THURSDAY A TANGENT STORY.

Tangent has had a sensational case for some time, the story being that a child was born to a fifteen year old girl, and thrown into the old well, it even being stated that the hole in the scum on the top of the water could be seen where it went through, as well as other indications of the affair.

Wallace Block Changes.

Dr. J. P. Wallace is making arrangements to make extensive improvements in the second story of his block occupied by the Hamilton Store.

A San Jose Grocer.

Mr. John M. Conekin, a former Albany grocery clerk, who is visiting here, with his wife, is now president of the Conekin Grocery Co. of San Jose.

Miss Grace Cleland returned this noon from Portland.

M. H. Titus, of Kingstons, was an Albany visitor today.

J. M. England went to Lebanon this afternoon.

Mrs. W. F. Moist, of Lebanon, returned home this afternoon.

Five tourists were on the street this morning helping to clean things up for their breakfast.

Master John Cleland and Surveyor Geddes went to Harrisburg yesterday on a business trip.

Mrs. P. W. Spink and niece, Miss Mary Armstrong came up from Portland this noon on an Albany visit.

Miss Dunn, a prominent Eugene girl, returned home this afternoon after a visit with Miss Zoe Haight.

Frank Sadley, of the Home office, has been elected manager of the Independent Telephone Co's. business at Lebanon.

Miss Ferne James, one of the leading contestants for the auto at Woodworth's, went to Oregon City on a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Langdon will leave shortly for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

Editor Charlie Nickel has been denied a pardon and will have to serve four years in the pen.

Several Albany people have received a neat calendar from C. E. Brownell, of Aberdeen, Wash., a former Albany grocer.

Born, on Thursday, Dec. 30, to County Clerk and Mrs. W. Miller, a girl, making a boy and girl in the family. All doing well.

The Siletz homes-leaders held a red hot meeting in Dallas yesterday. They mean business, and do not propose to be robbed by the pesky squatter.

Salem is afraid of losing the river, and will ask for protection. That is what Albany has been trying for years to get. Will Salem beat us out.

J. C. Long died at Cottage Grove this week. He was a pioneer there, once owning nearly all the land on which Cottage Grove now stands.

The diamond brooch lost by Mrs. L. L. Swan yesterday was found last evening, at sweeping time, in the Hamilton Store, where it had been dropped.

W. C. Breckenridge and daughter, Miss Sue, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brandshagen returned last evening from a visit at the home of Stanley Stewart at Lebanon.

The recent frosts got into to dope of some of the new bricks a little and they will have to be repointed, the high school and the new Pacific Telephone offices being the ones affected.

The Albany Knights Templars report a fine time on their Eugene pilgrimage, splendid treatment by the Eugene Knights, and a pleasant time around town seeing the many improvements of the city, one that does things.

Mrs. Eliza Griffith, this week at Corvallis proved up on her homestead, upon which she has lived, with her family, for twenty years. The property was never surveyed until recently, and she had to stay with it or lose it.

The new electric light plant at Toledo will go to work on New Years day, and thereafter Toledo will be electric lighted. It will start with about one thousand incandescent lights burning, and a capacity for two thousand.

Jefferson people are in a hurry to have the wagon bridge at that city repaired, and so are the bridge builders. Commissioner Butler has been doing every thing possible to make it possible, but a delay in getting the lumber is the only reason for it.

A KNOCKER

Hits Albany in the Corvallis Daily

Albany's worst liar has been heard from. Here he is in the Corvallis paper:

Albany, Dec 28.—To the Corvallis Gazette-Times: Our city presses and our city officials, and our Commercial club live in the most improved part of our town or west Albany, while east Albany or two thirds of the population of our fair city, has no sewage system or connections, but has instead typhoid fever. At present 8 cases within a school shot throw of the nice Madison school building, in two families, a problem.

The last line on the postal bringing the above message reads as follows: "Can any one see through it?" but this line is crossed out. This is too bad, for it rightly belongs there. We cannot see through it.

City Health Officer Davis informs the Democrat that at the present time there is only one case reported to him, that of a Mr. Parker, in the third ward, who is convalescent. Two other cases, one in a shack of a building, without sewer connection, near the Madison building, and another from a well, have recovered. There is said to be another case not reported, where the house is within reach of sewerage, but not connected, an old place. Several weeks ago there were two cases brought here from Brooks.

Instead of two-thirds about a third of the city is not yet reached by the sewer, and perhaps less than a fourth not by water. The whole city should be covered, and it is up to the council to see that it is. But a resident of the city is in small business going to a neighboring town to knock the city. A. B. C. is a good signature for his stupidity and viciousness.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Prof. Will Steel, of the Gresham high school, and mother returned to Jefferson, where Mr. Steel is spending the holiday season with his folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirk, of Hoquiam, returned from a visit with Brownsville relatives of Mr. Kirk.

