CANDIDATE MULKEY CHALLENGES HAWLEY.

In announcing his candidacy for congressman, B. F. Mulkey of Jacksonville throws down the gauntlet to Congressman Hawley in the following line manner:
"I hereby announce myself a candidate for congress, subject to the will of the Republican voters of the First Congressional District of Oregon at the coming primary election. A number of letters from the Willamette Valley and the Umpqua and the Coos Bay sections, urging me to run, as well as many personal solicitations by friends in Jackson and Josephine counties since the state assembly of July 21, this year, together with the evident general demand for some candidate to represent the principles I hereinafter announce, impel me to this. If nominated and elected to congress, I will not vote for Joseph Cannon for Speaker of the House and, to the end that legislative power may not be concentrated in the hands of a few men, I will vote to take away from the speaker the appointment of the rules committee and all other committees and return it to the house, whence it originated. I shall vote to give the Interstate Commerce Commission power to regulate railroad rates upon the basis of the value of the physical property of the railroads and to give the commission power and authority to limit the issuance of stocks and bonds of railroads to actual investments made. I will vote for a revision of the tariff with the interests of the mass of consumers constantly in the foreground and shall insist that, on all trust manufactured articles the tariff schedule shall cover the difference in the actual cost of production in the United States and foreign countries only, as was promised by the last National Republican platform. I will vote for a constitutional amendment providing for direct election of United States senators and shall give my moral support to the Oregon plan known as "Statement Number One" until such time as an amendment to the federal constitution shall render it no longer necessary. That the issues raised in the foregoing statement may be developed and tested before the people, I respectfully and cordially invite the assembly nominee, Congressman W. C. Hawley, to a joint discussion of the same, to be held in every county of the First Congressional District. Respectfully submitted."

Hillman, a teacher over in Eastern Oregon, in Crook county, the Journal of Prineville says, has returned to the coyotes. A few months ago it was held up in some pictures of prospects; but it transpires that it was simply a modern game for dividing up the money of the people. This is mentioned as a warning to people to look out when schemes are presented them, whether little or big. The farmer will not buy a horse without seeing it and learning about it, and why should men jump into all kinds of real estate, mining, wireless, wire, stock and other schemes without knowing anything about what they are doing. Thousands of dollars are thrown away on worthless stock and coyote lots by a credulous people, which includes some mighty good business men. Where one winning is made there are fifty failures, showing the chances too big the wrong way, even in gambling affairs.

HOBSON'S JINGLE.

Lieutenant Hobson during the Chautauqua season kept telling people that a war with Japan was inevitable. He did that when in Albany a year or two ago. He seems a good deal like the old fellow that had just one time, "The Arkansas Traveler." That he played over and over again. That is about all Hobson plays, war and prospects of war. There would be a good deal more sense playing the tune of Peace, and keeping at it. It at least has a sweeter sound, hits the nerves tenderly and leaves a good taste in the mouth, while the war tune has a harsh, fierce sound, full of discords, racking the nerves and tasting of sulphur. The jingle is a poor one to have at large and is bad in its influence. Besides there is nothing in it. Japan and the U. S. are on good terms and will undoubtedly remain that way regardless of jingles.

NO VOTING CONTESTS FOR THE DEMOCRAT.

Every day or two the Democrat receives a proposition from some kind of a contest company or individual, wanting to put on a voting contest or some kind of a scheme, all of which are turned promptly down. The Democrat is just straight newspaper, and is anxious to get subscribers who want it for what it is worth to them as such, in the local life of the city. It appreciates a splendid patronage in that light, and is not looking for people who take a paper a week or two simply to help some one in a voting contest over something that amounts to nothing.

Fire Near Cascadia.

Field Ward and family returned last night from Cascadia. He reported quite a fire on the Harrison Deck, reaching towards Cascade, and getting into good things. Twenty men were fighting it and trying to check the progress.

TUESDAY.
IN THE MAIL.

An open letter from the Oregon tax commissioners J. B. Eaton and C. V. Galloway, in which they answer numerous charges in reference to a letter they had written to county assessors on the subject of taxing intangible personal property. It was taken to mean the taxation of mortgages, whereas simply mortgage notes was meant. Under this the outsider investor is not touched at all, for he has his notes in his notes in his safe back in New York, or somewhere else; but the commission means business in reference to the notes held by home people.

A circular notice of the fifth annual dry farming congress to be held at Spokane Oct. 8-6, an event that deserves wide consideration, this dry farming proposition being something that deserves cultivation.

