THIS MORNING

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

The train caller appeared for the first time in his official cap, labeled Train Director, which has been needed in order to give people traveling an opportunity to know whom to ask about the trains.

J. B. Eaton and family, residents of Shedd for several years, left for Peabody, Kan., to reside awhile, expecting to return to Linn county later.

Miss Hattie Gunsauls, of the Pacific States Co. left on a Kingston visit.

Dr. M. M. Davis, of Eugene, arrived on his way to the Bay to look after his oysters and other property.

Mrs. Skelly arrived from Tallman.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

R. R. McKinney, of Holley returned today from Portland.

Alex Power, of Halsey, was in the city today on his way home from Salem.

J. B. Cornett, of Shedd, was in town today, having a hand treated. He has been working with it for a year.

Arthur A. Garrett, a son of W. F. Garrett of this city, and J. C. McDonald have leased a group of rich claims on Lost Canyon Mt., Grant County, Colorado. The average ore shows $50, but some has run 10 ounces to the ton. Mr. Garrett is manager, and believes the Port Huron group will be heavy producers.

Attention.

The Ladies of Fair Oaks Circle No. 1, G. A. R., will serve a chicken pie dinner on Dec. 11 (Saturday) to which all are invited. No admission. Dinner 35 cts, supper 15 cts. All day Bazaar. Presents suitable for the Christmas occasion.

THE CATHOLIC FAIR.

The Catholic fair at the armory opened last evening with a big crowd present and much interest in the booths and doings.

Several well stocked booths are neatly arranged and splendidly decorated in different parts of the hall. One can't escape the country store to the right, just as one enters the building. It is quite a cute affair, and full of good things, with store keepers who know their business and are equal to all occasions. At the left is the candy booth, with toothsome sweets. Then there are fancy article booths and a Japanese booth, with plenty of opportunities for investing in a good cause.

A fine chicken dinner was served from 5 o'clock, with crowds at the tables.

At the evening session of the fair a fine program was rendered, greatly appreciated by a packed house. Some bright talks were made by Hon. J. K. Weatherford, Father Thompson, of Portland and Judge Galloway. Miss Evah French, Miss Boyles, Prof. Palmer, Inez Lemke and Victor Yates were heard in pleasing solos and the Teddy Bears captured the house. To night there will be another good program, with Prof. Horner of the U. A. C. as the principal speaker.

A Coming Treat.

Too much praise cannot be given the Ladies Auxillary for engaging the Schubert Symphony Club and Lady Quartette of Chicago to appear here on Dec. 8 at the Opera House. This company is in its 20th year of success, and is acknowledged everywhere to be the most "up-to-date" musical company travelling.

Everybody likes music and everybody enjoys a hearty laugh. A delightful blending of pure fun and fine music is one reason why the above company has won its way to the top notch of public esteem.

Basket Ball.

There will be a double headed basket ball exhibition at the Alco gym tomorrow night, the first of the season, with a ten cents admission. One game to start with will be between a team from the high school freshmen and sophomores.

The other the regular high school team against the Alcos.

The lineup of the freshmen will be C. Bigbee and Viereck forwards, Curtis center, Bruce and Carnegie guards. The sophomores, Crowell and Beeson forwards, Ohling center, Archibald and Sott guards.

TWO SUITS

For an Accounting and Divvy.

A couple of complaints filed by McFadden & Bryson of Corvallis today brings into the limelight again the affairs of the defunct Albany Farmers Co., which went into bankruptcy a year ago.

W. W. Poland agt. S. Cox et al. and T. B. Cooper agt. John Althouse et al. Both are for an accounting and asking that certain corporation defendants, class B. be required to divide up with the plaintiff and many other defendants having wheat and oats on deposit with the Albany Farmers Co. In the first suit it is claimed there should have been 68,000 bushels of wheat and 20,000 bushels of oats, instead of the 8,000 bushels of oats turned over to the trustee in bankruptcy, L. M. Curl, and in the other 15,000 to 16,500 bushels should have been on hand, instead of the 3,000 bushels turned over to the trustee.

Another chicken dinner at 5 o'clock and afterwards at the Catholic fair tonight.

Indoor Base ball.

The first game of indoor base ball occurred at the Alco gym last evening, between the bankers and the Alco Juniors, a fast and furious contest for nine innings. Score, Bankers 20, Alcos 11.

Stewart and Bain were the battery for the bankers and Viereck and Archibald for the Alco Juniors.

For excitement indoor base ball beats almost anything going. Clair Baker umpired the game and escaped alive.
