HEARTY

Recently Manager Struble sent some feelers out to several valley towns in reference to an interchange of visits by nembers of commercial bodies, and responses have been received from the following:

A. F. Hofer, secretary of the Salem of the Salem of trade, urging a visit at the theat regular meeting on the second Wednesday of February.

It. Wayne Stanard, secretary of the Brownsville commercial Club urging a visit to that city, which desires to be in close commercial touch with Albany.

W. F. Groves, of the Corvaillis commercial club, who suggests a special train some evening, when the Corvailis members will be gliad to receive their Albany brethren

W. D. Morgan, of the Harrisburg Club, who is anxious to have a crowd of Albany men go there and help drive a way whatever blues may be hovering around.

A. G. Prill, of Scio, anxious for a visit, some evening, if possible, when a crowd can be gotten out in better shape, but in the afternoon if necessary.

It is probable that all the invitations will be accorded later. The committee and son arrived on the 4:18 train on a visit with Wm. Kirck and family, whose farm formeric adjoined theirs, near Logan, Iowa. They will go from here to Los Angeles for a visit with relatives and former neighbors. Since leaving Iowa the mercury has been down to 24 degrees below zero and the snow has been too deep for even rabbit hunting; but Mr. Gilson declares Iowa the greatest state in the union.

Irvin B. Rhodes, field secretary of the Y. M. C. A., left for Corvallis to attend the state convention, bright with prospects, for isn't Fred Smith, the best of them all to be there, a prince among workers among young men and boys.

William Ehlert, one of Lebanon's best natured Dutchmen, with his 220 pounds of solidity, went up the C. & E. on a business trip. Jonnson Porter, of Corvallis, went to Portland to join Mrs. Porter for a visit.

Some S. P. Depots

Superintendent Loring of the Corvallis depot came over this noon. He vallis depot came over this noon. He reported the foundation nearly ready. The concrete blocks are being made in Corvallis.

The largest depot in the state outside of Fortland has been ordered for Medford. It is to be of stone and brick and will cost about $50,000. It is to be of the same size of the Walla Walla depot, the size that Albany's depot should have been made, and would have been except for discrimination, and considerably larger than the depots at Albany and Eugene.

Two Candidates.

Lebanon Criterion:

Williard L. Marks, who has been the accommodating and efficient deputy county cierk of Linn county for the last few years, under Clerk J. W. Miller, will be a candidate for clerk at the next election on the republican ticket. Mr. Marks has made one of the best and most efficient deputies this county has ever had in the clerk's office, and in as much as he was born and reased near Lebanon, he will get strong support from the part of the county, both in the primaries and in the election. It is very likely that he will have no opposition in the primaries, as it is generally conceded that he is justly entitled to this promotion for his good work in the office as deputy.

It is reported that Sol, Lindley, a well known farmer of this city, will be a candidate for the office of Sheriff of Linn county at the next republican primaries.
