THE MODERN TRAVELLERS.

The modern Travellers, Albany's oldest ladies' club, the mother of them all, starting back in the days of Mrs. Adams, back of many good works, held their annual reception last night at the home of Mrs. S. E. Young, a charter member, with fifty or sixty present. It was a Washington affair, the members appearing in colonial costumes, white powdered hair, etc., looking very pretty and attractive.

It was a genial, good natured gathering.

A contest in writing acrostic poems from the letters George Washington, decided by referendum to the people, in favor of the following written by Miss Smith of the college:

George Washington, a fine big man was a shout of joy goes up and every heart is stirred.

Except for Martha Washington no other love had he. Of all the noble gentlemen of those colonial days Remember it was our Washington who should have all the praise.

George Washington, the hero of this poem, Enabled all Americans to have a happy home.

Wherever his grand good name is heard A shout of joy goes up and every heart is stirred.

Such was his name for truth and right, He's ever been the watchword In every city, town and state. No better name could we all take, George Washington the name I use To fill up all I can.

Oh, this is all I know to write Now of this noble man.

Mrs. Walters, of Salem, was heard in a vocal solo, with an encore, showing a splendidly cultivated voice of excellent tone.

A cherry tree, luscious with the red, ripe fruit, was brought out, and, blind-folded, with a pair of shears, some went forward and tried to cut the cherries from the tree, each having three clips.

Delicious refreshments of oysters on crackers, with stuffed cherries, cake, flag ice cream and coffee were served.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

In Its Weekly Session.

Present — Vice-president McCune, Secretary VanWinkle, Manager Scruble, and Directors Dawson, Veil, Miller, Stewart, Fortmiller and Nutting. Letters from our representatives in congress in reference to the N. P. lands, read. Action will be taken as soon as consistent with a thorough examination.

Six slides were ordered for Eugene Bartlett, a Chicago lecturer.

The officers reported against interfering in the matter of the Washington reports about Albany's finances.

Upon request of the Spokane Commercial Club a move for the improvement of the condition of the R. F. D. carriers and service was endorsed, and the P. of H. of this county also asked to become interested.

The exchange of the club's typewriter for a new visible Remington was ordered, the old one being taken at $35, $309.25 was reported collected.

It was reported that a union of the creameries was impossible.

Mr. Hawkins, manager of the Lincoln Company made a talk promoting this enterprise of so much importance to the future of Linn county, and the matter of a meeting with business men was left to the officers.

Major C. B. Winn presented the matter of the armory, and a necessity of a guaranty to the state in order that work on the armory may proceed at once and a committee was appointed to secure the same signed by the council, county court and business men, both the county court and city council have endorsed the armory.

Let George Do It, and He Did.
