THURSDAY
AFTER TWO YEARS

A reception was tendered last night at the home of Senator Miller, in honor of the two years pastorate of the pastor of the Presbyterian church, Rev. F. H. Gesebracht. It was in the shape of a lawn party. Pretty Japanese lanterns were the decoration. The evening was a delightful one for the event enjoyed by a large crowd of church members and others, glad of an opportunity to show their appreciation of the splendid work Rev. Gesebracht and his talented and popular wife have done for the church, whose growth has been marked and standing strengthened. A delicious punch was served on the lawn and social intercourse ruled, while sweet music was furnished by the Coon orchestra and Prof. E. L. Wilson, the popular violinist. Light refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served in the dining room in sections, and all declared the event a striking success as well as one of enjoyment.

A Corner Fight.

A fight will draw on any kind of a day. This morning a large crowd saw one near the corner of First and Broad-albin streets, between Nick, the Greek, bootblack, and his successor of the Combination Shop. Upon having a successor named Nick rented the narrow hallway a foot away and set up a stand, and there was trouble at once, then a fight from the shoulder, Marquis of Queensberry style. It lasted over a minute, some said five minutes, and ended with the new boot black winning points against Nick. There was blood and several contusions. It created several minutes talk around the corner. Upon complaint of Chief of Police Munkers the two men, Nick Topolos and W. H. Hill, were taken before Recorder Redfield, and fined $10 each, which was paid.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 86-45.
The river is 1 foot.
Prediction: fair tonight and Friday.

F. M. French returned this noon from the Bay.

Merrill Smith went to Newport this afternoon.

R. A. Leiter, a prominent Portland attorney, is in court.

Miss Sadie Cohen has returned from a several weeks Portland trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skipton are taking their summer's outing at Cascade.

Mr. Dale Matthews, of Portland, is visiting at the home of J. N. Brandeberry.

Mrs. Walter Looney and brother, formerly of this city, returned this noon from the Bay.

Mr. Calif. of Calif. Bros., Portland, furniture dealer, with his wife, was in the city while on an auto trip through the valley.

Ex-County Treasurer R. B. Miller, of Scio, was in the city on a visit with his daughter, Mrs. Omer Mitchell.

G. W. Klum, of Sodaville, now 86 years of age, a pioneer of 1847, was in the city yesterday and while here registered.

Last chance to see the present program at the Empire. The Hall Room boys is a fine comedy worth the price of admission.

Herbert Nutter, a W. F. man, who has been in Albany considerably, and Miss Edna Bacon were married in Corvallis on the 23rd.

Mrs. Dedman, of Portland, formerly Miss Fay Cooley, visited at the Wright home yesterday enroute to Brownsville to visit her parental home.

Misses Pearl Smith and Lettie Pratt, of the Grace Presbyterian S. S., this afternoon were giving their classes a picnic party in the Burkhardt grove.

W. K. Newell, one of the best apple men in Oregon, arrived this noon on his way to Linnhaven, to superintend the planting several hundred acres to apples.

Frank and Bessie Johnson, two Eugene blind piggers, were given light sentences with the understanding that both were to leave the city at once, which they have done.

The trial of Maggie Sullivan vs. G. R. Kinn was begun with J. K. Wetherford and W. C. Campbell for the plaintiff and P. R. Kelley and L. L. Swan for the defendant.

Over $6,000 has been raised in Portland for Marjorie Mahr, the chorus girl who lost both legs in an accident. This is practical philanthropy and speaks for the big heart of the people of Portland.

Mrs. C. V. Winn and daughter, Miss Zulu, of Santa Monica, will arrive tonight on a several weeks' visit at the home of their son and brother, Maj. C. B. Winn, near first trip here for five years.

Rev. Davis and family, R. B. Williamson and Mr. and Mrs. L. Vireck desire to extend their sincere thanks for sympathy and many acts of kindness, upon the death of Mrs. Ned Williamson.

Gazette-Times:—Mrs. John Smith entertained at cards yesterday evening in honor of Miss Flora Mason, a guest from Albany. There were seven tables and a Craftman prize, a beautiful piece of modeling. This went to Mrs. R. H. Huson.

A DISPLAY FOR OLD LINN.

