

ALBANY MAN FOR GOVERNOR

A convention of Socialists was held in Portland yesterday and placed in nomination the following ticket:

W. S. Richards of Albany, for governor; Allen McDonald, Portland, secretary of state; Chas. Otten, Portland, treasurer; C. C. Brax, Prineville, attorney general; J. D. Hassfurter, Portland, superintendent; Geo. Bylander, Portland, state printer; supreme judges, B. F. Ramp, Brooks, formerly of Albany, R. K. Ryan, Salem, T. L. Jones, Fossil, and J. D. Myers, of Coquille; S. L. Curry, Coquille, labor commissioner; N. X. Marks, R. R. commissioner; John Knob food and dairy commissioner.

The convention declared for universal suffrage, for public ownership of all natural resources and utilities, the management of all industries by the workers, production for use instead of profit, calling upon all workers to organize under Socialism.

W. S. Richards, the nominee for governor is superintendent of the chair factory of R. Veal & Son, a former member of the city council. He has made a special study of socialistic problems, once spending several months among the factories of the east in the interest of the subject.

Judge Ramp was in business here for several years, running a grocery store.

Socialist Convention.

The Linn County Socialist convention is hereby called to convene at the court house in Albany, Ore., Friday, Sept. 2 at 10 a. m., for the purpose of nominating a full County ticket, and transacting such other business as may regularly come before it. The basis of representation will be one delegate for each precinct and one additional delegate for each five votes or major fraction thereof cast at the last election.

I would recommend that primaries be held Aug. 28 or 27.

W. S. RICHARDS,
County Chairman.

HISTORY OF LINN COUNTY

Under an arrangement with the Linn County Pioneer's Association E. L. Jones, editor of the Albany Citizen, will publish a history of Linn county, consisting approximately 350 pages, with illustrations, presenting a book that will be sold for $1.50. One thousand advance subscriptions will be secured and two or three thousand will be printed. Mr. Jones will spend several months preparing the material for the work, personally interviewing the prominent pioneers of the county, endeavoring to produce a work that shall be not only readable, but reliable. The early history of Linn county was full of stirring events, which will be woven into an historical story that will be of great value to the county.

Mr. Jones is every way a suitable person for the important work, a splendid writer and a thorough student of the past. He may be depended upon to produce a work that shall be a credit to Old Linn, which has done much to help make Oregon history.

While on this work Mr. Jones will give up the editing of the Citizen entirely to his assistant E. W. Kibbey.

Fell From a Train.

Britt Bryant, a bridge carpenter, 21 years of age, met with a serious accident Saturday evening. When the train from the Bay arrived he was on the watchman's platform at the bridge, having quit work, and thought he would ride to the depot, so as the train came slowly along he attempted to jump on, but failed and was thrown off about twenty feet. He was badly bruised and injured internally. He was taken to the hospital, where he is being cared for.

A Condemnatory Suit.

Not agreeing upon terms the Oregon Electric Co. has begun a suit to condemn the property of Mrs. Mary Moech and children, in the eastern suburbs of the city, where the Fifth street line enters the city, consisting of 38.7 feet by 350 feet and 5 lots block 2 Jones addition. On account of the minority of the heirs such a suit is practically necessary. The attorneys for the plaintiff are Carey & Kerr and Harrison Allen of Portland, and G. S. Hill of Albany.

For the Protection of Celestials.

Deputy State Game Warden J. L. Green, of Portland, has been in the city, helping organize the work for the protection of Chinese pheasants and other wild birds and game the coming season. There are a good many Celestials coming up, with prospects of a big crop and it is proposed to do everything possible for their protection according to law, but there are always hunting bootleggers, and they will be watched close this year.

Another Carrier.

The Democrat has been obliged to add another carrier. Too many new subscribers for the old ones. Hereafter the paper will be delivered to the eastern limits and also along the sidewalk in Wright's addition.

Kenneth Merrill left this noon for the Bay.

Junation defeated Jefferson yesterday 9 to 4.

A. S. Bliton, a distinguished Medford editor, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Blanche Lennox, of Portland, formerly of this city, is visiting Albany friends.

Dr. Shinn went to Portland this morning and will be out of the city about ten days.

Louis Stimson, the veteran K. of R. & S. of the K. P's of Oregon, returned this noon from the Bay.

The big Barnum & Bailey circus will be in Salem Saturday Aug. 27, and will skip Albany on its way south.

E. M. Reagan, of the Register, Eugene, was in the city this afternoon while on his way to Portland on a business trip.

Dr. and Mrs. Stark returned Saturday evening from their Cascadia outing, the center of a good time and lots of fun.

