THURSDAY.
ELECTRIC EXTENSIONS.

The Northwestern Corporation has begun the work of making important extensions of the electric light system into the suburbs, entailing an expenditure of at least $10,000. One line will run from Eighth and Madison to Sherman and out the county road to the saw mill. Another will go out the west end into Albany Heights and surrounding country. Still another will go out into Sunrise, south of the depot, where a good many are wanting modern lights.

A Corn Curiosity.
A curiosity in the corn line is a stem with three heads of sweet corn raised in the garden of R. A. Bamford, in this city, a rare thing. Mr. Bamford left it at the Democrat office with enough other corn to make a mess, and another day is bridged over.

Card of Thanks.
Mrs. C. E. Fox desires to express her heartfelt thanks for the many acts of kindness and sympathy during the illness and after the death of her husband.

Claire Dawson went to Eugene this afternoon.
J. W. Fisher, of Shaniko, has been in the city to-day.

Miss Sadie Cohen has returned from a Portland trip.
T. L. Taylor, of Medford, was an Albany visitor to-day.

O. D. Austin went to the Bay this afternoon on a commercial trip.
Mrs. Robert H. Huston, of Corvallis, was an Albany visitor yesterday.

The LaGrande sugar factory will have the longest run yet this year.
Mrs. Steve Ringo of Petaluma, Calif., went to Salem after an Albany visit. Independence will now be quite a city for a few weeks. Things will hop there.

Portland's building record for August beat that of Seattle by about a million dollars and Los Angeles more.
J. R. Wyatt is reported to have resigned his position as deputy U. S. attorney to practice law privately.

W. Lair Thompson, of Lakeview, recently ill with typhoid fever, is reported much better, and now able to sit up.
Mr. Ed. Blythe and family, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Jos. H. Ralston. Mr. Blythe is an Oregonian man.

The Warren Construction Co. after completing the present Albany contract will move the plant to Lewiston, Idaho.
Among the big attractions at Eugene the coming season will be Helen Beach Yaw, May Manning and Mrs. Wigs of the Cabbage Patch.

Mr. E. U. Will, of Portland, a former Albany music dealer, has been in the city today. Mr. Will now makes a business of piano tuning.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pfeiffer will leave in a few days on an eastern trip, spending most of the time at the famous city of Milwaukee.

Miss Lottie Morgan, of the Albany schools, who has been spending the summer at the home of her folks near Plainview, was in the city today.
Some villain stole half a cord of mill end wood of a Corvallis editor the other night. There is no place on earth foul enough to imprison such a dastard.

Fred Dawson came over from the Bay last night returning for his family. Mr. Dawson says the season this year was much the best in the history of the Bay.
Junction city will have a pumpkin show Sept. 16 and 17 and will then be on the map as the pumpkin city. Well pumpkin pie is the best of all pie and is worth cutting.

Born in Chehalis, Wash., on Aug. 30 to Mr. and Mrs. G. Marvin Turner, formerly of this city, a girl, weight nine pounds, their second child. All doing well. Congratulations.
The population of North Yakima, Wash., is 14,173. The claim right along was 18,000 to 20,000. Other Washington cities have: Pasco 2083, Prosser 1289, Sunnyside 1379, Kennewick 1219.

Messrs. George, Bowerman, Hart, Littlefield and Hoyt met in Portland yesterday and talked politics. Each thought the assembly would win, or said they did. They will soon get the worst bump of their lives.
A couple of good biographies are being shown at the Empire. One of them is 'articularly good, As the Bells Rang Out, presenting some as good acting as one often sees. A new biography girl is very capable, as well as attractive.

A couple low-lived millionaires in Chicago took some chorus girls a riding and because they refused to allow them to kiss them put them out of their automobiles and made them walk back to the city. The girls had the men arrested and now there is a scandal.
A Portland paper tells of a mystery in connection with the ringing of some electric bells in the saloon of R. B. Pemery of Portland, formerly of this city. Investigation showed it to be done by rats in passing through a hole pressing against a wire.

Francis J. Henry, the prosecutor, spoke at a big meeting at Madison, Wis., yesterday in the interest of Senator La Follette, whom he declared was needed there in the interest of California as well as the east, as California is represented by two railroad senators, and the people are not represented.

Lakeview herald—Mrs. Lair Thompson, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. W. Hobbs, of Eugene, arrived home last Saturday.—L. A. Newton, of Portland, and special agent for the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co., was in town last week. Mr. Newton says he will soon have long distance phones both north and south from this point. They will work with the new company here

ALBANY DAY AT SCIO.