A splendid opportunity is offered Linn county to advertise the natural resources through the mediumship of the Great Northern Industrial and Immigration Department. Mr. E. W. Graham, Western manager of this department, as requested the Albany Commercial Club to secure a large variety and samples of fruits, grains, grasses, wool, timber, vegetables, in fact all varieties of products capable of being exhibited, to be displayed in the demonstration trains to be sent to all parts of the East; also for the maintenance of permanent exhibits in the general display department of the Company at the general eastern center. The Albany Commercial Club has taken financial hold of the matter and is preparing as rapidly as possible Linn county exhibits for this purpose.

C. H. Stewart, has been named as chairman of a committee to oversee the securing of these exhibits. All farmers should take an interest in this matter and send immediately to the Albany Commercial Club rooms such samples as are now obtainable. This work must be done at once if Linn county is to get advantage of the first demonstration train which is billed to leave Portland about the latter part of September.

In view of the fact that it is just a little late for securing samples of certain grains farmers are requested to select the finest heads and cut off the straw about one foot long.

In the line of fruits quick action should be taken at once for samples of Tragedy Prunes and Peace Plums.

If any further information is desired call up the Albany Commercial Club at once by telephone.

The Great Northern Railway has been known as a developer tributary to its lines and what it has done for Montana, the Dakotas and Washington. It will do for Oregon. The trains will be accompanied by a competent lecturer who will tell the people throughout the East of the resources of this county. Large quantities of Oregon literature will also be distributed.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

A crowd of California excursionists passed through on the early train, too early for sight seeing. At Grants Pass and other places yesterday they were shown special favors, and arrangements were made at Oregon City for a reception this morning on the suspension bridge.

A crowd of sixty-eight Jackies were on No. 14, being transferred from Vallejo to Bremerton. Most of them had independence on their caps, some Rowan. There were sixty-nine when the train reached Red Bluff. One of them fled, was captured by the Sheriff and will be taken to Bremerton on a later train. The boys got off and had a jolly time on the platform.

Judge Hamilton and family, consisting of his wife and two daughters, passed through on their way to Newport for an outing. The Judge will run for reelection and will be elected because the people appreciate a competent official.

Mrs. A. D. Leady, of Canyon City, left for home after an Albany visit. Her husband, a prominent Eastern Oregon lawyer, is a former Albany boy.

Drummers leaving were Wayne Sturt, Del Bogart and J. E. Learner.

Mrs. Henrietta Brown and Mrs. J. H. Mears went to Lebanon to attend a W. C. T. U. picnic.

Douglas Thrift left on a Portland trip.

Jack Arnold, a son of the late President Arnold, of the O. A. C., was on the platform. He is a traveling man and resides most anywhere.

Fred Duncan and daughter, from up the Columbia, formerly of Summit were on the platform.

J. W. McKnight of Portland, left for a trip to the McKnight farm.

Mrs. A. L. Ramsey went to Tallman on a visit.

Rev. McDougall and wife returned to Portland.

Miss Emma Sox left for Portland and thence on an auto trip to Mt. Hood.

Miss Bessie Merrill and brother Johnny left for Newport for the summer.

The Oregon Electric.

The Oregon Electric gang of surveyors today moved from the eastern suburbs to west of the city, across the Calapoia river, and will now run lines to Eugene.

All the rights of way and terminals have been secured in this city, without trouble, but are not yet public.

Dr. L. J. Faulkenberg, of the Smithsonian Institute, in Albany a few days ago, has stirred up trouble at Newport by reporting the manner in which Indians are permitted to get liquor in that drunken city.

Hon. A. C. Libby, republican, of Jefferson, has filed his nominating petition for representative, with this: "Oppose to the assembly plan of nominating candidates. Favor statement number one." He will be nominated.

A member of the Woodmen of the World in the supreme lodge at Portland caused a sensation by charging that W. C. Hawley, head manager, had played dirty politics, in allowing the head manager, P. E. Snodgrass, to be slaughtered.

William Heath was run over by a train of cars near Cottage Grove last evening and not a bone broken, but he was badly bumped. Fortunately the wheels didn't strike him and he will live. His buggy in which he was riding when hit, was smashed to pieces.

Geo. F. Skiff, of Salem, a card writer, went to Roseburg last Thursday, met Miss Collier for the first time in a confectionary store, where she was clerking, and they were married on Sunday. Quick work. The Statesman says he was engaged to a Salem young lady of prominence.

