All Customers Safeguarded.
Every S. W. MILLER PIANO carries with it the S. W. Miller Positive TEN YEAR guarantee which gives the purchaser the assurance of many years of good wear, good character and good tone. Many a piano customer has bought an undesirable piano (thinking they were obtaining a good instrument) only to find out later that they had been beaten.
We point to our years of square dealing with the Albany people as proof that our pianos are all that we claim them to be.

OPEN EVENINGS.

Home from Chicago.
C. W. Teabult returned last evening from Chicago, where he had been on a business trip. While there he met among others Mr. Dasset, former booster of the Albany Commercial Club who is now in the advertising business. Mr. Teabult is more of a Linn county booster than ever. He anticipates from talk the largest immigration here in the history of the valley the coming year.

The Dry Spell.
During June it rained .76 of an inch on the 10th, then .10 of an inch on the 20th, the same on the 21st, .04 on the 22nd, and practically none since, only a sprinkle too small to record, making 63 days without rain, and 75 without much.
A remarkable thing about it is the fact that crops in all lines, cereals and fruit, are the best in Oregon for years.

At the Hotels.
Violet Henderson, McMinnville.
I. O. Rayburn and wife, Waitsburg.
A. P. Howe, Brownsville.
Frank Dewitt, Salem.

Ludwig $4.15, Medin & Stewart $1.75, Albany Lumber Co. $71.31, H. Bryant $11.30, M. Senders & Co. $16.90, Port. Fl. Co. $14.00, P. Riley $51.50, Hulbert & Ohing Co. $8.90, O. S. Rowell $1.00, H. Neesley $3.50, Warren Construction Co. $0.80 per cent of $19,812.90.
Disallowed: bills of E. F. Wiles, S. S. Train and others for oiling squares. Continued: N. W. Co. and Port & Eugene R. R. Co. for street sprinkling.
The street superintendent recommended a foot bridge across Thurston north side of 6th and cross walks, cross walks across Hill street north side 5th. That catch basin, out of use, at 2nd & Broadalbin, be removed and hole filled and paved. Sidewalk and curb north side of 6th block 27. Referred.
People on Railroad street were ordered to build walks in conformity with ordinance.
A. C. Schmitt and A. W. Flinn were granted permission to use half of street for building material.
The recorder was directed to collect paving bills for Ferry and Broadalbin street assessments.
A resolution was passed providing for estimates for the paving of Washington Third to Ninth Street by Sept. 28.
The matter of a sewer at gulch near foundry was referred.
An ordinance was passed providing for a surplus of 9 1-3 per cent on Ferry St. pavement to be returned to property owners as specified, in all $1416.95.
An ordinance was read providing for the extension of the fire limits so as to reach as far south as Third street Ferry to Baker, instead of along the alley between Second and Third streets.
Marshal Munkers reported all the sewers along the S. P. switch ordered some time ago, connected, but one.

Smoky Newport.
NEWPORT, Aug. 24.—The timber is on fire about two miles north of here, right near the Monterey Hotel and as the wind is in the north quite a number of people here are very much alarmed for fear the fire will reach here. There is also a big fire on south beach, and at 6:30 p. m., Wednesday, we cannot see two blocks for the smoke.
The city water supply has been damaged some on account of the fire.

More Base Ball.
Baseball fans were pleased with the fine game put up Sunday by the Albany Colts, and many have asked for another game. In order to provide the fans with first class ball, a game has been arranged with the strong Calif. Bros. team of Portland, to be played at Rambler Park on Sunday next at 3 p. m. The Colts will lineup a little different from last Sunday. W. Birtchett will probably cover third, and A. B. Coates will be planted in center field.

Topsy Turvy at Newport.
The Topsy Turvy crowd, of Salem, returned last night from Newport, and reported a big time there. The house was backed, a stuffy place. The stage was small making the presentation difficult, but it took. Three of the girls are said to have fainted. Fred Dawson had charge of the preliminary arrangements and afterwards entertained the crowd at the hotel.

North Albany.
E. M. Perfect, of North Albany, is setting his place off into small tracts and selling it off in pieces of one acre and up, splendid land for gardening and fruit. He recently sold an acre apiece to Chris and Jake Cook, two carpenters of Albany, at $300, near the school house, and both are preparing to erect five room cottages on the property.

The Lacombe Barbecue.
The barbecue at Lacombe in honor of C. W. Teabult, will take place tomorrow, an all-day affair. Several prominent speakers will be present, and there will be a general boost for the country. Several Albany men will go out, a number of autos making the trip.