An account of a sermon by Rev. Clarence True Wilson, of Portland, Sunday night, on the second attempt to foist the Reddy bill on the people, emanating from that class that proposes to exploit the votes of the city for itself and care nothing for the welfare of the state. The whole object of the bill is to entrench the saloon so it cannot be prohibited anywhere, to throw all the towns and cities wide open, with a deceiving clause subject to the provision of the local option law, the real object being to loot the law. Vote No X319 and also Yes X 342 and 344.

After the Blind Pigs.

Clyde Clements was fined $500 and given 30 days in jail. Dan Gilbert was fined $500 dollars and 30 days in jail. W. J. Stevens was fined $300 and given 20 days in jail. Tom Buffin was fined $200 and given 15 days in jail. Tom Johnson was fined $250 and given 20 days in jail on one count, and fined $250 and given 20 days in jail on second count. The jail sentences were all suspended on conditional good behavior.

In Douglas County: Fines aggregating a total of $825 were paid in the justice's court at Gardener this week by three "botglagers," Fred Assenheimer, Jerry Rejko and Alfred Varrrellmann.

An Oregon Invention.

Emmett Howard, the inventor, and F. C. Palmer, of Eugene, are in the city demonstrating the Howard Automatic railway switch, with rooms over the Post Office. Being an Oregon invention it is of special interest to Oregonians. With this invention a switch may be operated on the train, a saver of life, time and money being claimed for it. It is ingenious and worth seeing. The object is to sell stock to secure money with which to make a practical test of the value of the invention. A wedge shaped shoe under the engine of the business. Properly set there is possibility of an accident from rushing on an open switch. The incorporators of the Company are prominent Eugene men, Dr. C. L. Willoughby, Hon. Louis E. Bean, Emmett Howard, the inventor, R. E. Volturn, Dr. T. W. Harris and John Hartog.

At Halsey.

An ice cream party was given in honor of Miss Laura Hinrich's of Hood River, at the home of Mr. H. Koch Saturday evening. Miss Hinrichs being a visitor at Mr. Koch's for a few days. The evening was well spent with music and songs. Miss Margaret and Freda Koch rendered some very pretty instrumental music. Those present were: Miss Laura Hinrichs, Mr. and Mrs. Koch, Misses Margaret, Anna and Freda Koch, Mr. A. Smith and family, Mrs. M. Smith and children, Mr. P. Freerkson and family, Mr. H. Abraham and family, Mr. Roy and Solomon Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Schoel, Mr. Frank Clingman, Mrs. Clingman, Mr. Macdock and family, Mr. W. The Flag of Company H. at Dreamland.

The program for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday at the Dreamland is the best ever. The feature film, "Out of the Past" is a dramatic love story of a different sort. "The Flag of Company H" is a high class war drama that will thrill you through and through. "A Mad Dog Scars" is intended for laughing purposes only. "A Sleep Walking Cure" is absolutely new and entirely out of the ordinary. Miss Edith Neilson singing Summer Times the Time for me, and beautiful slides entitled Child Studies will complete an all star bill.

Death of Mrs. Quinn.

Mrs. Elizabeth Taylor Quinn died on August 5, at her home in Portland, and the funeral was held yesterday at the church of the Ascension, with burial in the Riverview cemetery. Mrs. Quinn was 71 years of age. She resided in Linn county a number of years, going from here to Portland. She leaves two sons, Ed Quinn, of Los Angeles, formerly of Albany, Tilden Quinn of Portland, and Mrs. J. J. Collins of this city.

Fire at Crabtree.

The residence of W. J. Turnidge, of Crabtree, is reported to have burned this morning. The burning building was saved only by last week's fire by a fireman who was that week's fireman. The residence of John Myers also had a close call.

Congressman Hawley, assembly nominee for congress, supporter of Speaker Cannon, will soon make a trip over the district. Corvallis has a genius, Will Moore, who makes beans grow on sun flower stalks, which is either a newspaper joke or a fact. Mrs. Bessie Nehrbis, of Oregon City, died at Eugene yesterday and will be buried at North Palestine cemetery tomorrow afternoon. Consul General H. B. Miller, of Belfast writes that Europe is clamoring for American pears and are willing to pay any price to get them. Newport people insist that the water there is pure and all right, and declare that the stories reported in the Portland papers to be exaggerations. A young man at Irvington, N. J. saw a suicide depicted in a moving picture, went to his room and employed the same method. Perhaps these pictures will help weed out weak minded people. Secretary Ballinger will arrive in Portland tomorrow and will leave Friday evening for Klamath Falls to inspect the irrigation project, Indian reservation and Crater Lake. Jos. W. Folk, recently in Albany, was injured in an automobile accident at Muscatine, Iowa a few days ago. His right leg was sprained and he received numerous bruises, but addressed a crowd of five thousand directly afterwards.