J. H. Simpson and W. G. Ballock and their families are at Cascadia, going in their autos, for their summer's outing.

S. N. Steele and son Horace came over from the Bay this noon. Mrs. Steele and other children remaining at the Bay.

Henry J. Clark, of Grants Pass, arrived this morning on an Albany visit. He reports that four pound baby doing well and growing.

Jesse Waddell, one the finest sign writers in Portland, is now in the city jail, the end of a debauch, an example of what whiskey will do for a man.

Mr. Hail, the timber cruiser of the Siletz, returned this noon from Redding, Calif., where he was in a automobile accident injuring one of his ankles.

Mrs. Judge Blackburn, who has been residing at Lebanon and Brownsville the past year, continues to be an Alleyville and will return to her home on Galapagos street, next week, to reside, a fact her many friends will be glad to learn.

Chas. South, of this city, who recently graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music, in violin playing, will leave this week for Vienna to continue his studies under the masters. He is said to display a splendid talent on this favorite instrument.

Geo. W. Taylor, the evangelist, and company, who held meetings in Independence, Salem and other places, with great success, are on their way to Oregon to conduct meetings, the first at Lebanon in September, in a tabernacle to be built. With Mr. Taylor is Prof. Wenger, the choir leader, with Johnson at this city.

G. CO. OFF FOR ENCAMPMENT.

G. Co. of this city, forty-five strong, was placed under marching orders at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, in full khaki uniform, sleeping in the army last night, arising at 3 o'clock this morning, and leaving on a special train at 5:25 with other companies from the south, a fine crowd of young men. The Company has been well drilled but on account of many new members all of them are not up on tactics. Among the new men are Deputy Postmaster F. M. Powell, a former prominent member and Prof. Flo, of the college.

The officers in charge are Stanley Hammel captain, S. C. Worrel and Q. E. Propst, with the company for fifteen years, and through the Philippine campaign, lieutenants; Frank M. Powell, Bert Francis, Chas. Read, Herman Stainaker, Archie Bond, Connie White and Geo. Willet sergeants; Leonard Gilbert, Henry Vollandt, Morris Bigbee, Edmund Anderson and Roy Nutting corporals.

Among others from Albany who will be present are Dr. Ed. Stewart, in charge of the hospital work for all the Oregon regiments, assisted by Dr. Jos. Sternberg, formerly of this city, and Ralph Stuart, his brother.

Regiments will be present from five states, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and North Dakota.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Rev. W. S. Gordon left for Portland, where he will join a crowd of distinguished Methodist ministers and leave tomorrow for Mt. Hood, starting Wednesday morning early for the summit. This is a trip of a life time and one Mr. Gordon has been anticipating for some time.

Mr. Alex Power, a resident of Halsey for twenty years or more, passed through the city for Lebanon to take charge of the management of the Lebanon bank, and to make his home. He has built up a splendid reputation as a reliable business man.

Miss Doris McClain, the popular cashier of S. E. Young & Son, returned from a visit with Eugene friends, ending her two weeks vacation. Previously she spent ten days at Salem with relatives.

Mrs. Beryl Fisher Turner Marks and Mrs. T. P. Fisher, her grandmother, who arrived yesterday from her home at Saverton, Mo., left for Yaquina City, to join Mrs. Flueella Turner, who has been at the Toner residence for several weeks, and spend a time on the Bay. This is Mrs. Fisher's first Oregon visit, and it is several years since she saw her daughter and granddaughter.

Mrs. Judge Blackburn arrived from Lebanon.

Dr. J. C. Booth and daughter, of Lebanon, went to Salem after another daughter.

Miss Eval Rhodes went to Portland on a couple days business trip.

J. B. Coule returned from Lebanon.

Miss Clark, daughter of the superintendent of schools at Astoria, left for home accompanied as far as Portland by Miss Marian Bradley.

Tude Senders and family came down from Brownsville and left for Eastern Oregon.

G. W. Wright went to Lebanon to continue the fight against a guardian for Marshall Clark.

Dr. Schock, E. F. Sox's school boy friend, left on a trip up the C. & E., wishing to see the tall timber before returning east.

W. Yates left for Brownsville.

Bert Warford went out to Brownsville with twelve petitions for nominations.

Dr. Wire arrived from Eugene.

Miss Nancy Ralston returned from a visit with her parents at Halsey.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Coates and Margaret left for the Bay.

Bert Davis started on a piano tuning trip.

Mrs. L. M. Curl and daughter left for the Bay for an outing.

Mr. Fred L. Walker left for Portland to join his father, who went to Newberg Saturday for a visit with a friend and they will return to their home at Des Moines, Iowa. The former owns a farm across the river and expects to return here in a few years to reside. His father also likes the country and may return.

