JEFF MYERS A CANDIDATE

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:

I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor. I entered the field upon the earnest solicitation of many party friends, and, if nominated, will make a strenuous campaign not only for my own success but for the success of the entire Ddmocratic ticket in the state and counties. I believe Democracy is in the ascendant in the state and nation and that our entire ticket has better than a fighting chance to win in the fall elections.

My declaration: "If I am nominated and elected I will, during my tern of office, be true to my oath and give the State an honest, economical, business administration. I shall accept the office as a public trust and at all times recognize my responsibility as a servant of the people. I will advocate a system of just taxation. I am heartily in favor of the initiative and Referendum; the Direct primary law; Statement No. 1, or the right of the people to elect United States Senators; the Recall and Corrupt Practice Act, and shall vigorously oppose all movements tending to the annulment of any of these laws or constitutional provisions."

ALBANY'S CHAUTAUQUA.

Albuny's Chautauqua Assemby was formally opened this forenoon at 10:30 o'clock, under spiendil circumstances and auspiciously.

The grounds have been particularly ell cleaned up and arranged, under the direction of Chairman Van Winkle of the grounds committee. Forty or fifty tents already cover the place, and there will be many more. There are several special tents, those of the W. T. U., Woodworth's emergency tent, the Epworth Leogue, the management, both telephone companies, etc., and two or three refreehment stands.

After music by the Elk's band and a fine vionin solo by Prof. Wilson, President Ellis formally declared the Chautauqua opened, giving a short and comprehensive review of the object of the Association and its purposes. Miss Emma Sox was heard in a plano solo, when C. C. Chapman, the new manager of the Portland Commercial Club, gave an enthusiastic address in the dedication of the Chantsuqua Assembly.

Mr. Chapman said. "Albany's public pirit is continually attracting favorable attention in Portland and throughout the Pacific Northwest. What Albany's business men did in making a $6,000 guarantee to cover the Chautauqua expenses has been heralded throughout the state by press and platform. It takes nerve, self-sacrifice and public spirit to accomplish this, and Albany rose as usual to the occasion. Albany enterprise in holding the pioneer apple show of Oregon, in engaging a coatly booth at the great land show in Chicago to advertise Oregon apples, in guaranteeing its share of the fund to construct the first armory under the new state law and in giving Albany a name and home as an educational and culture center—all this is the finest advertising a community can do and it is placing Albany for interface and public spirit of the Oregon farm and the lofter the standards of Oregon citizen ship, the greater Portland must grow. Portland is dependent upon Oregon for its future, and its business men, as exemplified by the policies of the Portland Commercial Club, realize this. Portland cherefore appreciates which Albany is the social and commercial hub."

This afternoon the Fisher Shipp Concert Co. made their first appearance, Zasplendid musical organization that will be with us during the entire ten days, owing to the large number attending the funeral or Miss Taylor the attendance was reduced.

Tonight there will be a splendid popular program by the Fisher-Shipp Co. and Elias and Oranna Truitt Day, in character sketches, plays and readings, and the tent should be packed.

Tomorrow will be woman's day, There will be a lecture by Ars. Franklin 9 to 10, the Albany Summer Bible School under Dr. House of Spokane 18 to 11, a forum hour 11 to 12 under President Crooks, with an address by State School Superintendent Ackerman, a concert at 2 p. m. address by Sarah J. Evans, president of the state federation of women's clubs, at 3 p. m. with Albany women generally present. Another concert and entertainment by the Fisher-Shipp Co. and the Days in the evening.

Platform Manager.

President H. M. Crooks, of Albany College, was elected last evening by the Albany Chautauqua Association to the position of platform manager for the forthcoming Assembly. This puts practically the entire platform control in the hands of President Crooks, he having already been selected for the management of the Forum Hour exercises. The position of platform manager at a great Chautauqua is no sinacure, since it is essential for the person filling that position to have in mind every phase of the program, and to expediate the same. President Crooks expediate the same. President Crooks is well fitted for this responsible position and will take a special interest in doing good work at the Albany Chautauqua from the fact that he has been a warm advocate of the Chautauqua In this city for some time past.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Robert Fletcher, of Coryallis, and Miss Ida Forgey, of this city, were united in marriage this noon, Rev. Esson officiating. The wedding march was played by Miss Meda Mitcham, Miss Lulu Forgey was maid of henor and Victor Howard best man. The oride was dressed in white, carrying a bouquet of pinks and white sweet peas, caught by Miss Lulu Forgey.

An elaborate lunch was served and the happy couple left this afternoon amidst showers of rice and best wishes, for Cathlamet, Wash, to refide.

A deed of property in Eastern Oregon valued at $2000 was presented them by the father of the groom, T. C. Fletcher.

Miss Taylor's Funeral.

The funeral of Miss Inez Taylor was attended this afternoon by a large number, a fine tribute to the memory of the deceased, for whom there has been a universal expression or love, and the sympathy of all has gone out to the family in their deep affliction. The fibral gifts were many and beautiful. Rev. Geselbracht delivered the sermon. The pall bearers were Edwin Fortmiller, Aifred Parsons, Harry Merrill, Chas. i.e. Nelson Wiber and Henry Vollands.
