THURSDAY.

FREE PRESS BOOSTED.

The meeting called at the Christian church last night to consider the better enforcement of law developed into a meeting for boosting the Free Press of Salem, as the organ of the temperance people in Oregon. A cause that depends upon an organ for success might as well quit.

The prohibition of the liquor traffic in Oregon is going to succeed eventually through the people, and it will get and is getting a splendid support from many of the papers of the state, reaching all classes of people, including the Democrat.

Rev. Selleck, of the M. E. church, Salem, made a good talk. He paid his respects to the Journal, Salem's whiskey sheet, and made it plain that it is the business of the ministry to mix in this business and everything else that stands for righteousness. Lawlessness is anarchy, and good citizens everywhere should unite against it.

Then Rev. Errett, of Salem, called for subscriptions for the Free Press. H. Bryant and W. P. Elmore headed it with $50 each and there were others, a total of about $200. Rev. Stillman, of the Congregational church, Salem, is here making a special canvas for the paper. It is a good one, outspoken, with a man at its head who is giving an aggressive service, and deserves the support of people who believe in law enforcement.

A Ford Garage.

W. W. Crawford returned from Portland yesterday with a Ford Model T Demonstrator.

Mr. Crawford and J. M. Ralston have associated themselves together in the sale of the Ford and have placed an order for eight more cars to be delivered the last of March. These cars will sell for $1050 fully equipped. Their garage will be at First and Washington streets.

Is Thankful.

EMFOR DEMOCRAT:
I wish through the columns of your most valuable paper to return my sincere thanks to all the kind friends that voted for me in the automobile contest.
MARION ANDERSON.

Some snow flakes cast a shadow today.

Miss Sadie Cohen is home from a several weeks visit in Portland.

C. G. Rowlings has the contract for 15,000 colonist folders, a big one for Albany.

S. C. Shuckland, of Portland, has been in the city today adjusting the loss by the recent Holt fire.

Johnson will be universally backed, because the men who have returned to the ring have universally been whipped.

A pleasant social gathering was that of the Jolly Whist Club at A. W. Bowersox's this week, with four tables filled.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Homer Davenport for failure to pay his wife's alimony of $400 a month.

Mrs. T. B. Griswold and son came up this noon on a visit with Albany friends, their first trip here since leaving Albany two years ago.

Rev. Robert McClain, of San St Elmo seminary, California, a good friend of Albany college, has been appointed secretary of the educational board.

Jos. W. Cochran, of the Presbyterian board of education, of New York, this morning spoke at the college, giving a fine talk along educational lines.

The reported sale of the Oregon Market, at Ferry and Second street, did not materialize and Zimm & Calloway will continue the business, well established and growing.

The Pomona got off last evening and went on her way down stream. A cable dicit, assisted by the boat's engine. People thought it was a funny kind of an accident.

The Kappa Pi boys of the Baltimore block, last night had an initiation, with young Shinn as the victim. He was equal to the occasion and showed the sand that counts.

Sheriff Frank Elkins, a former Albany boy, of Crook county, yesterday arrested fourteen men at Madras, for gambling, a hold up and violation of the local option law.

An eastern doctor says meat eating will end entirely in ten years; but it won't. He claims it is deleterious to health, but a temperate use of healthy meat is probably a good thing.

A crowd of the friends of Vera Woodworth last evening at the home of Misses Laura and Gerty Taylor tendered her a miscellaneous shower in honor of an approaching event. It was a fine affair and the shower was a good one.

The Oregonian reports the disappearance of Douglas McFeron, a former Linn county man, not seen since last Saturday. Mrs. McFeron accuses her brother-in-law A. J. McFeron of having induced her husband to leave.

A Portland girl was being followed by a contemptible scrub of a masher, when she turned and asked: "Have you a sister, and if you have how would you like to have her treated the way you are treating me?" He sneaked.

An Albany man says that the man who sneaks into another man's home and breaks it up is as low, if not a lower man than the one who leads young girls astray. Both ought to be quartered and then cremated.

