MONDAY

MISS MARCUS' WORK.

The young peoples' conferences under Miss Helen Marcus closed yesterday afternoon with a splendid address by Rev. Henry Babcock, of Salem, on "possession, safety, purpose," a circle, and "Blest Be the Ties That Bind." The conferences were well managed and were fruitful of much good among the young people attending, telling for righteousness. Miss Marcus left on the early train for Watsonville, Calif., her home, declaring that next to Watsonville, Albany is closest to her heart. She came to Albany on May 7 at the opening of the Johnson meetings and secured a warm place in the hearts of Albany people by her earnestness, faithfulness and ability, following the meetings with special work, and as well working up an interest through the valley in a union of service for better things. Splendidly equipped she will continue her evangelistic work, the coming season being with Shanno, and her Albany friends hope that she may again be in Albany, where she has already done a splendid work for a better Albany.

Basket Ball.

Through superior team work Newberg defeated Albany college Saturday night, 26 to 19, in the first basket ball game of the intercollegiate basket ball league. Albany had the best material, but Newberg did the best playing. With practice the college will have a team hard to beat. The first half ended 17 to 9 in favor of Newberg. The second half Albany made 10 to Newberg's 9, but the Pacific College boys had gotten too big a start. Mr. Teate, of Dallas umpired impartially. The audience was not large, Saturday night being the worst night of the week for a game.

1378 Draw School Money.

The school enumeration was completed Saturday evening and showed a total of 1378 school children drawing money, a remarkable thing about it being that there are exactly the same number of boys and girls, 639. The showing is a good one, the increase being approximately two hundred for the year, which means an increase in population of one thousand.

Returned From The Dalles.

Mr. Scott Hart had returned from The Dalles, where he was with the Warren Construction Co. during their first paving contract in that city. Nine blocks were completed with the exception of about five days work, stopped by a snow storm. The people there are greatly pleased with the start and will have more. DEATH OF MARGARET WITHER.

Mr. Margaret Cundiff Wither died in St. Francis Hospital, San Francisco Sunday noon, after an illness of several weeks, of pneumonia and a complication of diseases. Her death is particularly a sad one, leaving the mother, who was with her, childless, two daughters having gone in the bloom of life, and the husband several years ago. Margaret Cundiff was born in this city, in the brick built by her father at Washington and Third street, March 21, 1885, and spent her life here until about seven years ago, when she moved with her mother to Eugene to secure the advantages of the State University, from which she graduated, then teaching a year, returning to her mother's home to be with her. She was married the first of August to Mr. Nat Wither in San Francisco, a happy affair, to be followed by illness and death. Bright, genial and lovable her death has cast a gloom over the many friends in Albany, and her mother and husband have the universal sympathy of Albany people in their great loss. The remains were taken to San Jose today for interment.

Our City Hall.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: As there seems to be some difference of opinion as to the location of our New City Hall, permit me, a tax payer and one deeply interested in the future of our city, to offer still another suggestion. Not long ago a most desirable location was selected, at a very reasonable figure, consisting of an entire block for our fine new high school building. All public buildings should be located with a view to future requirements, our proposed city hall should not be crowded into the wholesale and retail district. Albany needs a city park and needs it badly. If an acreage park is not to be had then we should adopt the block park system. We are a great city. Then why not purchase an entire block, erect our city hall, surround it with an ornamental park and eliminate the way to a city beautiful. C. S.

Lewis Acquitted.

Auburn, Calif., papers have been received telling of the finishing of the trial of Jeff Lewis, a former Linn county man, for the murder of a man named Sweezy, a case attracting considerable attention. The main defense was insanity, and this prevailed, the jury bringing in a verdict of not guilty. Lewis has relatives in the valley, a witness or two being present from Eugene.

What to Do With Them.

Newcomers, arriving in response to the invitation of the Commercial Club are finding it difficult to get houses or ever rooms for housekeeping. One man with two or three clean, bright looking children was turned down because of the children. A good many are here, good people. What are we going to do with them.

Valley Apples.

The Benton county apples, at the Albany show and taken to Spokane, are said to have attracted considerable attention, and declared by experts to be as fine as anything there. The interest shown in them is evidenced by the fact that the Corvallis Commercial Club has twenty-five or thirty letters from Benton county as an apple section.

Card of Thanks.

We thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy in our recent bereavement. MRS. P. COHEN and family.

TUESDAY.

FIREMEN'S ELECTION.

Jeff Creel Elected Chief Engineer.

The firemen's election yesterday was a remarkable one. The Companies had made only one nomination Fred W. Hockspier, of No. 1's for chief engineer, with no nomination for assistant. 70 votes were cast, a light one, but when they were counted it was found that Jeff D. Creel, an old member of the fire department had received 33 votes to 34 for Fred Hockspier, the regular candidate, and Creel also received 14 votes for assistant chief, the others being scattered, the most of any one, thus being elected both chief engineer and assistant chief. Mr. Creel will of course accept the highest office, while that of assistant it is said, will be filled by appointment.

After Shingle Timber

E. A. Thompson left this afternoon for Corvallis to investigate the cedar timber situated up the Aissa road. He is entirely out of cedar timber for shingles, and his stock is clear down, hence the necessity of securing some more to work on. On account of the damage to the track up the C. & E., he has been unable to get any down for several weeks. The Albany Shingle Mill has done a big business the past year; but next year promises to be a better one even.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

Considers the Census, New City Hall, More Houses, New-comers, Etc.

Present—President Davis, Vice President McCune, Manager Struble, Secretary Van Winkle and Directors Cameron, Hewitt, Miller, Tracey, Ellis, Dawson, Burgraf, Rawlings and Nutting. A communication was read from R. J. Hendricks, supervisor of the census, turning over the selection of four enumerators for the city to the club, and in reference to the number. The committee on fraternal visits reported that the visits would be deferred until after the busy season. West Christian Advocate of Chicago, presented an advertising arrangement in connection with a special edition of Jan. 15, for $100 a page. Referred for a week's consideration. $54 was reported collected during the week. Manager Struble addressed the Club on the importance of accommodations for new comers giving incidents of people going elsewhere because they could get no houses or even rooms, and there was a numerous discussion, with suggestions. Fred Dawson, George Taylor and Chas. Pfeiffer were appointed a committee on securing an organization for flat and house building. The matter of location of the new city hall was discussed, with a suggestion that it be made a civic center, with a whole block, but close in near the business center because of the fire department also occupying it. Burgraf, Hewitt and Stewart were appointed an interviewing committee. It is proposed to have a reception for new comers at the Club rooms, and Messrs. Ellis, Struble, Miller, Woodworth and Dawson were appointed a committee.

Bert Stevens went to Lebanon this afternoon. The new Mayor of Bend is also a Dr. and Merrill is his name. $27,000.00 in dividends last year is the S. P. record. Medford proposes to have its residence streets parked. Peter McKinney, of Saginaw, Lane county, returned this afternoon. Jerome Lasselle left this afternoon for McMinnville on spray business. Mrs. Cecelia Holmes, of Portland, is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Kennedy. Mrs. Jennie Brown went to Eugene this afternoon on a holiday visit with friends. Mrs. G. W. Humphry, of Jefferson, came up this afternoon on a short Albany visit. Mrs. E. E. Payne returned to Lebanon this afternoon accompanied by her daughter. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Melvin B. Littlejohn, 240 W 3rd street, a ten pound daughter. Otis Hamilton, ex-adjutant general of Washington, yesterday was found guilty of embezzlement. Since its Albany pilgrimage Al Kader, Portland, has elected a new potentate, William H. Galvani. George Prichard, formerly of this city, is now managing editor of the Morning Union of Walla Walla. Claud Gatech, bank examiner, has been in the city looking around. The Albany banks are all right. Capt. Stanley Hammell is out after being confined to his home for a week or two following an operation. King Leopold, of Belgium is dying, which suits the rest of the world, for his record is one stained in diabolism. Dr. Lowe the optician will be in Corvallis next Monday Dec. 20. Lebanon 21 and 22. Albany 23 and 24, consult him.