SHOULD SEE EASTERN LINN.

R. R. McKinney, of Holley, author of several Albany booster writeups in pamphlet and Sunset, and a magazine writer of note, wishes a visit from Albany business men, and in a letter to Manager Struble says:

"Albany will never become such a city as it dreams of becoming until the eastern end of this county is developed. The cities to the north and south of you have the same dreams and have nearly as great opportunities; each must develop its own territory first. You may not know but until the present there has been greater activity in Eugene looking toward a railroad up the Calapoia, than there has been in Albany. I was informed credibly last year that Eugene had subscribed $41,000 toward a railroad project on condition that Eugene be made the terminus instead of Brownsville. I believe if the promoters had done their part and obtained the right-of-way this railroad would now be in operation and Eugene would now be in a position to command the trade of this valley and would have stolen a spoke out of your 'Hub.' It is the most important matter that confronts Albany today—this railroad, its effect in the settlement of this valley. It affects every foot of property in your city and every mercantile and commercial interest.

"I invite the Commercial Club of Albany to name a day upon which it will visit me. McMinnville sent out 25 or 30 automobiles touring over the country and Albany should send out as many to explore the country of Linn for a day at least. You will be surprised at the shortness of the trip and the excellence of the roads, to say nothing of the extent and richness of the valley that awaits your acceptance of its trade present and past."

Manager Struble has replied to Mr. McKinney's letter with cordiality and the proposition to get up an automobile excursion to the eastern end of Linn county will be submitted at the next meeting of the executive board of the Albany Commercial Club.

Snodgrass, Head Banker, Knifed.

The Woodmen of the World have had a hard fight in Portland this week. Yesterday P. E. Snodgrass, of Eugene, was defeated for the position of head banker, he has held several years, by A. E. Sunderland of Fresno, and it is declared to have been dirty politics. This will divert elsewhere an immense fund that has been kept in the Eugene banks. I. I. Boak was reelected head consul and W. C. Hawley a member of the board of managers by a small margin, the only officer from Oregon.

Snodgrass has made a splendid official as head banker and his defeat will generally be regretted by members of the lodge in Oregon. It is said he turned in $5 of interest money to $1 of salary, showing his integrity and business ability.

In the Mail.

The Democrat has received a circular from the so-called Greater Home Rule Association, which sounds big, but inspection reveals the fact that it is against the home, being an anti-prohibition arrangement, and in the interest of the amendment to the constitution permitting each city to decide for itself instead of by the county unit which now prevails here and in a great many other places. The fact that Harvey W. Scott is one of the charter members shows the character of the Greater Oregon Home Rule Association.

A copy of a speech by Congressman Randall of Texas advocating a bill to prohibit members of congress acting as attorneys for public service corporations during their term of office, decidedly significant.

A chance to get the metal for one of Jack London's stories at $1.50 a page. London is a great writer, versatile and trenchant; but his stories are characterless and represent nothing in morals.

Albany and the Giants.

Next Sunday afternoon the Portland Giants, champion colored team of the Northwest, will play the Albany Colts. The Giants are sensational players, making their game an interesting one, and are full of fun. The Albany Colts, which defeated the Albany League team are the champions of Linn, and will have their strongest lineup for the game with the Giants, their only game in the county.

Tom Parker's Accident.

Mrs. N. H. Wheeler and Mrs. Georgia Hobbs returned last evening from Cottage Grove. Mrs. Wheeler reported a bad accident to her brother, Tom Parker. He was leading a mule, when the animal became obstreperous and ran, dragging him half a block. A collar bone was both broken and cracked and he will be laid up for some time.

Card of Sympathy.

Whereas, God has seen fit to take from our midst Brother Otis Maxwell; It is hereby resolved, that the Order of Owls extends its sympathy to the widow and children of our deceased Brother, in their hour of bereavement.
Order of Owls, Nest No. 1325.

Died.

Mr. Nimrod Ashbaugh died today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Odell, on East Second street, at the age of 79 years. He was born in Pennsylvania and resided in Albany three years. He leaves five children.

First Wheat.

The first load of wheat of the season was brought in today by E. Burkholder a fine looking cereal, for which Mr. Burkholder received 85 cents a bushel, at the Red Crown mill, where it was stored.

FRIDAY
KILLED AT LEBANON.

