MONDAY

A FALSE REPORT.

Recently a deputy pure food commissioner was in the city, and bought a pail of lard and some hamburger at each of the meat markets, which he took back to Portland with him for analysis. There has been no report at all on it yet, and nothing is known about it. It is evidently up to the standard required, for there has been plenty of time. And yet people on the street have had the butchers arressed and fined, fixing the amounts.

PORTLAND,

As Seen By the Man About Town.

The Democrat man made his annual pilgrimage to Portland, going down Christmas morning on the 4:18 train leaving at 4:30, arriving in the metropolis at 7:15, leaving Albany bare, reaching Portland in a coating of snow.

Like Albany, Portland is growing, many new blocks going up, with the business streets lined with old shacks in places that ought to be replaced with big steel buildings.

A splendid improvement is the new Y. M. C. A. building at 6th and Yam-hill, a wonderful institution and a magnificent development since Secretary Stone came to the helin. Beautifully furnished, complete in its equipment, modein in every detail, up-to date in its many advantages it is a monument to the Christian people of the city. It has 2500 members and over one thousand students in its diversified schools, offering unsurpassed advantages.

and students in its diversified schools, offering unsurpassed advantages.

It is a clean place for young men to live. There are 172 beautifully furnished rooms, sleeping over 250, and a cafetera at the bottom furnishes delicious meals.

The advantages for clean sport are many and the equipment the best. The Portland Y. M. C. A. is in splendid hands.

Avery striking event was a swimming match at 11 oclock in the Willamette, with the water at 48 degrees, between thirteen enthusiasts. A seventeen year old boy, named Patterson, won out, with four others finishing, about half frozen, a fool contest for sure.

Within five minutes the Democrat man met Judge Wolverton, Deputy U. S. District Attorney Wyatt and Bailiff Geo. Humphrey, going their several Geo. Humphrey, going their several ways.

A call at the Elwell, near Alder and 7th streets showed Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rowell in fine quarters, having a splendidly equipped rooming house, with thirty-four rooms, commanding high prices, because of the location and excellent furnishings.

The New Imperial is a fine hotel, but it will have to jump some to get ahead of the Portland.

A ride on Portland Heights, white with snow, in a refrigerator car as cold as the north pole, like all the rest of Portland's cars, was interesting.

A visit to the Telegram discovered Mr. Frank Toeves, formerly of the Herald, holding down the important position of telegraph editor in splendid shape, a very competent newspaper man.

Cottage Grove Hotel People.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Westbrook, of the Chamberlain and Cottage Grove Hotel, returned this morning from a Brownsville visit, and went to Portland. Mr. Westbrook has went to Portland. Mr. Westbrook has recently been the end of several jokes, one about nine foot sheets, the other about starting a henery from some egg plants. He reports Cottage Grove on the go, with five new blocks the past year, $100,000 bonds sold for a water plant and some paving in sight. Mr. and Mrs. westbrook are making good as hotel people.

The Case of Chester Crouch.

Chester Crouch, in his own interest, was up before Judge Duncan, sitting as a juvenile court, and arrangements made for a relative, Jas. Smith, of Polk county, to take charge of the boy, at $6 a month, the father to furnish clothes and school books, at all times subject to the order of the juvenile court, until of age. Chester left today for his new home.

TUESDAY.

COMING THIS WAY.

The Democrat several days ago mentioned a crew of surveyors being at Jefferson, coming this way. They are n Jefferson, coming this way. They are now about half way between Albany and Jefferson, and are said to be working for the Oregon Electric. Some declare this is the same as J. J. Hill. Morris Bros of Portland, are now selling 6 per cent bonds for the Oregon Electric, to be used for construction work, hence there is little doubt that the extension from Salem to Albany will be made this year.

A well founded report is that the Oregon Electric has bought the brewery property, on Ninth and Lyon streets, and that it will be used for the Albany terminal. Just how this will be done while the Portland, Eugene and Eastern, the Welch road, controls the street franchise on both Lyon and Ninth streets, is an interesting question.

Business Change.

Fred Gould and John Murphy, of Eugene, today completed a deal for the livery stables of Spires Bros., at Second and Ellsworth streets, and will take charge at once They are experienced livery stable men.

Married.

Mr. Otto Rahn and Miss Rose Crabtree, two well-known people of near Scio, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon, at the residence of and by Rev. Esson.

No Night Clerk Yet.

It is several days since the Demo crat suggested that arrangements be made for a night clerk at the post office. made for a night clerk at the post office. The present large business of the office justifies it, and Uncle Sam should appreciate the need of one. With a night clerk the mail arriving on the evening trains at 8:10 and 10:57 and the morning trains at 4:18 could be run over and patrons of the office receive their mail at an early hour. The present force beginning work at 6 a. m., has to hustle to get things cleaned up before 9 o'clock. Business men want their mail early.
