

HIGH CUT SHOES

For Men and Boys

Doctor bills cost money. They're caused by bad colds mostly. The colds are due every time your feet get wet, lots of times when they're simply dampish. One pair of these High Cut Shoes will keep your feet dry, and as warm as toast, you don't catch cold and the Shoes are well worth the price.

Men's High Cuts	$3.50 to $9.00
Boy's " "	$3.00 to $3.75
Youth's High Cuts	$2.50 to $3.50

THIS MORNING

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

The trains came in almost any time, No. 16 at 8:30 and No. 14 at 8:45. The storms have delayed trains generally.

Superintendent Walsh reported four washouts beyond Mill City and three bents out of the Breitenbush bridge. The train runs to Mill City and transfers to the regular train beyond, which then runs to Gates.

Col. and Mrs. C. B. Montague, of Lebanon, left for Portland to eat Thanksgiving dinner at the home of E. E. Montague. The Col., a hero of the Balaklava, is holding his age in a splendid manner.

G. R. King, the real estate dealer, left for Bloomington, Ill., on a business trip.

Owen Beam left on a Portland trip in the interest of Linnhaven. He reported the stock practically taken, and the company in splendid shape for business.

J. W. Hobbs, of the internal revenue office had been out among Lebanon's blind pigs, if it has any. Hardly any escape his vigilant eyes.

Nearly a hundred O. A. C. students passed through on their Thanksgiving holiday trip home.

Father Lane went to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. D. N. Williamson left on a Portland trip.

Thanksgiving Service.

Will be held at St. Mary's church at 9 a. m. and the sermon will be delivered by the pastor with a special musical program. Father Lane who has been with the Chapel car will conduct the service, having just returned home.

THE BOYS CONFERENCE.

The arrangements for the entertainment of the delegates to the Boy's Conference are about completed. In all about 60 delegates are expected. The Portland delegation has chartered a special car, and will arrive on the noon train on Friday.

The opening session will be held in the Christian church on Friday evening at 7:30. Mr. Struble of the Albany Commercial Club will deliver the address of welcome to the visiting delegates. The public is invited to this session.

William White, son of Rev. Mr. White, is president of the State Conference, having been elected to this position last year at Eugene. Rolla Ralston is president of the local boys organization, the Phi Alpha Pi. The following committees have been appointed to receive the delegates and escort them to their places of entertainment: Reception Committee: Elbert Warford, chairman, Earl Fortmiller, Rolla Ralston, Buford Payne, Wilson Peery, George Dooly, Frank Engstrom. Entertainment Committee: Wm. White, chairman, Oscar Soth, Clyde Roberts, R. Y. Nutting, Edward Viereck, Sanford Archibald, Park Stalnaker, Dean Cornwall, Edward Viereck has been chosen as representative of the local organization to read a paper before the Conference.

Catholic Fair.

The Catholic ladies of Albany will hold a bazaar and fancy sale on the evenings of Nov. 31, and Dec. 1, 2 and 3.

A fine dinner will be served at 5 p. m., and all kinds of dainty refreshments will be served in the evening. There will be a large assortment of fancy and useful articles from which to select Christmas gifts.

Archbishop Christie will be represented at the opening exercises and Dr. Harry Laas of Portland is expected for some occasion.