Lebanon, July 29.—A fatal accident occurred near this city last evening, William J. Gatts and Harrison Johnson were boring for a well, when a stick of dynamite was put down, exploding prematurely, killing Mr. Gatts almost instantly, and injuring Mr. Johnson, not so close to it, not as seriously as first reported, one statement being that he had lost a leg.

Mr. Gatts was an old resident of the county and leaves a family.

Getting a Display.

Four packages of fruits of different kinds, including some great specimens of peach plums were sent to Portland last evening for the Great Northern exhibit. Today Judge Stewart and others secured some splendid samples of cereals of different kinds, which have been forwarded. It is proposed to keep at it until there is gotten together a display that will be a credit to Linn county. People generally appreciate the fact that the Hill people do things, and are doing a great work for Oregon and are anxious to help in the boosting for Oregon.

The Signal System.

Medford Sun: Work on the new signal system which is being put in by the Southern Pacific is nearly completed between Glendale and Albany. J. H. Surelle, a Portland electrician, who has been employed in the work, is in this city and he reports that thirty-five men are being kept busy and by the first of October the entire line will have the signal system as far north as Albany.

A. O. Keppel is the man in charge of the work which has progressed as far as West Forks to date.

Superintendent A. L. Briggs was in Eugene yesterday.

Mrs. E. M. Perfect and children are at the Bay for an outing.

Born on Tuesday night, July 26, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder, a girl.

Thirteen big horses arrived from Denver yesterday, and are at the Sanders barn.

Newport is to have a big clambake on Aug. 14. Excursion trains will be run for it.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Halkyer are down from Springfield for a visit at Father Egan's.

Get a Saturday Evening Post of Riley Lobaugh. It is a good one this week and every week.

O. B. Corpan, a lineman, fell from the top of a pole at McMinnville yesterday and was instantly killed.

President Taft's vacation cruise ended yesterday afternoon. He had a fine time at the expense of Uncle Sam.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Sam Smith, of Prineville, have left for home after an Albany visit and some valley trips.

William Myer, of the P. O., has just completed a pretty haulow, in the third ward opposite H. Bryant's, a neat home place.

Carl Power, of Pendleton, last evening, passed through for Halsey on a visit with his uncle Mr. Alex Power. He will be in Albany in a few days.

Don Chilson and his 15 year old son were swimming a race across the Umpqua at Myrtle Creek yesterday, when the boy took a cramp and was drowned.

District Attorney J. H. McNary was seriously ill while arguing a case in court yesterday afternoon and was taken home last evening, with indications of pneumonia.

The Willamette Cement Co. has simply sold its cement block manufacturing business, just as stated by the Democrat. The Company will continue its concrete, cement walk and other business.

The city council of Corvallis this week passed an ordinance providing for the paving of Washington, Jefferson, Monroe and Third streets, 35 blocks in all, making over fifty this year, a big thing for the city.

The streets meeting at Seventh and Elsworth are being oiled, two barrels to a block. The street in front of the hospital has already been attended to, so satisfactory the neighbors want some of the same kind of street.

Miss Willetta Wright of this city and Miss Woodcock of Corvallis went to Eugene this afternoon to observe the progress on the new $7,000 sorority house for the kappa Alpha Phi Society, of which they are members.

Eight people, charged with violation of the local option law in Lane county, were tried at Eugene, and all have been convicted. That's the way they go for things in Lane county. They hustle for the evidence, and the jury does the rest.

Wm. G. Smith, ex lieutenant governor of Colorado, whom Judge Ben Lindsey in Everybody's declared to be a corporate corruptionist, is in Portland, and of course denies what Lindsey said; but Lindsey knew pretty well what he was talking about.

Bessie Johnson, fined at Eugene for blind-pigging, it is learned was a bare back rider in the Ringling circus two years ago when in the valley. She liked Eugene so much she resolved to return and did. Drink and gambling have been her downfall.

The big warehouse of J. A. Bushnell was burned at Junction yesterday, causing a loss of $19,000. The Eugene fire engine was taken down to fight it and save the adjoining property. Some oil tanks being near, great alarm prevailed for the safety of the city.

