MISFITS.

Who lies, Gore or Sherman.

Portland has a little bridge war on. Has to have trouble of some kind going.

Begin talking next year's Chautauqua. Put it solidly on the map with the best in the country.

Col. Hofer is having a strenuous time putting himself on both sides of the temperance question.

Eugene now has eight precincts, pretty well covering that section of the state. It will help its census too.

For a third time Portland's bank clearances led the country in percentage increase. Seattle will please smoke that.

They continue to have to guard Roosevelt, but in the jungles of Africa he took care of himself. Are men worse than lions.

Anti-Cannon is going up all over the U. S., and a congress will be elected that will put him out. The country has had enough of Cannonism and wants a change.

The whiskey people all over the Northwest want Col. Hofer for addresses against prohibition of the saloon business. He has been sent for at Spokane and publishes the fact in his own paper in big letters.

The Oregonian says the democrats are chafing for an assembly of their own, one of its everyday political preparations. But speaking of assemblies is the only one the people are objecting to is the nominating assembly.

A writer in the Oregonian tells how everything in the power of the officials possible had been done in Tillamook county to enforce the local option law. And one of the officials has just been indicted for bootlegging.

"Corvallis on the Bum," is a big heading in the Gazette-Times. Then some more: "Nothing at All Stirring Outside or In. Off Week, all around. Editor Lazy, no news, everybody who is not at the Bay is holed up, the busy season seems to be past." If anybody else was to call Corvallis a bum town there would be something doing, but even editors sometimes will joke about serious things.

The center of the bread becomes heated by the outside is browned over, thus allowing the necessary chemical changes to take place, without which toast is soggy in the middle and hard on the outside.

The General Electric Radiant Toaster lightens breakfast tasks and quickly pays for itself by saving time and bread. Come and see a demonstration of this electrical convenience.
