HIT WITH A BEER BOTTLE.

Messrs. Burkhart and Crawford are continuing their flying machine experiments. All of Saturday afternoon was spent in trials, five in all, the object being to get used to the manipulation of the machine gradually. The longest flight made was exactly 642 feet, the machine being in the air about sixteen seconds. It showed that it is well balanced and will eventually fly all right. But it takes patience and a long experience to run one. An automobile is nothing compared to it. The new propeller gave a strong power. Yesterday another trial was made, the machine going up the highest yet, but the seat broke and Mr. Burkhart came down at once. The small damage was fixed, but it rained and further trials were discontinued until better weather.

This afternoon the boys made three or four attempts, but the machine failed to get off, the flights were all short ones, but the lighting was easy.

Some Changes

The Albany Lumber Co. has bought the Central Feed Stables, just north of the Russ House, and will fix it up and make it the central office of the Company, using the shed for shingles, lath and seasoned lumber. The Company is doing a splendid business and wants to be in the midst of it.

Joe H. Ralston is moving into the room recently vacated by O. E. Perry, using it for his large electric supply business. The room vacated by him has been rented by Tomlinson & Holman and will be added to their grocery and crockery business.

Died in Seattle.

Mrs. Suviah Howe Peirce died on Saturday morning, at the home of her nephew, Rev. Wallace Howe Lee, 1819 Harvard ave., Seattle, in the 89th year of her age. She leaves one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth P. Lee and Mrs. Lee's children, and many others to mourn the loss of a worthy woman. Mrs. Peirce was a resident of this city for awhile. She was a life long Episcopalian, a New Englander, and had the distinction of being a personal friend of the poet, Henry W. Longfellow.

An Albany Boost

Mr. Barnhill in the 20th Century Magazine says: "Albany is one of the best cities in the valley, clean and progressive. It is located at the head of navigation of the Willamette River, where the C. & E. R. R. from Yaquina Bay crosses the S. P. railroad. Twenty-eight passenger trains depart daily from Albany in five different directions. The city has a population of nearly 7000, has paved streets, street cars, and no saloons."

Will Run a Farm.

J. J. Rorer, of Rorer Bros., has bought a farm one and a half miles from Seio, and will go there to reside, at least part of the time, coming to Albany to help in the box factory when rushed. His two brothers will continue in charge of affairs at the factory.

A Finger Off.

J. R. Flynn, the popular commercial traveller, has a crippled left hand, that got that way yesterday something like this: He was splitting kindling wood when he made a poor strike and hit his left hand cutting the middle finger off and badly gashing the next one.

W. F. Keady has been appointed postmaster at Waldport.

$40,000 has just been paid for 200 acres of barren land near Medford, to be developed for fruit.

Gov. Benson is now a grandfather, a son having been born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Benson at Gardiner on April 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brandyshagen, of Portland, stopped off in Albany yesterday while on their way home from California.

Mr. Will Reiner went to Halsey today to look after his farm and Mrs. Reiner returned to Portland.

Eugene Register: M. B. Montgomery and family left for Albany yesterday for a short stay and may conclude to locate there.

Mrs. Frank Parent and child, of Portland, returned home yesterday after a visit at the home of Mrs. Parent's parents, w. r. an. rs. Rufus Thompson.

One of the Albany boosters this year will be a two story pressed block at Broadalbin and Third on the property owned by Mr. A. C. Schmitt, a fine building about one hundred feet square.

Misses Laura and Gerty Taylor, Elsie Bain, Winnie Austin, Zona Haight and Margaret Monteith returned this morning from Eugene, where they reported a delightful house party at Miss Lullie Dunn's, one of Eugene's most charming young ladies.

Prof. Marquam returned this noon from a Portland visit. A crowd of his students were at the depot to meet him with numerous sacks of rice, but it seems to have been premature, though it wasn't the fault of the school children that they believed it was a genuine affair.

