THIS MORNING

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Umphrey went to Jefferson to attend the funeral of J. S. Myers, a relative of Mrs. Umphrey. Mr. J. Myers was at Oakland, Calif., when struck by a train on the mole, dying from the effects of injuries. His remains were brought to his home of many years, at Jefferson for burial.

Peter Ruetner left for Thomas where he is moving the store building from one side of the track to the other.

Speaking of moving, the freight depot has already gone its length, making another change that will be striking.

G. A. Flood, the merchant left on a Portland trip. Lawyers Garland and Newport came down from Lebanon on legal business. Father Servais left on another trip.

Ladies Aid Society.

The Ladies Aid Society, one of Albany's oldest institutions, yesterday afternoon held its annual meeting, with some of the old faithfuls on hand. Once the Society owned an orphan's home of its own. Now it confines its work to needy cases as they are heard of, all ready for doing good. The old officers were reelected. Mrs. L. E. Blain president, Mrs. T. G. Hopkins vice president, Mrs. A. H. Martin secretary, Mrs. J. K. Weatherford treasurer, Mrs. E. E. Payne, second, Mrs. Judge Duncan, third, Mrs. W. M. Parker.

Two Worthy Promotions.

Major Ellis, of this city, has been promoted to the position of Sergeant General on the Governor's staff, with the title of Colonel, and Capt. C. B. Winn to Major, in the commissary department, two honors for Albany men who have done efficient service in military circles.

FOR RENT.—One sleeping room, at 225 West 3rd St.

COM. CLUB

In Its Weekly Session.

Present, Manager Struble, Secretary Van Winkle, Treasurer Bain and Directors Cameron, Veal, Rawlings, Miller, Struble, French, Ellis, Stewart, Dawson Lee, Bowersox and Nutting.

In the absence of the president and vice president Manager Struble presided.

Ten slides were ordered for Prof. E. R. Lake in his eastern illustrated lectures.

A letter was read from Manager Buckley in reference to the C. & E. schedule east. It is likely to be changed to 8 for leaving and 4 p. m. for returning from Detroit.

A request from the State fair management for aid in securing an appropriation from the county for the fair was placed on file.

A vote of thanks was extended the New West for a free writup.

A special meeting was ordered to select census enumerators upon receipt of the list from Supervisor Hendricks.

A motion for a 4th of July celebration this year was declared early, but this is Albany's year.

Nothing doing yet in the matter of department houses.

The officers were appointed a reception committee for Sam Hill, the good roads man.

Those 10,000 free folders from the S. P. were reported received and accepted.

The county court and city council were ordered invited to the good roads meeting of Sam Hill tonight, and as well everybody in Albany interested.

Arrangements were reported for the reception to new comers on the 18th.

At Mrs Wagner's.

The P. F. G. C. Club met yesterday afternoon and evening with Mrs. Chas. Wagner, having a delightful time, with a feast of rare merit. Those present were: Mimes, Wagner, Haight, Olin, Richards, Carl, Dumond, Conn, Parker, Parker, Roberts, Wheeler, Carter, Moe, Chambers, Skipton, Harold, and Smith, and Miss Laura Chambers, with Mrs. William Hand and Mrs. Glen Junkin as guests of honor.

CHANGE IN THE F. N.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank was held at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when the following directors were elected: S. E. Young, A. C. Schmitt, P. A. Goodwin, O. A. Archibald, J. P. Wallace, M. Sanders, W. A. Barrett.

The directors immediately afterwards elected the following officers: S. E. Young president, A. C. Schmitt vice president, O. A. Archibald cashier, J. C. Irvine first assistant, R. E. McKechnie second assistant, Chas. H. Stewart third assistant.

Mr. Young, the new president has been vice president since the bank was organized, and those following have made good in an eminent manner.

Mr. Langdon, president since the death of Judge Flinn, previously cashier for many years, retires on account of ill-health and the need of rest for some time, one of Oregon's most reliable bankers. He and Mrs. Langdon will soon leave for Los Angeles to spend the winter.

The bank is one of the valley's solid institutions and is in good hands.

The officers of the bank reported this to have been the most prosperous year in every way the First National Bank has ever had, and the First Savings Bank has done beyond all expectations, its assets being a quarter of million dollars. The management and policy of the two banks will be the same in the future as it has been in the past.

The only change in the active force is that of Mr. Young succeeding Mr. Langdon, who retains his interests in the two banks.

Owing to his long and efficient service in the bank, the directors voted Mr. Langdon a salary of half the amount he was getting while active in the bank and permitted him to travel and rest the coming year so that he might regain his health. The employees of the two banks presented him with a beautiful solid gold watch, a slight token of their esteem for him as an officer and fellow workman in the bank.

Sam Hill Tonight.

Hear Sam Hill, president of the Good Roads Association of Washington and vice president of the National Association, at the Commercial Club rooms tonight. He is a big man personally, besides being one physically, 6 feet 4 or 5 and weighing less than Taft. Harvey Lindley, the head of the Home Telephone Co., will also be present, and is invited to report a $20,000 Home building for Albany, like the one to be built in Corvallis.
