OS. WEST FOR GOVERNOR.

Oswald West yesterday filed his declaration to become a candidate for governor on the democratic ticket. The following will be placed opposite his name on the official ballot: No interests to serve but the public interests. I favor the initiative and referendum, direct primary, corrupt practice act and the recall. He says: "The people must rule the corporations or the corporation will rule the state. I believe that if God intended that the corporations and not the people should rule he would have created the corporations first."

The E. A.— V. H. Kent has located in Albany and has accepted the position of manager of the Albany Butter and Produce Co. He was in Lebanon on business a couple of days this week. H. E. Turpin and wife of Bend have been visiting relatives in this county for several days. They came over in their Buick auto, making the run from Bend here in a day. Mr. Turpin says a machine has never climbed Sand mountain side, but by wrapping his back tire with a half inch rope he believes he can make it. Mr. Turpin is in the merchandise business at Bend and reports a fine business. Vernita Arehart, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Arehart, is more fortunate than most other little girls in one respect—she has three living great-grandmothers. They are Mrs. M. E. Nicholls and Mrs. J. Winner of Lebanon and Mrs. Geo. Arehart of Junction. The three great-grandmothers, each of whom is past 70 years of age, had their pictures taken together in this city Wednesday.

No Quarter From the Col.

Editor E. Hofer announces that no quarter will be given to machine rule and assembly methods of dictating a state ticket to the people that stands for all the organized predatory interests of the state, and that if put in power, will repeal the direct primary law and restore the auction block system of selling the U. S. senator to the highest bidder. That's good, and this is all about the assembly that is trying to make people believe it has reunited the republican party and rejuvenated it. Grab your nose.

The above is a quotation from a letter written by H. M. Winkler, Evansville, Ind. "I contracted a severe case of kidney trouble. My back gave out and pained me. I seemed to have lost all strength and ambition; was bothered with dizzy spells, my head would swim and specks float before my eyes. I took Foley Kidney Pills regularly and am now perfectly well and feel like a new man. Foley Kidney Pills have cured me." Woodworth Drug Co.
