STOP KICKIN'.

A subscriber thinks this is worthy a place in the choice columns of the Democrat:

Stop yer kickin' 'bout the times,
Get a hustle on you;
Skirmish 'round and grab the dimes
If the dollars shun you.
Croakin' never bought a dress,
Growlin' isn't in it;
Fix yer peepers on success,
Then go in and win it.
Times is gettin' good agin—
Try to help them all you kin.

Don't sit 'round with hangin' lip,
That is sure to floor you;
Try to get a better grip
On the work before you.
Put some ginger in your words
When you greet a neighbor,
Throw your troubles to the birds,
Git right down and labor,
An' you'll notice every day
Things is comin' right your way.

Stoy yer kickin', get a hold
Of the wheel and turn it;
You kin never handle gold
Less yer try to earn it.
Brush the cobwebs from yer eyes,
Stop your durn repinin',
An' you'll notice that yer skies
Allus'll be shinin'.

If you haint the nerve to try,
Sneak away somewheres an' die.

THE PEOPLE.

A correspondent in an Eastern paper says:

The people do rule. The people get what they want. They trade at a store because the proprietor tells them he is selling to them cheaper than to other less favored customers. They go to the church that gives them the greatest social recognition, irrespective of the virtues of Christ and other members of the congregation. They vote for the judge that will favor them as against equally fair and honest litigants. They vote for a county commissioner whom they think can be "influenced" to work their end of the road. They vote for a school director that will appoint teachers favorable to their children. They vote for a police judge that allows them to disregard the law. They vote for representatives that other employers tell them are most useful to the corporations that they work for. And they get 'em all. It will be necessary for the people themselves to reform before they can reform the politicians. The principal foundation back of the present Christian civilization is the idea expressed by commonly accepted adage, "Honesty is the best policy." So long as our civic conscience is satisfied with this, we are not much better than barbaric and semi-barbaric people with whom our foreign missionaries find the argument of future punishment and reward so effective.

NOT THE TAIL END OF A BREWER'S PROCESSION.

The Nebraska City Press—"William J. Bryan has placed himself on record as being unalterably opposed to the democratic party being made the tail-end of a brewers' procession, a worthy stand on the part of any man, whether he be democrat or republican. Mr. Bryan knows far better than his most bitter enemies that the stand he has taken is one of the most unpopular moves a man in public life ever made. It will soon be time for Mr. Bryan to laugh, even as at this present moment he has a perfect right to smile. The democratic party, in order to be saved from the rocks of party disruption, must cut loose from the domination of the liquor interests. The big leaders know it, the press is talking it, and there are plenty of signs in the air that eventually Bryan will have been proven correct in his statements. The day has passed when any intelligent body of men can be herded like sheep and be marched to the polls and vote for a continuation of a policy which has done so much to put politics in bad repute. Mr. Bryan has not lost any of his cunning; we do not know that he has espoused the temperance cause through any designing purpose—we do know that he is right, and in this instance, as in many others, right will finally prevail."

WANTED.—A man and woman to work on a small place. Call upon B.S. Ware, at the Elkins Place, Albany, or phone Home 7204.