Eugene—Register:—Mrs. Charles Mackin and little son, Eugene, who were up from their home in Albany visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ewer, returned home yesterday. Her husband is one of the foremen for the Warren Construction company, and they have lived in Corvallis and Albany since leaving here, but she longs to get back to Eugene.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

Judge Galloway this forenoon decided the case of Charles Kroeschel agt. the City of Albany. This was the near-beer case up on a writ of review, involving the legality of the near-beer ordinance of this city. The case was recently argued by City Attorney P. R. Kelly for the city and J. K. Weatherford for Mr. Kroeschel. The decision was in favor of the city, Judge Galloway declaring that the city had authority to regulate such things in the interest of the health and good order of the city the same as the regulation of pure food, etc. It was a comprehensive opinion, carrying weight.

It is said the case will be appealed to the supreme court.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Sheriff D. S. Smith went to Plainview to conduct the sale of blooded cattle belonging to J. M. Flaherty, who skipped out several months ago. Flaherty is said to have torn a page out of an abstract, relieving him of a $2,000 mortgage. Judgment was secured when it was discovered, and this sale is to help satisfy it. And where is Flaherty?

Miss Cora Gatts, who has been working at the home of S. S. Bailey, left for Lebanon, called there by the death of her father, killed in an accident, while assisting in blasting rock on the Santiam near Lebanon yesterday afternoon. Another man had a leg hurt and a little boy was injured.

A warden of the asylum passed through with a couple of the inmates of the asylum who had escaped. They were captured at Eugene. Wade the murderer, had not been caught.

Mrs. Thompson, of North Yakima, sister of Miss Hazel Weller, left for home.

Dr. L. M. Jones, wife and son, of Lebanon, left for the Bay for an outing.

Judge Bill Queener, of Stayton, a former Linn county deputy clerk, left for home.

E. M. Perfect made a short trip to Brownsville.

J. R. Wyatt, deputy U. S. district attorney, returned to Portland.

Dave Froman left for Marion on a short business trip.

Mrs. Anna Young, of Roseville, Calif., arrived on a visit with her father M. V. Bilyeu and family.

President Crooks went to Portland on a two days visit.

Lawyer W. S. Risley left on a Salem trip.

L. Bilyeu arrived from Eugene.

Saved by the Flag at the Dreamland.

An unusually strong program will be offered at the Dreamland for Friday and Saturday, the feature film "Saved by the Flag" is one of the best ever seen here. "The House on the Hill" is a snappy story of adventure. "The Ranchmen's Feud" is another big western story overflowing with heart interest. "Wilson's Wife's Countenance" is a novel comedy, bubbling with humor. "United States Life Saving Drill" is one of the best educational pictures ever produced. This film shows Uncle Sam's Vigilant and heroic patrolmen in an interesting series of drills. Interesting marine views and Miss Edythe Neilson singing "All the Pretty Girls in Town." Don't fail to see this all feature bill.

Hen Man's Trip.

Cottage Grove Leaser: Ed. School, of Albany, breeder of O. I. C. swine, Jersey cattle, Hampshire sheep and fancy poultry spent Friday in Cottage Grove hustling business and exhibits for the state fair, poultry especially, he being superintendent of the poultry department of the fair this year. Mr. School is one of the most successful stock and fancy poultry breeders in the Willamette valley, his fine poultry having been exhibited in the Cottage Grove show several times.

Married.

On July 27, 1910, at the court house in Albany, by Judge J. N. Duncan, Mr. Peter Schrantz and F. M. Stolt, both formerly of Portland. Mr. Schrantz is a Gold Creek miner, having interests in the mines up the Santiam. They have gone to the Breitenbush Hot Springs for an outing, after which they will take a trip to California, and then settle down in the Willamette Valley.

Secured a Good Man.

The Linnhaven Company is fortunate in having secured the assistance of W. K. Newell, of Gaston, to superintend the planting of trees on their big orchard property. Mr. Newell is one of the best fruit men in Oregon, has been president of the State Horticultural Society and may always be depended upon. Mr. Newell went out to the orchard yesterday.

The Oregon Electric Surveyors.

Wait Meade reports the Oregon Electric surveyors running their lines past his house this side of the Calapoia bridge, the line of the right of way being four feet from his house, making the track about thirty feet; but he doesn't care. He is decidedly glad to get the road out that way. A station is anticipated somewhere near his place on the Calapoia road.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 81-45.
The river is down another 1/2 to 1 foot.
Prediction: Fair tonight and Saturday.