DOINGS OF THE WORLD.

In the great Knights Templars parade at Chicago yesterday there were thirty thousand Templars, and it took three hours fifteen minutes to pass the reviewing stand. Three hundred accidents occurred with one death. Mayor Graynor, of New York last night was shot by an assassin, a man removed from office because of incompetency. The mayor was just starting on a trip to Europe. He is in a critical condition. The bullet struck behind the right ear and ranged down. The remains of Harvey W. Scott will arrive from the east Friday night and will be placed in state during Saturday. The funeral will be private at the Scott home Sunday afternoon. At 2:30 the Masons of Portland will have charge of the burial service at the cemetery.

The Democrat appreciates a mess of corn from the gardens of B. C. Wyatt, of Benton county, some from some seed brought by Mr. Wyatt from Kansas last winter. It is all right.

MISFITS.

August is quiet, but keep a boosting just the same. Water Street is a decidedly busy thoroughfare these days. Lots of Albany people are having a good time right at home. Here is to a good time by the O. N. G. boys at American Lake. Albany's apples show this year will be the greatest yet, for the apples are on the trees. There is not a cabinet officer in Washington, but the country is getting along just as well if not better.

The city of Portland owns an auto. In six months it has cost $299.93 to run it, including repairs, a sample of the way cities-waist money. An eastern Oregon paper accuses the editor of an exchange of lying with the accomplished fluency of a brass-lunged barker at a ballyhoo.

Literature galore telling people how to vote is crowding the mails, and the cities with candidates will have their postal records helped. Linn county with its own apple fair, should head the list of counties offering prizes for the best county display at the big Portland apple show.

A little circular reads: "Los Angeles has the most enjoyable climate in the world month in, month out, year in, year out." Pretty near the same thing all the time. One can't live on kisses. For the benefit of a few knockers it may be remarked that the democrats haven't any ticket in the field, nor will have until the regular primaries. The so-called ticket hatched up in Portland is simply a republican production created to offset the storm against the republican assembly aggregation.

L. E. Bean, of Eugene, the assembly candidate for joint senator for Linn and Lane counties, is the man who introduced a bill in the last legislature making it a misdemeanor to vote in the legislature for the senatorial candidate receiving the highest of the people's votes, unlawful for the people to elect a U. S. senator. Think of putting a man of that calibre in office. No wonder he is an assembly candidate.

Shedds.

Mrs. J. A. McBride left Friday noon for Salem to attend her daughter Mrs. Iva Goodwin, who is ill. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Isa Soule of La Combe, a girl. Jack Dannen and family returned from the coast Friday. Mrs. Childs and daughter, of Brownsville, visited at J. B. Mears last week. Miss Lena Thrift, of Albany, is visiting Mrs. Jesse Liggett. Mrs. Elva Nichols is visiting in Corvallis. Mr. E. E. Coon has bought the Jackson residence. Charlie Pugh and family went to Albany Saturday. Born July 26, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Powers, a girl. JUDY

The Lovett Trip.

President Lovett, J. P. O'Brien and party yesterday reached Klamath Falls on their eastern Oregon trip, going there from Lakeview, and are now riding northward. Where they will cross the mountains into this valley and thence to the coast is not known, perhaps not at all. Some think this trip is for business and means something. A good many former trips have been made that never culminated in anything. If the party should come by way of Albany there should be a special reception for the distinguished men.

E. M. Perfect received a telephone message today from Wren, on the C. & E. that Len Hever, an old friend had been kicked by a horse, dying from the effects of it. They will leave in the morning for Wren to attend the funeral. Hurry up the fool killer. A rich Sacramento lumber man has just paid $2,000 for a private car for his dog.

On the Oregon Electric.

S. S. Myers, residing four miles from Sheldon reports the Oregon Electric surveyors passing through his farm with their line from Albany to Eugene. The road will go about a mile east of Oakville about direct to Harriaburg, which will be the only place in Linn county favored with it, outside of Albany. Mr. Myers has been to Portland twice on the Salem-Portland road and he appreciates the value of an electric line. Those near the road are congratulating themselves. It will mean a good deal to their property.