A Bonanza.
This is evidently a good year for clover. On the farm of J. A. Jones, of Syracuse precinct 252 bushels, and 42 pounds were raised on 31 acres, at the present price worth about $,000. That is going some and speaks for modern farming.

Wood Saw Accident.
Last evening while working with a wood saw, Mr. J. D. Ruffe met with a serious accident, his left arm being badly cut. Dr. W. H. Davis was called and sewed up the wound.

The Weather.
Range of temperature 82-59.
The river 7 of a foot.
Prediction: fair tonight and Friday, increasing cloudiness, possibly followed by showers.

Brave Hearts.
This is the name of an Indian picture at the Empire, one of the most realistic pictures seen here, of thrilling interest, with some splendid scenery, riding and good acting. The last chance tonight to see it.

THE FIRES. ARRIVED DRUNK.

The Northwest in the Midst of Flames.
The entire Northwest is in the grip of the fire fiend, due to the long dry spell, and only rain can stop a terrible loss.
The nearest fire to Albany is one near Holley. Last night there was apprehension for the safety of the place; but the wind changed and the entire country turned out and fought the flames back and looked after falling cinders, and the town, consisting of a store, post office and fifteen or twenty houses was saved, and is all right. Two or three farm houses, though are reported burned, the upper McKinney place and the house of Mr. Deerborn being reported gone. The flames to day were going towards the Mohawk and Wendling. At Wendling half the town had burned last night and the big Booth-Kelley mill is reported in danger.
The fire at Wendling did a good deal of damage, rendering several hundred homeless. The M. E. church was the first to go, then the school house, and many other places followed. A train took four hundred men, women and children out of the town in the evening about 8 o'clock. It took a terrific effort to save the mill, store and other property of the Booth-Kelley Co., representing several hundred thousand dollars capital. But it was successful.
There is very little fire around Cascadia, but an immense amount of smoke and a good many are leaving to be on the safe side.

Near Bellfontain, Benton county, there is a big fire going to day, running towards the ocean. A small place with a store were reported doomed.
A fire near Cottage Grove is doing a good deal of damage.
A fire is reported near the mouth of the Siletz, but is not thought to be serious yet.
1,000 men are fighting fire in the Crater lake country.
In Idaho two hundred people are said to have been killed by the fire in different forms.
Railroad men reported a fire on both sides of the roan at Eddyville, burning some timber, the only place along the line west of Albany with a fire.

FRIDAY.
The Linn county fair will open next Tuesday, with prospect of a successful session.
Miss Myrtle Spaulding, of Corvallis, is visiting in Albany the guest of Mrs. Will Alexander.
Several Albany men went to Lacombe this morning by the auto route to be at the big Teabult barbecue.
A subject of great interest will be presented at the W. C. T. U. hall tonight: United States in prophecy.
A Douglas county sale reported by the Review is: B. J. Hecker to W. A. Barrett trustee 160 acres sec. 12, 31, 4, $10.
Miss Madeline Rawlings returned this afternoon from Tangent, where she assisted the Coons in threshing their wheat crop.
An Albany man is said to have refused $20,000 for a couple of timber claims now dangerously close to a big fire, but so far safe.