Eugene Register: Mrs. Watson's new theatre will be open inside of a month. This will be the largest moving picture theatre in the city and has a large stage for vaudeville. Mrs. Watson will probably put on vaudeville acts at the place regularly.

Joshua Williams, a former resident of this place, who has been attending Albany College the past winter, returned to Princeton the first of the week with his bride. Journal. This certainly ought to be a recommendation for Albany College.

HIT WITH A BEER BOTTLE.

A serious affair occurred yesterday afternoon in the rear of the store of Albert Sternberg. According to the current street report it happened like this: Claire Dawson and Harry Owens, clerks in the store, had been in the country putting up signs. A quarrel or two is reported with two or three small fights. Finally the young men shook hands and "made up." Mr. Dawson went into the toilet room and washed himself, and coming back looked out from behind the curtain of the room, when Owens, who was waiting with a beer bottle in hand, hit him a terrific blow in the head, over the left eye, breaking the bottle to pieces, and knocking Dawson insensible. He was taken to St. Mary's Hospital, where Dr. Davis attended him, taking out three pieces of bone and using seven stitches to sew up the wound.

Chief of Police Munkers was sent for. He arrested Owens, and placed him under $250 cash bail, to appear today, furnished by Mr. Sternberg.

The case was called before Recorder Redfield this forenoon, the defendant appearing with his attorney L. M. Carl. He waived examination and was held for the grand jury under the charge of assault with a dangerous weapon, under $500 bonds.

This afternoon Mr. Dawson was resting easy and will undoubtedly come out of it all right, with a wound probably for life.

The case is an unfortunate one, but it is in the courts properly, and is a matter of record.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Rev. H. C. Marshall, of Shedd, Rev. Gilchrist and sister, of Oakville, and Mrs. L. E. Hamilton, Mrs. C. H. Stewart and Mrs. J. C. Irvine and son, Harold, left for Portland to attend the presbytery of the United Presbyterian church.

Mr. Os West, of the R. R. Com. was here to take to Salem the remains of J. C. Hutton, who died at Waterloo at the age of nearly 85. Mr. Hutton was the grandfather of Mrs. West. He was Justice of the peace at Waterloo for many years.

Messrs. George Taylor, L. C. Marshall, D. P. Mason and F. J. Miller went to Portland to attend a special Masonic meeting, for chapter work.

W. E. Perker, of Plainview went up to Shelburn on a business trip.

Miss Hoenck, of the Hamilton Store, left on a short Portland trip.

Miss Lilly, the returned missionary from Malasia, left for Portland. She will soon sail from San Francisco on her return to her work. She did splendid work at the Albany convention, greatly appreciated by those attending.

Crowds Coming.

Not small, but big delegations, will be here at the open river convention the 14th. Eugene will send fifty, Salem probably as many, Corvallis perhaps more, Lebanon will have a crowd, and in fact forty valley cities at least will be represented, many hundreds in all. Fix up for them, and have your autos ready to meet them at the depot. It will be a red letter event.

Judge McFadden is said to be down for a talk on free loeks. It is his fid. Hon. I. H. Bingham will argue for an open river from Clackamas south, a Siem man will speak on freight rates. Lawyer Sawyer, of Portland will hit from the shoulder on railroad matters, giving some history, and there will be others.

Before the Census

Corvallis Gazette-Times: Mayor Watters estimates the population of Corvallis at 5,000. B. W. Johns, in president of the Commercial club, says "20,000 in 1920," but has no line-up on the exact number at this time. A. J. Johnson guesses 5623, while the Gazette Times has it figured at 4832. In reckoning inhabitants the G. T. is ultra conservative, for the records show that the public is usually a pretty bad guesser. C. L. Springer, business manager of this paper, who last year got out a city directory, says there are not less than 5,500.

The Linnhaven Orchard

The Linnhaven Orchard Co. today began active work on their big orchard of about four thousand acres, which will be planted to fruit trees, almost entirely apples. Land placed on the market under five year contracts. It is splendidly situated, and deserves promotion in the interest of what promises to be the greatest industry of this valley.

