Parsons, J. W. Kirkland and others joined the live crowd and left for the Hartog town.

The game was to be called this afternoon at 3 o'clock, with 1958 pounds of U. O. beef and skill against 1826 pounds of O. A. O. beef and skill.

Betting seemed in favor of the U. O., but you can't always tell.

A Block System Item.

Eugene Register:
That the Cottage Grove local came into Eugene safely with Congressman Hawley aboard on Tuesday evening without being badly wrecked was due only to the block signal system put on the line a couple of years ago. As it was, it was over a half hour late, and the reason was this: When the Shasta Limited passed over the portion of the track at a dangerous place, about a mile east of Springfield Junction, a rail was badly broken, more than a foot of the top of a rail being crushed off. Fortunately, the break of the rail also broke the wire along the under side of the rail which operates the block signals, and the red light was turned on for that block. The crew and noticed down almost to bare wood and noticed the break in the rail by his headlight just before he came to it. By blocking up and running over it very slowly, the train was brought over the break safely. When they got to Eugene the matter was reported to the section man and his crew was gotten out at once and went to the place and put in a new rail.

The Parrish Case.

The trial of the divorce suit of Luella Parrish agt. E. E. Parrish was to begin in the circuit court at Portland today, with Allan R. Joy and W. H. Fowler appearing for the plaintiff and John E. Logan and J. J. Whitney for the defendant. In a former suit the parties were reversed, Mr. Parrish being the plaintiff. Along with the divorce cases there have been several side cases of different characters, including two $10,000 damage suits against lawyers, not yet tried, and numerous other contacts of different kinds.
