TWO LEGS CUT OFF

By Falling from a Breakbeam at Harrisburg.

Rushine Lafargue, an eighteen year old boy beating his way on a freight train, No. 222, Conductor Hearns train running between Junction and Albany, this morning, fell from a truss roo just as the train was starting from Harrisburg, under the wheels, and his two legs were cut off above the knees. The train was not going over five miles an hour. The train was stopped, the boy who had been stealing a ride, picked up and Dr Dale sent for. The flow of blood was stopped, the unfor-tunate youth put on a stretcher and brought to Albany on No. 16, and placed in St. Mary's Hospital. Dr. Kavanaugh assisted Lr. Dale and dressed the limbs. The boy was un-able to stand the shock and died at 8:15, which is probably best. The boy was a son of JohnLafargue, of San Rafael, Calif, who has been noti-fied. He was starting out to see the world and was beating his way north by the breakbeam route, or any-way possible, when the accident hap-pened. This was the boy's first trip out into way possible, when the accident hap-pened. This was the boy's first trip out into the world. He started with some money, but his traveling companions had absorbed all of it. He was with a couple much older men. At Junction they were driven from the train, but got back on again. Lafargue said the brakeman wanted a dollar, but they didn't have it. At Harrisburg the breakman again drove them off. A companion got off and Lafargue tried to, but slipped and foll under the wheels. Coroner Fortmiller investigated the matter throughly, and decided the case did not call for a jury.

The recent tragedy at Siletz, which resulted in the death of three paople, including the murderer, is being in-vestigated. It transpires that whiskey was at the botton of the whole aftair, and Gus Olsen, of Toledo, is accused of being the man who sold the stuft. The story is that he sold three bottles of whiskey to Spencer, who took it home and he and his wife got drunk, and it is said attacked Felix, who shot and killed Spencer and Mrs. Metcalf, The latter had gone with Felix to the Spencers after scome furniture and the trouble is said to have occurred by Spencer trying to have Mrs. Metcalf drink, objected to by Felix, and that the whole three fought him and he had to shoot in self defense. After he had killed Spencer and Mrs. Metcalf he then took his own life. Mrs. Spencer says positively that the whiskey was gotten of Gus Olsen of Toledo. The government proposes to push the in-vestigation to the bottom. The man who is low enough to sell liquor to an indian should be given more than the common bootlegging punishment. Dr. T. D. Bancroft was in town to-day, making arrangements for a couple of lectures at the Presbyterian church Aug 11 and 12 on How to Do Things, the first night and the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln the second night. Dr. Bancroft built the famous Bancroft tabernacle in Kansas City, where he worked for eight years. He did things and will tell others how to build up Sabbath Schools and church work gen-erally. Before that he had slept with John Brown on the plains of Kanasa, and was one of one hundred ten men who formed a guard for Lincoln at the White House. Dr. Bancroft has a dozen souvenirs of Lin-coln and connected with great events. He is a pleasing gentleman and the Democrat appreciates a visit and talk. Dr. Bancroft charges no admission to his lectures, but takes up a collection, and says this is why he has alwaya re-msins poor.

Col. Hofer and family went to the Bay yesterday in their auto. Hofer is about the only valley editor owning an auto, and the editor of the Gazette-Times of Corvallis boasts of the Col. noticing him while passing through that city, even spoke to him and made some gobernatorial suggestions, whatever that may be.
