It is a dangerous thing to take a cough medicine containing opiates that merely stifle your cough instead of curing it. Foley's Honey and Tar loosens and cures the cough and expels the poisonous germs, thus preventing pneumonia and consumption. Refuse substitutes and take only the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. Woodworth Drug Co.

About next Christmas all the toys will be flying machines if the present craze keeps a going.

Ching Ying Tang is the name of the new Chinese minister, almost enough to make one think of a sleigh ride.

The government last year paid for eighty-three cork screws for the Senate, which has led to numerous funny remarks about the other nine senators.

It is much better to exalt a clean character than a fast one. Boys starting out in life should take example after those who have made their lives stand for something.

The new mayor of San Francisco has put a saloon keeper in as police commissioner. It is easy to see what dependence can be placed upon him in the interest of better government.

When any one tells you that the cold is felt here as much as in the east just mildly inform him that he has the chills. There is no comparison at all. No suffering here from cold weather.

Here it is January, and the Democrat was in hopes it would be able to announce the complete raising of the $50,000 endowment for Albany College, needed to put some electricity into it, by this time. What Albany College needs is money. It has the system, but it must have equipment, and that requires money.

The Toledo.

MARRIED.

Gibbons--Donahue

Joseph Tallie Gibbons, of Shelburn, and Miss Nora Mabel Donahue, of Scio, were united in marriage at nuptial high mass, at the Catholic church, today, Father Servais officiating in a very interesting service. A large number of friends from Scio, Shelburn and Albany were present. The church choir furnished music for the happy occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbons are both popular young people, well known, and have many friends whose best wishes they will have. The groom is a brother of Mrs. J. W. Miller, of this city.
