Brownsville.

Times: Ed Holloway came up from Portland the latter part of last week and has been engaged this week in arranging to move his family to the metropolis to reside.

The members of the Epworth League gave a rarewell banquet on the lawn at the M. E. parsonage Tuesday evening, in honor of Ed Holloway and family, Dr. J. B. Kelley and family, Mrs. Annie Wyatt and George Lacey, all of whom go elsewhere to reside.

J. D. Tower, one of the proprietors of the Brownsville Creamery and a prominent business man, met death Saturday evening as the result of a peculiar accident. While assisting in unloading ice a large cake slipped and striking the end of a board caused it to fly up and strike the unfortunate man a terrific blow on the side of his head, causing a fracture of the skull which resulted in his death about four hours afterward.

Albany cannot afford to be behind the other cities in paving.

Some one says Albany might as well pave the entire district, Washington to Lyon, First to Ninth at once and have it done, as it is bound to come.

Thirty-two big questions to vote on, many of them on the ticket simply because people signed everything presented them, regardless of their merit. Next year turn over a new leaf and turn down objectionable measures.

A heading in an Ashland paper indicates that there will be something doing in Southern Oregon. It reads: "Normal Killer, Jay Bowerman, nominated for Governor, is slayer of state normal schools." The Record calls him ignorant, malicious and a liar. The fight is on.

President Taft has directed Senator Crane of Massachusetts to come west to inquire into the political conditions. There would be more sense in having him come to inquire into the industrial conditions. A President should be more than a politician after he is elected.

HARRISBURG.

Bulletin:—
W. A. Murdock reports having the finest stand of corn he has ever seen in this country, a 12 acre patch, which in this country amounts to quite a field.

The stock shipments from here the past week have amounted to 19 car loads. C. Lifer of Eugene has shipped three cars of sheep; Burt Norwood one of cattle, an Albany man three cars, Norwood Bros. four cars, Swinger seven cars, and Russell Coleman of Co-burg one car.

Mrs. Ennis, wife of Rev. Ennis of Peoria, passed away here last Thursday noon at the age of about 35 years. A few hours previous she had given birth to a baby girl and to all appearances had come from under the anesthetic in a most favorable condition.

Chief Morris has issued a call for a meeting of all the citizens who wish to belong to the fire company.

Fishermen's Excursion