Miss Ollie Landis also returned from a visit with Brownsville friends, having resided there for some time.

H. L. Bush of the Summit store, a former half owner of the Revere Hotel business, left for Corvallis, and thence home, after an Albany visit.

While selling Oregonians a stranger handed Ben Cleland a $20 gold piece, and told him to take the change out of that 50 cent piece. "You had better look again," said Ben, and he did, with his eyes big.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Riley and grandchild left on a trip to Detroit, up the C. & E.

Mrs. H. Y. Kirkpatrick and daughter come down from Lebanon for a day in Albany.

L. T. Berry came down from his Plainview farm. He reported having adjusted the loss for his two horses killed, the value placed upon them being $350. A Springfield train ended their lives.

Want a Good Road.

Corvallis Gazette-Times: The taxpayers along the Albany, Mountain View and Independence road want a better road there and today will vote on the question of taxing for five or ten mills. C. W. LeVee, who has been looking after the legal complications in this matter, wants ten mills. He says the road needs the expenditure.

The 500 Club Met.

The 500 Club was entertained last night in a charming manner by Miss Ella Bailey at her pleasant home in the first ward, with a large number present. The appointments were neat, a delicious lunch was served, a good time had socially and 500 prevailed. Both Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Cusick won out for the first prizes among the ladies and gentlemen.

Consul General Now.

Mr. Fred Fisher has received from Washington his commission as consul general at Wurkden, with sixty days additional leave of absence. The new position calls for a salary of $5,500 a year. Mr. Fisher will not have to leave for Wurkden, famous for one of the warmest battles of the Russo-Jap war until February. His advancement from a private to consul general is an interesting one.

The Weather.

The highest temperature yesterday was 43 and the lowest during the night 40. During the day, though it was down as low as 32 degrees above, but the wind changed to the south in the evening and Oregon was soon itself. A rainfall of .12 inch during the night brought about a welcome change.

The river is down to 3.7 feet, almost summer stage.

Prediction: Rain tonight and Friday, warmer tonight, with brisk southerly winds.

The Eastern Star.

Following are the new officer: Mrs. Eliza Larnie, patron, P. D. Gilbert, worthy patron, Mrs. J. S. Van Winkle, worthy matron.

Mrs. Lora Bowen, secretary, Miss Ella Mead, treasurer, Mrs. J. E. Leatherman, conductress, Mrs. O. D. Austin, assistant conductress.

LEBANON.

The Coming Annual Banquet.

From the E. A.: R. M. Donaca, under a special act, has been granted a pension of $24 a month.

Big preparations have been made for the business men's annual banquet on Friday night. The first session will be held at Odd Fellows Hall, followed by the banquet at the Hotel Lebanon.

Among the visitors who have accepted the invitation to be present and participate in the festivities are E. B. Piper of the Oregonian, C. S. Jackson of the Portland Journal, E. Hofer of the Albany Democrat, W. A. Showman of the Albany Herald, Tom Richardson, Wallace R. Struble, John H. Hartog and several others.

No pains or expense is being spared to make this one of the biggest events ever held in Lebanon.

Yaquina to Newport.

It is positively stated that the Southern Pacific Co. will extend the Corvallis and Eastern from Yaquina to Newport so that it will be ready for travel this summer, an improvement that should have been made years ago. It will mean a good deal to Newport as a resort. The last trip from Yaquina to Newport has long worked against it. Just now Newport people are busy selecting a terminus for it.

If the Southern Pacific will also extend the east end of the road a hundred miles, more or less, it will also meet a long felt want and do a great thing for Oregon.

Great Flying Contest.

The Democrat has received from Los Angeles a six page article telling all about flying machine from the beginning of time, and particularly about the flying machine contest that is to take place there in a few weeks, with $80,000 in prizes up. Los Angeles is making the most of the event to advertise the city. These are advertising days and the cities are hustling from the word go. This aviator contest will no doubt prove one of the greatest drawing cards in the history of the coast.

High Priced Apples.

Mr. Harry Hawkins has received a letter from his father at Paris, Ill., telling of the sale of three pecks of the Oregon apples taken east by him, for $51, a remarkable price. The money was sent for an orphan's home, and the local papers gave the affair a big write-up, a genuine Oregon booster.

The Crabtree Case.

Jas. Crocket was being given a preliminary examination this afternoon before Justice Swan on the charge of assault with intent to kill Chas. Lindermann. Lindermann accused Crocket of stealing his dog, resulting in a quarrel, and Lindermann charges Crocket's attempt to get a gun carried by John Chastain, threatening to shoot him. There were several witnesses and considerable feeling over the affair.
