DEATH OF PROF. SANDERS

Prof. A. M. Sanders, superintendent of the Albany schools, died at 11:30 o'clock, last night, of pneumonia.

The world loses a splendid citizen and an able educator, a man who played his part well in the great drama of life, leaving a clean record.

He was born in March, 1833 in Yamhill county. He was educated at McMinn ville college, where he graduated, and taught in Dallas, Roseburg, Ashland and other places before coming to Albany three years ago, one of the states best teachers, capable as a superintendent.
His life has been spent in Oregon, except two years at Seattle, and mostly in the cause of education, though for a while in the hardware business at accinnville.

He was a member of the Baptist church for many years, prominent in good works, and of the United Artizans, and was a great help in musical circles.

He was married three times, and leaves a wife and two sons, one, Gail, of this city, by his first wife, and one at Dallas a boy of seven by his second wife.

The funeral services will be held at the Baptist church at 10:30 a. m. tomorrow, when the remains will be taken on the noon train for Roseburg, where he was superintendent of the public schools, for five years, and where Mrs. Sander's people reside, for burial.
The body will be at the church at 10 o'clock to be viewed by friends.

Advertisements to appear shortly in various periodicals, from the Eugene Commercial Club, make the novel offer, that the new-comers, to Lane county, who desire to get married and settle in Lane county, will have all their wedding expenses paid by the Club. The expense of the license and the minister's fee will be taken care of, as an encouragement to home-raising of the would-be-mated pairs. The scheme emanates from D. C. Freeman, the new manager, who may develop a matrimonial bureau in connection with his duties as publicity pusher.

LINNHAVEN ORCHARD CO.

The Linnhaven Orchard Company will place the first addition of ten acre fruit tracts on the market about Feb. 5.

The company now owns and controls about three thousand acres of the finest apple land in Oregon. This land is situated on the second bench, 15 miles due east of Albany, and was selected by Prof. E. R. Lake, Chair of Botany, O. A. C. It is a dark red loam and the higher portions contains a noticeable content of sand. The altitude is right, the drainage is perfect and the soil is the proper depth.

We will sell these tracts in 5 or 10 acres, set the same to some standard variety of apples, keep and care for the trees five year if desired. They may be paid for cash or on the instalment plan.

Get this ad out and send to your Eastern friends and ask them to write us for full information.

PARDONS WANTED.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. The formal applications for Jones and Mays pardons, convicted of land fraud, is not reached by the department of justice.
Letters are on file from Governor Benson and other officials endorsing the prospective application for pardon of Jones, but Mays has not been heard from. This, if granted, will establish a basis for Hermann to appeal should he be convicted.

One Body Ashore.

MARSHFIELD, Jan. 15.—The first body of the Czarina disaster was washed ashore this morning, not yet identified.
It was that of a man weighing 140 pounds, with light mustache. The beach is still being patrolled a distance of five miles.

DOINGS OF THE WORLD.

The first man to grow vetch in Oregon was Wallace Nash, once a citizen of Albany.

Manager J. P. O'Brien, of the Southern Pacific is on an inspection trip over the Oregon line.

According to The Bulletin Harrisburg has a modern David. John Norwood recently actually caught a wild goose clean handed, and killed an owl by throwing a hammer at it.

Oregon defeated Idaho last night in the big debate of the season, the judges deciding unanimously in favor of Oregon. Two of the judges were President Crooks and Prof. A. C. Schmitt.

A novel incident occurred in Denver.
During the Christmas exercises at the First United Presbyterian church, an automobile was run into the church and up the main aisle to the tree, a two cylinder Maxwell runabout and presented to the pastor, Rev. J. D. Rankin, well known by several Albany people.

The Owl Says.

A good word from one's home town is always appreciated. This is from the Oakland Owl:

H. J. Mahoney has sold his place of business to Kelly Jones and Guy Mann, and Tuesday took his departure for Albany, where Nelson Wilbur and himself have purchased the Mission Confectionery Parlors. All the gentlemen above mentioned are well and favorably known in Oakland. May success crown the efforts of them all.

Dreamland's Extra Program.

Lezah made a hit last night at Dreamland before a packed house. He has a Melba voice and it is a fine one.
The biograph, A Corner in Wheat is something great, and the vitagraph pictures Cupid and the motor boats presented some of the prettiest scenery ever seen here.

Simple Remedy for LaGrippe.
LaGrippe coughs are dangerous, as they frequently develop into pneumonia. Foley's Honey and Tar not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs so that no serious results need be feared. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar contains no harmful drugs and is in a yellow package. Woodworth Drug Co.