An Alleged Democratic Slate.

The Oregonian with its usual unfairness and provocation has a sensational item about the democrats meeting secretly in Portland, and agreeing on an assembly ticket. This is done to offset the republican assembly ticket; but it is the worst kind of political rot, in keeping with its customary course. According to this item Jefferson Myers has been agreed upon as governor, C. P. Strain secretary of state, T. A. Rinehard treasurer, A. E. Reams attorney general, J. B. Horner superintendent, Jas. Godfrey state printer, Oswald West railroad commissioner at large, congressman from this district S. M. Garland or L. M. Travis, second district, Harry Lane or N. Teal, supreme judges W. T. Slater and W. R. King, the present able officials.

At the Hotels.

C. Hanson, Grinnel, Ia.
C. E. Morris & wf, Madison, Wis.
J. S. Wyant, R. D. Byrd, R. Shelton, Salem.
W. M. Rasmus & wf, Portland.

Hop Lee, Portland.
Mrs. D. H. Carl, Lebanon.
Jos. H. Albert, Portland.
Irene and Julie Kyniston, Siletz.
L. W. Jesse, Salem.

DEATH OF H. W. SCOTT.

Harvey W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian for over forty years, died in Baltimore 6 o'clock last evening after an operation for prostatictomy, performed on Saturday. Heart failure set in. He had been ill for several months from an affection of the prostate gland, after a long life of remarkably good health. His wife and one son, Lesley, were with him. He was born in Tasewell county, Illinois, Feb. 1, 1838, on a farm. He came to Oregon with his father in 1852, settling in Yamhill county. For several years he worked at anything to be done and was in the Indian wars of 1867. He graduated from the college at Forest Grove in 1868, was in Idaho a year and then returned to Portland, a place on the Oregonian, and soon after became its editor, a position he filled afterwards with the exception of a few years. His career is known to all Oregonians. He ranked as one of the ablest editors of the country, a vigorous writer, having a style and force that gave him a wide reputation as an editorial writer. His character was stamped on his paper, and will long remain an influence in its policies.

Chunks of Gold?

In the Sunday Journal of Portland, E. L. Jones, of this city, retells the interesting story of the famous Blue Bucket Mine of Eastern Oregon, in a very readable way. In 1845 a band of immigrants were coming to Oregon when the incident occurred. Almost unamused for winter, after a long desert trip the oxen suddenly stampeded, and ran until a stream was reached. In the rocks were picked up, according to the story, that would not break, but were malleable. A huge bucket was filled and hung to a wagon; but lost off on the way. This vision is that the stuff was solid gold nuggets. Several expeditions were made to find the lost placer mine, but in vain. One was in 1868 by a party consisting of Dr. J. L. Hill, Jerry Driggs and son, Abe Miller, a surveyor, Rev. Grav, Geo. Patterson and two others, relatives of Miller. On account of the conduct of Miller they got out of the scent and failed in the search. In the story Dr. Hill's picture appears in the center.

Some people believe in this Blue Bucket mine, but the Democrat is satisfied there is nothing in it, and like the ancient golden fleece it will always remain a possibility, something just within reach, an exaggeration.

Los Angeles to Victoria

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bemis, of Los Angeles, passed through the city today in their Auburn car for Victoria, B. C., and back home, for their summer's outing. They have the distinction of having what Mr. Bemis claims to be the most complete camping outfit in the world, everything, with $50 reward for anything needed not in the outfit. They have a two room tent, electric lights, bath tub, and everything imaginable. Mr. Bemis was through here five years ago on a like trip, when the Democrat met him also. A good natured civil couple who know to enjoy life.

Modern Cinderella at Dreamland.

The program for Sunday and Monday at the Dreamland is an all feature one. "A Modern Cinderella" Vitagraph, is a deeply interesting society drama. It is the old story reproduced in full, with modern surroundings as prominent features. "The Seminole Halfbreeds" is an Indian picture based upon an order banishing the Seminoles to the reservation. A strong dramatic picture is "Freddie's Vacation." Freddie was tired of working in a hot office and he planned to work the "sick sister" excuse, that what starts the laughs, Miss Edith Neilson will sing "The Flower of Singapore," and beautiful slides showing the manufacture of porcelain will complete this all star bill.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 83-49.
The river 8 foot.
Prediction: fair tonight and Tuesday.

TUESDAY.

Judge Galloway a Candidate.

Judge William Galloway yesterday filed his declaration to be a candidate for reelection as circuit judge in this district. He has filed the office well and successfully, a gentleman on the bench and off, impartially administering justice according to his convictions as to the meaning of the law. He has become a very popular official, and will poll a large vote for reelection for an office in which there should be no politics.

Albany a Horse Center.