Deputy County Clerk Bob Johnson, of Corvallis, a former newspaper man, got angered at an article in the Philomath Review, and when Editor Minshall was in Corvallis yesterday proceeded to give him a black eye. Johnson was generally congratulated; but what about the editor.

NOW FOR JEFFERSON.

At 6:40 o'clock Saturday evening, another big crowd of Albany's business men will take a jaunt to a neighboring town, this time to Jefferson, which is getting on the map. They will return at 10:57.

Here is the list:

O. Woodworth, Stewart & Sons, H. N. Cockrill, Joe H. Ralston, Union Furniture Co., Dr. W. H. Davis, J. C. Devine, J. J. Collins, J. K. Weatherford, C. G. Rawlings, F. M. French, C. C. Cameron, R. A. Nelson, Dr. Shinn, Eilers Piano House, Judge J. N. Duncan, Dr. M. H. Ellis, E. Kibbe.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

The roof of the new freight depot is now covered, and in a few days the entire structure will be in use; then the company will have a larger job putting the surroundings in proper shape for business.

Revs. Selleck and Errett, two Salem ministers who believe in mixing up in the fight against the devil wherever he is, whether in politics or the church, returned to Salem.

Judge Hewitt returned from a trip out Lebanon way on legal business.

Father Lane left on a short Portland trip, a frequent visitor to the metropolis for conference with the Bishop, J. H. Ralston, the electrician, left on a Portland trip.

A Profitable Meeting.

At the W. C. T. U. on Tuesday afternoon a most interesting meeting was held. The subject discussed was Social Purity. Mrs. Norton led the devotional exercises and read a selection that bristled with pointed questions, setting forth the facts and figures of the white slave traffic. Mrs. Garrett read a paper which gave a very serious view of the temptations to which small children are subjected.

Mrs. Dr. Gibson gave a graphic account of her work in the slums and among the unfortunates, in San Francisco. As the wife of a popular pastor who was deeply interested in all classes, she had ample means of knowledge and thoroughly understanding conditions, which were then, and are still deplorable.

Mrs. Brown gave the text of the "Maun Bill," recently passed by the lower house of congress, to restrict the traffic in girls. She said that during the discussion of that measure it was stated that a large proportion of the girls brought from the Orient for immoral purposes came through Seattle and Portland, being consigned to parties in these cities.

It was suggested that it was time to clean up our own door yards and begin missionary work at home. Also that personal letters be written our senators and congressmen urging them to do what they can to change these conditions, particularly in our own cities.

These discussions are awakening a great interest in this most important matter.

The Scio Fair.

The Scio fair is to be the best yet. Active preparations are being made to make it a success this year, with many improvements in prospect. It will be held four days, Tuesday to Friday, Aug. 30 to Sept. 2 inclusive. A good program of races is being arranged and there will be music and a literary program.

The new officers are: Dr. A. G. Prill president, Ed Myers treasurer, R. Shelton secretary. The superintendents will be: John Leffler horses and cattle, Chas. Wesley poultry, E. C. Roberts products, C. H. Wain goats and swine, Mrs. A. G. Prill and Mrs. L. Gill art and fancy department, Lee Bilyeu race course, I. A. Munkers chief marshal.

MARRIED.

Chance-Davis

On Wednesday evening, Feb. 2, at the home of Mr. Theodore Hoflich, in Albany, by Rev. Albyn Esson, Mr. Lyle V. Chance, of Halsey, and Miss Edna L. Davis, daughter of Mr. D. S. Davis of near this city. The wedding march was played by Miss Laverne Hoflich. A fine wedding dinner followed, and the worthy couple have received many warm congratulations. They are spending the week in Albany, after which they will go to their home in Halsey.

W. L. Wheatley, of Portland, and Miss Ida B. Bilyeu, daughter of Mr. Mart Bilyeu, of this city, were married at the court house yesterday afternoon, by Judge Duncan, and have the best wishes of their many friends.

A. L. Falk and Miss Eola D. Bilyeu, were united in marriage at Halsey Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 2, Rev. Erskine officiating.

