It Was a Good One.

The high school dinner, for the basketball boys, Saturday evening was one of the best ever given in the W.C.T.U. hall and was a success, nearly four hundred enjoying it. ARMORY AND CITY HALL.

The state military board, consisting of Gen. W. E. Finzer, Col. Jas. Jackson, Col. C. E. McDonnell, Col. Samuel White and Capt. L. A. Bowman, of Portland, and Col. Geo. Yoran of Eugene, were in the city yesterday, conferring with the Mayor and City Council and local military men in reference to the proposed armory. The board selected one of two locations, the former site of the Evangelical church, on Lyon street, now owned by A. M. Hammer, consisting of two lots, and the two lots at the corner of Third and Ferry streets, leaving the choice of the two to the city. The members of the council have practically agreed upon the latter for the city hall, on account of its nearness to the business section, the court house and new post office, desirable for such a building, and the Lyon street corner, fortunately situated in the pavement district, for the armory.

Arrangements are being made for the additional expense of the lots for the armory. The state board agreeing to increase their amount to $12,000, providing for a two story armory that will be a credit to the National Guard, and a fine thing for the Company, the second story having various rooms for the convenience and social enjoyment of the members, a feature of the more complete armories.

The S. They should be made by the city to do their share of improving the section, if not voluntarily, then legally, declaring the place a nuisance, and now is the time. The Co. will build a sidewalk in extension of the Lyon street walk and make many other striking improvements.

That Tillman Incident.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:
The Tillman incident brings to mind how a thing may be done and yet miscontrived.

A few days prior to the Senator's address, the republicans had a political gathering and had erected on the east side of the court-house a speaker's platform, which platform was trimmed around with a strip of red, white and blue bunting, but the heavy rain which occurred a night or two before the day the Senator spoke, caused the colors of the bunting to run together so that it looked very unsightly, and the strip in front of the speaker had become loosened and was hanging down in a manner to interfere with the view of Senator Tillman, and he asked that it be removed. Hon. C. B. Montague, marshal, requested his assistant marshals to remove the hanging strip in front, and at the same time ordered the beautiful flag of the United States to be raised over the speaker's stand. Some one present started a story that the flag had been torn down but there was only a rain stained dirty strip of bunting removed and in its place was unfurled the flag of our Union, and that too according to those who'd it, not with the intention of offending any one, for neither Mr. Montague, who was a loyal Union soldier, nor his assistants, who were sons of Union soldiers, thought of such a thing as showing disrespect to the dear old flag.
