MISFITS.

Even fish are on the mountains.

The streets are being kept clean.

In the days of prosperity look ahead.

The monied men are getting Alaska by the neck.

Say, if that storm does flop its tail over the mountains.

Albany's library is proving a credit to the city. Let it grow.

The Dalles has thirty saloons. It would make a dandy college town wouldn't it.

The tail of the comet is what people are afraid of; and it is the tail of these eastern storms that bother Oregonians.

The people are watching this assembly proposition decidedly close. The name of assembly candidates will be Dennis.

This from an Ex. is timely: "Some men seem to think that if they get into a 'scrape' and the editor mentions it in his paper he does it out of malice toward them. In nearly every case of this kind nothing could be further from the truth than such a belief. It is the editor's business to publish local happenings, good or bad, and if a man furnishes material for a bad item he has no one to blame should it appear."

Linn's Court.

The following, part of the circuit court record of the recent term at Linn, is of local interest:

J. N. Chambers agt. F. M. Carter, action, continued.

J. K. Weatherford agt. Victor Land Co., decree.

Fred Dawson and wife agt. J. K. Weatherford and wife, continued.

J. K. Weatherford agt. Robert McKay, agt. Minnie McCourt, agt. Julia A. Kyniston, three ejectment suits, continued.

George Riley agt. R. B. Montague, motion to vacate judgment, granted.

A SAFEGUARD TO CHILDREN.

"Our two children of six and eight years have been since infancy subject to colds and croup. About three years ago I started to use Foley's Honey and Tar, and it has never failed to prevent and cure these troubles. It is the only medicine I can get the children to take without a row." The above from W. C. Ornstein, Green Bay, Wis., duplicates the experience of thousands of users of Foley's Honey and Tar. Woodworth Drug Co.