The Weather.

The range of temperature was 42-19, the latter early this morning, a decidedly cold snap for the valley.

The river is down some, now 7 feet flat.

Prediction: fair tonight and Friday.

FRIDAY.

Mr. Chas. Davis went to Portland this afternoon on a several days trip.

Ray Piper, of Waterloo, this week was committed to the reform school at Salem.

Paul D. Longpre, the celebrated painter of roses, will attend the Portland rose fair.

Albany school teachers are kicking at the low price of hugs for school teachers quoted in the Democrat yesterday.

President Crooks has returned from a trip to Eastern Oregon where he spoke several times, at Baker City and other places.

F. P. Coulter, of South Bend, Indiana, Watch Co., one of the largest in the U. S. was calling upon Albany watch sellers today.

The post office receipts for January this year were $1330, last year $1141.47 showing an increase of about 20 per cent, a healthy one.

The Gazette-Times says Mr. Roberts, brother of former inspector E. C. Roberts, has been appointed fruit inspector of Benton county.

Paulhan, the aviator, had a fall yesterday, at Denver, where he struck a fence, and landed in a mass of wreckage, escaping himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Webber, of Niagara Fall have been married 26 years and have 25 children, probably the record in the U. S.

Lake Woolford, of Portland, has been in the city on a visit with his former Silverton friends Dr. W. H. and Chas. Davis. He went to Lebanon this afternoon.

Herman Layman, a young German, was taken to Corvallis from across the river charged with a general disruption of the neighborhood and upon his promise to skip was discharged.

Next week the Albany high school basketball team will make a trip south of here, playing Junction, Eugene, Cottage Grove and Roseburg, with some hard games on hand.

G. E. May, with the Pacific Telephone Co. at Portland, has been transferred to Eugene, in the traffic department, and passed through the city last evening for his new field of work.

Roseburg and Salem are going to have Chautauquas. Albany is right between and may well fall into line and secure some high grade attractions on the circuit, with a date between Roseburg and Salem.

The annual session of the Christian Endeavor Societies of Oregon will be held in Portland Feb. 15-17. Dr. F. E. Clark, the founder and world's president, will be present, and the program will be a notable one.

It is reported that the Welch road between Salem and Eugene is to be built this year. Also that the big McKenzie power plant is to be used for power at Albany, Corvallis, Dallas, Mouth and Independence, besides Eugene.

Miss Edna Acheson, of Portland, arrived this noon on a visit of some time at the home of her grandfather, M. Acheson's. She has just graduated from the high school, having received the necessary credits for a midwinter graduation.

Mrs. J. C. Mayer, of Lebanon, returned this noon from a visit of a week or two in Portland, and will go home this evening, accompanied by her son, Franklin, who has been at the home of his grandfather, Mr. Dumond for several days.

The S. P. officials left this afternoon for the west side, which will be inspected on their way back to Portland. While on these trips they learn of the wants of their agencies and the people along the different lines, and are kept pretty busy.

Roseburg Review: Frank O'Brien is here from Albany closing up details of his purchase of the Hotel McClallen, as published in last Saturday's Review.

His little son is still too ill to be moved, but he expects to bring his family here at an early date.

D. J. Dabruille, of Cottage Grove, passed through the city for Portland to meet Mrs. Dabruille, on her way home from Pittsburg, where she had been to settle up the estate of her father, John Cyrus C. Brock, who is reported to have left her $23,000, which will put these former Albany people on Easy Street.

Charley Soffling, of the P. O., has some Plymouth Rocks, some fine blooded fellows; but they were gone yesterday afternoon when he went home, and he spent two or three hours all over the neighborhood hunting for them, finally finding them on the roof, where they belonged. Some of his friends had hid them for a joke.

THE CENSUS EXAMINATION.

Tomorrow at the central school building, from 1 to 4 p. m. will occur the examination of applicants for the position of census enumerator for a place in Linn county. There are now 83 applicants and most of them have been notified to be present. The examination will be under the direction of the local civil service board composed of members of the local post office force, the questions being simply ones sent from Washington.