Mrs. Robert Conn went to Salem this afternoon to join her husband, who has a position with the electric light company, and reside.
Judge Duncan was in Salem last night consulting with Governor Bowerman about calling out the soldiers to fight fire at Holley.
The population of Buffalo, N. Y. is 423,715 an increase of 20.2 per cent in ten years. That of Denver is 213,000 a gain of 59 per cent.
The new olive drab uniforms of G. Co. arrived yesterday and are greatly admired by the men. They are well made and the color is attractive, without being conspicuous.
Neal Littler, a native of Albany, of Salem, passed through this noon from Harrisburg, where he had been on a visit. He resides with his aunt Mrs. Underhill, of the Salem creamery.
Sam K. Hartscock, the celebrated kodak fiend, horse man, base ball manager and popular fellow generally, of Corvallis, was in town last night as single as ever.
Banker Geo. J. Whilhem, of Harrisburg, was in the city to day. Harrisburg is getting on a modern spirit and is preparing to have a good sewer system as well as other improvements of importance.
The young people of the Hamilton Store have been making extensive preparations for a lawn picnic at the home of Mrs. Maggie Cameron, with a menu out of sight and a program of fun of a high order.
At Wendling the fire was so fierce and the smoke so thick men, women and children had to crawl along the ground to get away from the suffocating effect of the smoke. Wendling went like a streak. At 6 o'clock it was not realized the town was in danger.
J. H. Fitzpatrick is in the city in the interest of the Pasmore's, a fine musical organization. He also represents Madame Koenen and Paderski. Mr. Fitzpatrick was first here with Norris & Rowe over fifteen years ago, and after several times, the last time ten years ago.
The Ferry street pavement was completed last night, and the crew transferred to First street, where they will complete the last three blocks of the present contract, probably the last work of this year. Next year there will be at least twelve blocks. Albany is going slow and carefully.
Councilman L. M. Curl returned last night on the local from the east. He went as the grand representative of the Oregon lodge of Knights of Pythias to the supreme lodge at Milwaukee and reports a great time, one of the best yet. He was also at Detroit and Saginaw. Oregon looks good upon his return regardless of the spread of smoke.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.
Capt. Hammell, Lieutenant Worrell and nearly twenty five other members of G. Co. left for Brownsville, Judge Duncan furnished the ticket for the crowd there and back. The boys were all supplied with hard tack and a general equipment for camping, as well as fire fighting, and may be depended upon for good assistance.
W. P. Elmore, of the Brownsville bank, arrived on his way to Portland. He reported the fire situation a serious one, with rain badly needed to stop the spreading of the flames. Mr. Gilbert, of the Drew Co. was at the scene of the Holley fire, getting all the men possible, wanting experienced loggers and timber men where possible, doubtful as to the ability of young National Guard men being able to do much.
Mark Hulbert, of the state fair board a member of the building committee, went to Salem to meet with the committee. Several new buildings are going up and the prospect is a splendid equipment for the best fair the state ever had.
Rev. Knotts went down to Marion on special work.
J. M. Hawkins went to Portland.
Miss Evah Fletcher, of McMinnville, passed through after a trip to Belknap Springs.
L. E. Fuller left for points north.
J. B. Cornett arrived from Shedd. Mr. Cornett has just completed one of the finest country residences in Linn county, under A. W. McGilvrey, of this city, and will be in it in a few days.
Bert Veal went to Lebanon on chair factory business.
I. R. Shultz, the insurance man, went to Lebanon.
C. H. Burggraf left for Newport to join his family.
Chas. Cleek, just after a siege of fever, left for the country.
Bert Warford went to Brownsville to help fight fire.

Commercial Club Doings.
C. B. Knudson, of Los Angeles, Calif. after a correspondence with the Albany Commercial Club arrived this morning, and has been looking over the field to-day in charge of Manager Struble.
A dispatch received at the club rooms this morning from Ben Rice superintendent of the National Apple Show at Spokane stated that other than apples would be permitted in the Linn county display, native woods for decorations and some wool and mohair, but apples must predominate.
Very few letters are being received just now inquiring about Albany. This is the wrong time of the year for it.

Railroad Man Here.
Fred R. Cottage, wife and son are in the city for a day or two. They formerly resided here, owning property in North Albany, but Mr. Cottage had been in the railroad business too long to stay out of it, and several months ago returned east. He is now with the Baltimore and Ohio, assistant to the president. He believes in this part of the world, and while here this week bought forty-five acres near this city as an investment. Tomorrow he and his family will start back east again.

Home From the East.
Dr. W. R. Shinn has returned from a trip to his old home at Bloomington, Ill., called there on business, coming back by way of Seattle. He is now completely contented with Albany the best of all the towns on the coast and says it will take a long and strong pull to get him far from Albany again. The hot weather was very oppressive; but at Butte, Mon., it was very cold and about two inches of snow fell one night. At Missulia a woman who had walked thirty miles with her children was seen, her husband having been burned to death in a forest fire.
A man travelling near Roseburg accidentally dropped his Colt's revolver, it was discharged and the bullet went directly into the strangers' heart.
Mark Levy, a Hebrew Christian evangelist, of San Francisco, is in the valley. There is a good field here, but a more needed one down in San Francisco, the rooster city in the U. S.
The milliners of the U. S. have been in session at Chicago. They declare that they will make just such hats as they please, just as big, just as odd shape, peach basket, or anything else.
W. A. Larned at Newport yesterday again defended successfully his title of champion of the U. S., the most brilliant player here. T. C. Bundy put up a strong game against him, getting two deuce sets out of the five played.
