THEY WON'T MIX.

About the worst twaddle is that of assembly candidates trying to prove that they are in favor of the direct primary, a scheme merely to get votes. They are as much opposed to it as the north pole is to the south pole, and the Portland Journal makes it plain enough in the following:

Lawyer McCamant, assemblyite, says he is for the direct primary. The fact that he is for the assembly proves that he is not. The primary law was enacted to prevent the holding of party assembly. It forbids party assemblies. The legislature refused to pass a bill legalizing assemblies by parties casting 25 per cent of the vote. Mr. McCamant knows that it so re-fused and that therefore such party assembly as he concocted, aided and abetted, are unlawful.

As evidence of his loyalty to the direct primary, Mr. McCamant says: "I always voted for the candidate of my party nominated at a direct primary." His party had no other than direct primary candidates to vote for. In the coming primary he is not going to vote for direct primary candidates of his party; he is going to vote for assembly candidates, and again for re-act primary candidates. He is him-self an assembly candidate, which is prima facie evidence that he is against the direct primary, for he cannot be for both the direct primary and the assembly, which is a deadly hostility to each other. Why even the as-sembly machine is at this moment maintaining its headquarters for the pur-pose of defeating direct primary candi-dates, a fact demonstrating its deadly enmity to the direct primary.

AGAINST THE BOSSES.

Julius Silverstone, in the Journal, signs himself "An open, notorious and continuous insurgent republican." He pleads for voters to get out on pri-mary day and do their duty and quotes scripture in his arguments against the assembly with telling effect. He charges that what troubles Chairman George is that under the old system he secured office with remarkable ease; but when he tried for the nomination under the direct primary method, he was for the first time in his life de-feated.

A High Commendation.

Rev. J. C. Elliott of this city, was surprised a few days ago by receiving a letter from Sir Henry Rose Shields, of Brixton Hill, London, S. W. Mr. Shields had been reading Mr. Elliott's book "Usury" and wrote his appreciation. Mr. Shields has himself written and published a book on the same sub-ject, "The Churches and Usury, or, The Morality of Five Per Cent." He regretted that he had not read "Usury" before he had published his book, as he might have gotten and used "Many useful hints from your larger and more comprehensive work." Mr. Elliott is naturally pleased at this appreciation of a reader of whom he had not the slightest knowledge. He believes his book has a wider reading with approval than he had hoped. What is worth re-ading and commending by an econo-mist in London is worth while to read and study at home.

An Excellent Showing of Fall Style Shoes
Ladies--Young Ladies--Childrens

The New Styles

They are mighty pretty this season—those new styles in shoes. Their beautiful outlines and shapeliness will appeal to you the moment that you see them. We believe we have never seen more dressy and beautiful shoes than are the ones we are now showing. Just as dainty as can be and their new materials give them a most distinctive appearance.

You will find some beauties with the popular dull suede top and patent or gunmetal vamp while others are shown with cloth tops of splendid quality. On some the vamps will be cut in graceful curves from the instep back and in others the straight line finds a stylish place.

For the short skirt styles which prevail just now we feature some medium high tops finished with a patent collar and tied with cord and tassel. A very stylish feature. These too you will find in button styles. The heels vary in height from 1 inch to 1 1/2 and 2 inches in the Cuban and military styles.

But to obtain the best idea of their superior beauty you need only glance in our show window where some of the choice styles are now displayed.

To enjoy them and appreciate their good fitting and comfort qualities you need only step into the shoe department and try on a few pairs.

We will enjoy fitting you. May we look for you to-morrow?

We Can Fit the Children

How you study and wonder sometimes over the prop-er fitting of shoes for the children.

We have paid particular attention this season to the needs of the children, both boys and girls, and we are sure that we can please you and them and give them all of the style, comfort and quality possible.

There are some beautiful styles in children's shoes this season. Styles that are just as dressy and distinctive as those of the ladies and we take just as much pride in presenting to you.

For the growing child the shoe must give plenty of room in order that the foot may grow properly. These foot form shoes are becoming ever more popular and you will be surprised at their dressy appearance.

The high quality too insures you of service and the prices are as low as possible for the quality offered.

Bring the children when you come and let us fit them too. We will look for them. Send them at any time. We will give them just as careful attention as if you were with them.

YOU always try to get the best for your boy; have you investigated Educators? That is the name of the famous nature shaped shoe that "let's the foot grow as it should." The broad, sensible Educator last gives room for five toes. Examine a pair of Educators and you will see how much better they are than the ordinary boy's shoes. Sizes for all ages.

Look for the brand on the sole.
