DR. FOULKES HEARD TEDDY.

Dr. W. H. Foulkes, of the First Presbyterian church, Portland, has returned from the middle east on the way back being in Cheyenne on the day Roosevelt was there, and also at Denver as he was leaving. Mr. Foulkes is well known in Albany, and his impressions will have weight in reference to the sweeping effect of insurgency.
"The people believe in him implicitly. Such a welcome was never before accorded a man in public life. People crowded to hear Roosevelt wherever he spoke, and in each town there was unprecedented and genuine insurgent enthusiasm that points out more clearly than anything else could how this country will go when another election is held.

"My brother who lives in Kansas, told me how it was when 'Uncle Joe' Cannon spoke there. They gave Cannon a perfectly respectful audience, as due a man of his attainments. Sometimes they applauded him. But it was as cold a gathering as I have ever seen which it was held on the same day on which it was held in Utah. Cannon was clearly shown that he could never again expect to sweep any middle west district.

"While traveling in Utah, Governor Spry sat just across the aisle from me. I heard him call Roosevelt a selfish self-seeker and say other things calculated to be detrimental to the great man's character. But evidently the people of Utah did not share their governors' opinions."

Group of $600 Beauties on Display at Woodworth Drug Co.

New customers are constantly being added to the large family of S. W. Miller Piano Owners in the Willamette Valley, at the store of Woodworth Drug Co. (Factory Distributors) can be seen a fine group of these thoroughly reliable instruments.

They look like $600.00 Pianos, but right here is where the advanced selling methods (adopted and originated in Albany by the Woodworth Drug Co.) come in. You don't have to pay $600.00 because you save the Jobbers-Dealers and agents' Big commission. The tone, touch and material says $300.00, the magnificent wearing qualities says $600.00, the beautiful design and superb workmanship says $600.00 but Mr. Woodworth says LESS. WHY?

Because he has a simple straightforward factory proposition to make you on the from MAKER to USER plan and you get the real factory prices with a small sum added for freight, drayage and cost of handling. The S. W. Miller Piano has long since been in the balance and found not wanting.

Look around before you call, see the others first and your search will end when you have seen and heard the S. W. Miller Piano Gem at Woodworth Drug Co. Open evenings.

A Timber Fire

Lebanon E. A.—About 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire was discovered in the timber on M. Lemmer's land, on the west side of the Butte, across the river from here. The fire spread very fast and Mr. Lemmer telephoned to Lebanon for help to fight the flames. A fire alarm was sounded, and about 25 men went from here and succeeded in subduing the flames. By back firing the fire fighters succeeded in bringing it under control in about three hours.

LAST DAY.

This is the last day for filing notices of candidacy for the different state and district offices. So far there are 104 names on the list. For Governor the republicans have Jay Bowerman, the assembly candidate, E. Hofer and Judge Dimick anti-assembly, with prospects of a live race in the primaries. The anti-assembly vote will be divided probably about evenly between Dimick and Hofer. Hofer will carry Southern Oregon undoubtedly, while Dimick will run ahead in eastern Oregon and Portland according to the outlook. Bowerman will probably squeeze into the nomination between them.

There are two nominations by the democrats for governor, Os. West and Jefferson Myers, with prospects of the nomination of West, whose record in the state land office and as commissioner have given him a splendid reputation in the state; but Myers also has a good reputation as the head of the Lewis and Clark fair and a member of the state senate.

L. R. Alderman for superintendent, F. J. Miller for commissioner, J. H. Lewis for state engineer, Geo. T. Cochran for superintendent of water division number one, all assembly candidates have no opposition in the primaries.