Geo. Prichard Operated Upon.

George Prichard, managing editor of the Walla Walla Union, was stricken suddenly with appendicitis yesterday morning, and had to be operated upon at once. This was done at St. Mary's Hospital in that city yesterday, the operation being successful, and he is going well, according to a dispatch just received here by relatives.

MARRIED

Humphrey-Wyman.
In Portland, on Saturday noon, April 9, 1910 at the home of the bride's parents, former well known Albany people, Mr. H. Humphrey and Miss Lillian Wyman, were united in marriage, a Presbyterian minister performing the ceremony.
He is an employee of a large lumber company, and the bride a stenographer and typewriter, is an accomplished young lady of splendid character. They have many warm friends of the bride in Albany whose best wishes they will have.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 57-46.
The river is 4.5 feet.
Rainfall .30 inch. It sounded more than that.
Prediction: fair tonight and Tuesday.

John Norman, an Albany painter, was up before Recorder Redfield this forenoon on a charge of assault and battery, and was fined $5 or two days in the city jail. He had no money. According to the testimony in the trial Mr. Norman, who is a boarder at the Franklin House, entered the hall on his way up to his room. Monroe Ward and Chas. W. Gamble, were in conversation when according to the testimony of the two men Norman "butted in." Ward told him to keep his hands out Norman drew his jack knife, and after an interchange of words made a stab at Ward, hitting his wrist, making a gash. Ward grabbed the top of a cracker box and used that as a weapon, knocking the knife from Norman's hand, and then getting on top of him, when they were separated. Norman denied being the aggressor and claimed he used the knife only in self defense. He denied having drunk anything yesterday morning, but is said to be considerable of a drinker. Last March he was up for a fight with T. O. Hanson, and fined $5 or two days, going to jail.

TUESDAY.

THE P. O.

Albany is No. 142 and Must Take Its Turn.

President Davis, of the commercial club yesterday received a letter from Senator Bourne telling of the situation in reference to the post office. Each place has to take its turn in the order of the purchase of the site. Albany is No. 142. The government is now at work on No. 72 and disposes of approximately ten a month, so that Albany will be reached in about seven months, say next November, then preliminaries will follow, the preparing of plans, etc., and it will be just about seven months more by the time the contract is actually let for the building, which will mean that actual work will begin on the structure about June of next year.

Mr. Bourne says there is no use trying to hurry matters. Things have to take their turn, and there is no variance. La Grande is No. 122, the next Oregon city in turn.

Lawrence Hardman, of Portland, has been in the city.

Miss Sadie Cohen has returned from a couple week's visit in Portland.

Mrs. S. H. Goin, of Jefferson, arrived this noon on a visit with her parents.

F. L. Chambers will build a $12,000 residence this year, the finest in the city.

B. F. Jones, of Roseburg, writes that he will be here at the open river conference, a pioneer in pushing the enterprise.

The Woodmen of the World are preparing for a big session Friday night with initiation and a banquet. The Degree team of Salem will be present.

R. J. Hendricks, census supervisor this afternoon met with the Linn county enumerators, giving them instructions. The conference was at the commercial club rooms.

Another correspondent, this one signing himself by Hockey, is disarranged over the anti-gasoline advertisement running in the Democrat, and paid to take the customary rate. He wants to see it in its place. Here is one of his jokes: "The Democrat says some women are all hats, but some men are all gas. Give us less foolishness."

Correcting the statement that appeared in the Democrat yesterday Mr. Sternberg has to say that the young man who got into trouble Sunday afternoon had not been out in the country putting up signs for him on Sunday, but had merely been out driving for pleasure on their own account, that if there was any liquor used it was done contrary to the rules of the house.

A Collision.

The young ladies all jumped and were not injured. The young man got a few bruises. A TIE.

The game of base ball last evening between the Methodists and College was about as ragged as anything could be, slow and full of errors, not ended until after 7 o'clock, and then a tie 16 to 16. The score will tell the awful story.