Some of the applicants are simply for the Albany census and others generally. After the examination Commissioner Hendricks will submit a list for the four Albany positions and the commercial board as a body will make the selection, by invitation of Mr. Hendricks, who wishes in all of the valley cities to have enumerators selected who are satisfactory to commercial interests. It is not a matter of favoritism, but of securing people who will do the most thorough work.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

F. W. Ledbetter of the Albany Nurseries, went to Jefferson on a visit with the fruit raisers. Mr. Ledbetter in the past few months has sold a hundred thousand trees. The demand is large speaking for the splendid development of the fruit business. Apple trees particularly are in demand.

Another fruit man Geo. W. Weeks, R. D. 8, Salem, also took the train, after a visit at the Rumbaugh orchard, where he secured some Vanderpool Red scions. Mr. Weeks is a berry plant specialist, but expects to have an eight acre apple orchard.

Ed. Dorgan returned to his home at Crabtree. Mr. Dorgan's place is not far from the two big orchards being developed. He has a fine place, but it is safe to wager would prefer living in Albany.

Commercial travellers leaving were Jack Baker, Henry Serr, J. C. Donovan and Dan McKeercher.

S. N. Steele returned to Portland. He reports a good deal of interest in outside property among Portland investors.

Miss Belle Chance, of the Portland schools, returned to Portland. Her father is gradually improving from a serious illness.

J. W. Cochran, of the Presbyterian educational board left for points north.

R. E. Mason returned from a commercial trip up the road.

The loss on the Holt stock of meats and goods and machinery and fixtures has been adjusted by special adjuster Shankland, of Portland, satisfactorily to all, at $910, which will be divided between companies in the agencies of H. F. Merrill, J. V. Pipe and Erb Schultz.

There was no insurance on the building, but the estimated cost of repairing the damage has been placed at $140.

The damages was divided as follows: On stock $450, on machinery and fixtures $465. The insurance companies paid as follows: Connecticut, H. F. Merrill agent, $540.80; Beaver State, Erb Schultz, agent, $168.95; Germania and Phoenix, J. V. Pipe, agent, $143.40 and $85.95.

A Whack Back.

Harvey Scott testifies to the good character of Binger Herrmann. His paper is also on the side of booze and infidelity.—Albany Democrat.

It is unfortunate that every man can't be so truly good, so temperate, so intelligently pious, so deeply versed in the principles and practice of religion, so free from personal prejudices and hatreds, so broad and general in historical and religious knowledge, so full of human sympathies, so free from human imperfections, so faultless in the sight of God and man, and so fully entitled to pronounce judgment against "infidels" and anti-prohibitionists as the self-righteous brother (what's his name, or has he any?) of the Albany Democrat.—Oregonian.—But the Democrat only speaks as a newspaper, regardless of the many faults of the editor.

Miss Walsh is Good.

A dramatic treat was presented Albany people last night in the presentation of Test, with Blanche Walsh in the star part, ably supported. Miss Walsh displayed great force and a high conception of dramatic art. The stage settings were remarkably good and the dresses were rich. There is no low comedy in Test, but a vein of humor occasionally, mixed in a strong ground of good morals.

Garbage Wagon Needed.

Albany needs a city garbage wagon, whose business it is to look after the garbage and trash of the city. Most people would be willing to pay a regular monthly rate to have their garbage, ashes, and trash taken away. There is an opening for a business for some one.

BOB JOHNSON A JACK JOHNSON

Corvallis, Oregon, February 3, 1910.—Bob Johnson, founder of the Corvallis Times, distinguished himself yesterday noon by putting a head on Minshall, the Philomath Review man. About a week ago following the Review's losing the county printing of Benton, Minshall proceeded to abuse Clark Moses and his deputy, Bob Johnson, in a villainous manner.

This Minshall, who had formerly been a missionary to India, put in an appearance at the court house yesterday. Bob immediately proceeded to abuse him in a summary manner in his most choice