Albany is the center for Oregon of a Denver horse company's trade in $50,000 worth of blooded Belgian horses, with the horses on the ground. Already several have been sold, including one at Sweet Home for $5,000. The selection of Albany as the trade center for the business is a compliment to its position as a commercial center.

Many Bids.

The time for receiving bids on the new Schmitt block has been extended to next Saturday at 3 p. m., when they will be opened. Six bids have been received from builders from Grants Pass, Portland, including those of Eugene, Salem, Corvallis and Albany, and more are coming. The block is a big one attracting wide attention among contractors.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 88-48.
The river 8 foot.
Prediction: fair tonight and Wednesday.

APPLE FAIR NOV. 16-18

The Linn County Apple Fair Board, consisting of those appointed by the commercial club and the county court met at the commercial club rooms last night and organized for the coming Linn County Apple Fair, which, it is proposed to make the best in the history of the valley, aided by a good apple year. Last year was a poor apple year, but we made a splendid show anyway. November 16, 17 and 18 is the time agreed upon for the event, and the following officers and committees were named to prepare the show:

Judge C. H. Stewart chairman.
E. L. Jones secretary.
F. M. French treasurer.

Finance.—F. M. French, W. A. Eastburn, H. Bryant.

Building and decorations.—J. C. Holbrook, F. J. Fletcher, J. A. Howard.

Premiums and advertising.—D. W. Rumbaugh, S. A. Lasselle, C. H. Stewart.

Program and speakers.—H. H. Hewitt, E. L. Jones, Geo. H. Crowell.

Exhibits.—J. M. Hawkins, C. H. Stewart, F. M. French, J. A. Howard, W. A. Eastburn.

Made in Albany.

Albany is also a job printing center. A job the city may be proud of is a 32 page booklet being gotten out by Rawlings for the Linnhaven Orchard Company, particularly the cover, done entirely by Mr. Rawlings, a three color affair, in yellow, red and blue, giving an artistic effect. The picture shows an apple box, with apples on the end, labeled "Oregon Apples. Packed by the Albany Apple Growers Association, Albany, Or." The Company is taking pride in the fact that the work has all been done in Albany.

Mrs. M. E. Jordan, of Lebanon, was an Albany visitor today.

Miss Irene Poling, daughter of Rev. D. V. Poling, of The Dalles, formerly of this city, arrived this noon on a visit and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Torbet.

W. A. Eastburn to-day arrived at Sigourney, Iowa, on a visit with relatives. Yesterday he and C. B. Wipps did Chicago together. Later he will go to his former home in Kansas.

Thirteen people were killed in a train wreck at Sausalito, Calif., yesterday. A work train run into a passenger train head first, meeting around a curve. Most killed were in a smoker forward.

Dr. Mary Marshall returned last evening from San Francisco, where she attended the national convention of osteopaths, with about three hundred present. Among the number were sixty-five from her college at Des Moines. They were accorded splendid treatment by San Francisco.

Eugene last night granted the Oregon Electric franchise in that city. $10,000 bonds is given and the road is to be completed and in operation to Eugene, within eighteen months. It is substantially the same as the Albany franchise. One concession is to gravel for nine feet outside the ends of the ties.

This corrupt practice law is far-reaching. Under it you can't promise appointments, solicit or accept campaign funds, publish anonymous letters, sell editorial support, use carriages, solicit votes on election day, intimidate or coerce, solicit candidates to subscribe for religious, charitable and other objects, contribute funds in other names, treat to win favor, bet on an election or vote in the name of another person.

WILL BUILD BUNGALOWS.

Homer and Roy Dowd, two enterprising young men of New Haven, Conn., have come to Albany to raise, selecting this city for a home after going the valley. Both are builders. They will embark in the much needed enterprise of erecting bungalows, which they will sell. Yesterday they bought eight lots on Park Ave., Sunrise, including a house and barn already on the place, which will be greatly improved, and will erect eight or ten bungalows, to be sold. The place is just north of the new bungalow of Ernest Hornbach, the consideration $1800. It is splendidly located in one of the most popular suburban sections, building up fast, there being now nine or ten new houses under way, and the view is commanding.

The young men are both single; but they will after awhile take a trip back to Connecticut, and when they return the Democrat makes the guess that they will not be as single as now.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

A crowd of prominent Lebanon people passed through on their way to Newport for their annual outing. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Buhl and son Howard, Mrs. Fred Hickok of Denver, sister of Mrs. Buhl, Dr. J. C. Booth, wife and daughter Margaret and Mr. Everett and family.

Dr. M. A. Howe, of Yokohama, left for Seattle and thence home by steamer, after a visit with his sister, Mrs. C. W. Sears.