R. D. Hodges of the Soda Creek country, was in the city today. He reported the West Side mill at Ridders in a bad shape, in danger of going out. Mrs. Jos. H. Raiston and daughter Josephine and brother Dr. W. E. Stewart, went to Lebanon this afternoon on a short visit at Stanley Stewart's. Mr. Dan F. Mason and Mr. Geo. S. Fentris and family are here from the east with a view of locating, after a correspondence with the Commercial Club. Next Saturday the people of Corvallis and suburbs will vote upon the extension of the city limits. While Albany has been sitting still Corvallis has been acting. The world strikes three million matches every minute, seven billion a year, one half of this under Uncle Sam. This takes an enormous quantity of the best wood to be found. Mrs. E. J. Moist went to Lebanon this afternoon accompanied by Dr. J. P. Wallace, called there by the dangerous illness of her son, Mr. Fred Moist, who is dangerously ill. Awhile ago Zera Snow, of Portland was in the city, and it snowed. Yesterday William Snow of Cincinnati was in the city. Will it snow again. Come to think of it the Snows have to be somewhere all the time, summer and winter. Mr. Edgar Abner Thompson, of Portland, again delighted an Albany audience, with his readings and songs, in which he displays a talent that is varied and pleasing, a refinement of expression of a high order. Albany people will always be glad to have him come this way. Miss Wharton, the accomplished milliner, who has been with the Hamilton Store for some time, left this afternoon for her home at Roseburg, where she will spend the holidays with her folks and then go to San Francisco previous to going into a millinery store at Roseburg the next season. Lorenzo Pilkington, O. A. C. student, was on a pole fixing things to hang physical Director Angell in effigy because he wouldn't let the boys have the armory for a dance when they wanted it. When he struck a wire that was alive and the next thing he knew a doctor was working over him on the ground.

FOR THE BOYS AND GIRLS.

Miss Myrtle E. Pease, district visitor and investigator of the Boys and Girls Aid Society of Oregon, of Portland, a former Albany school teacher, is in the city this week in the interest of the school. She desires to sell memberships at $5 annually, life memberships at $100, or perpetual memberships at $250. At Salem $250 was taken in memberships and the county court appropriated $175. Albany should do its share. The Society the past year added a wing to the home at Portland, at a cost of $7,000, besides other expenses, and it is desired to raise money for it. This home is for boys and girls entirely outside of Portland, which has its own home, and hence an all-Oregon institution. There are now 102 children in it with one hundred beds for them, including those in the new wing. Of these 52 are for adoption, and homes are wanted. Several from Linn county have been given good homes and are doing well. The Society is doing splendid work under a thorough organization, with Geo. H. Williams as president, Mrs. C. R. Templeton, a former Albany lady, secretary, and William T. Gardner is the able superintendent. The Linn county advisory board consists of Judge J. N. Duncan president, Mrs. L. E. Blain vice president, Mrs. A. H. Martin secretary and treasurer, and W. B. Stevens.

Money given in the interest of the homeless and friendless, the little unfortunates, is splendidly invested for all time.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mr. Schroder, of Seattle, a former Lebanon man, came down from a visit at Lebanon. Though a resident of Washington Mr. Schroder says he is an Oregonian just the same, and is glad of an opportunity to come down into the valley.

Miss Montgomery, daughter of Agent R. K. Montgomery, passed through with the body of her cousin, Merle Markee, killed at Klamath Falls recently, for Forest Grove, where his folks reside. He was helping to unload some large plate glass when it fell upon him, crushing him, and almost catching another man working with him.

Edgar Abner Thompson, the blind elocutionist and singer, returned to Portland. Mr. Thompson has the rare talent of being extra both as a vocalist and a reader.

Mr. and Mrs. Blatchford went to Shelburn on a visit with their sons, now in business there. Cal. Thrasher returned from a Lebanon trip.

J. M. Flaherty, a dealer in real estate, cattle and auctions, came down from Lebanon.

Nicholls Will Move.

In a few days Mrs. G. E. Nicholls will retire from the millinery business, but the store will remain in the family, and Mr. Nicholls move into it with his bakery and restaurant, adding a cafe and fitting the place up in first class condition. The Elite candy factory, which has the rear part of the room for making sweet things, will go elsewhere. Mr. Nicholls using that part for the bakery.

The store room vacated by Mr. Nicholls at Second and Ellsworth streets, has been rented by a Portland restaurant man for a year, and will be occupied by him after the first of the year.

7397 in the County.

Superintendent Jackson this afternoon completed the enumeration of the school children of the county drawing school money. The figures are 7397. Last year the number was 6972, an increase of 425, a splendid showing, as it means an increase in the county of 2,000.

Death of Hazel Peterson.