There was a good crowd of Albany people at the county fair at Scio yesterday, particularly after considering the transportation facilities. Most went by automobile, ten or twelve loads in all, at a cost of $2.50 the round trip. They reported a good time and a big improvement in the display over previous years. Some of the exhibits are extra, and as a whole it is decidedly worth seeing, both in stock and in the general displays of the products of the county.

The Albany people were on hand for a program but there was no chairman and only a small audience, and the Albany crowd were soon seeing the things to be seen and enjoying themselves otherwise.

The races were good ones for a half mile track, and considerable money is said to have changed hands. One woman lost $100 and would have lost more if she could have gotten any takers.

The All Linn County Band has been furnishing the music for the occasion, with D. C. Burkhardt of this city, as leader appreciated by visitors generally.

As a side attraction Miller's carnival company has been on the grounds, also furnishing daily attractions outdoors, such as balloon ascensions, slide for life, etc.

To-day is Lebanon and a special effort was being made to get a crowd there from the paper mill city.
The fair will close tomorrow and all Scio will be on hand, as well as many others.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Miss Ethel Redfield left for Lewiston Idaho, where she will again teach in the high school after a vacation of a year. The board has been insisting on her returning, and she finally signed for another year there. Lewiston has a model high school.

I. R. Shultz left for Forest Grove, to meet with the officials of the insurance company there, of which he is one of the agents. Mr. Shultz is making a business and success of insurance.

Mrs. H. H. Cornie, of Hillsboro, left for home after a visit with her son Mr. Dick Landis. Her property near Calapooia and Ninth street is being remodelled and greatly improved, a neat place.

Ligo Phillips, Corvallis' leading base ball catcher, in demand all over the N. W. went down the road.
Guy Power, the seed man, left for points north, after a short trip home.

Mrs. Frank Watson left for Lebanon by train with Mr. Watson and Mrs. Hale went out by automobile.
Mrs. W. H. Jacks and daughter Margaret went to the Bay for an outing.

Among the drummers leaving were Jack Currie and L. F. Fuller.
Fred Sanders, superintendent of the Albany Iron Works, left on a trip to Jefferson to look after a boiler. Since the retirement of John Holman, Mr. Sanders has been at the head of the operating part of the large business of the works, a very competent man.

A constable from Mill city left for home with a man named Green Hagen, charged with the delinquency of a girl, Myrtle Snyder. They were found together in an Albany hotel. Some claimed the girl was even under sixteen years of age. The case will be tried by the justice at Mill City.

How Buena Vista Lost the Capitol

Observer—Buena Vista from a historical standpoint, is one of the famous places in our state. It is commonly known that Buena Vista, like Eola, lacked only a few votes of becoming the capitol of Oregon. When the caucus was held and it was found that Buena Vista was looked upon with so much favor by the delegates, Corvallis, fearful for her own commercial supremacy, headed off her near neighbor by throwing all of her votes to Salem.

Another influence which is said to have worked against Buena Vista in the race was the site for the capitol building. Reason B. Hall, the owner of the large hill and adjoining ground near the town, wanted $30,000 for his property, not being willing to give it away. The owner of the proposed capitol site in Salem asked but $1 for his land. The result was the vote showed this free site proposition to be a winner.

Had Buena Vista won, the site would have been even more beautiful than the one now occupied by the state building. It is a large hill, sloping in every direction, and the view from there is magnificent, commanding the river, the hills beyond, and the entire surrounding valley.

Called to Scio.

A telephone message from Scio today to the sheriff requested him to go here just as soon as possible, as something terrible had happened, and with Chief of Police Munkers they started at once in an auto.
A message from the marshal of Scio late this afternoon revealed the fact that it was nothing public. He knew nothing about any trouble, but thought it was something about the racing. Some one else thought it was a blind pig running loose.

The Doctors.

The Central Willamette Medical Association will meet at Scio at 5 o'clock this afternoon and tonight will hold a public session. Drs. Ellis, Shinn and Kavanagh left in the Ellis car for here this afternoon, and will also take the fair.

A NEW NATIONALISM

At Osawatimie, Kan., famous as the home of John Brown, a cradle of liberty. Theodore Roosevelt yesterday announced his political creed, progressive republicanism. In short he is an insurgent. More short, a real democrat, for the insurgent doctrine is the democratic doctrine. He named eighteen different things:

Elimination of special interests.
Publicity of corporation affairs.
Prohibition of corporation funds for political purposes.
Government supervision of capitalization of corporations.

Personal responsibility of officers of corporations.
Increased power in the federal bureau of corporations and the interstate commerce commission.

Revision of the tariff one schedule at a time.
Graduated income and inheritance tax.
Readjustment of the financial system.

A navy and army large enough to insure the respect of other nations as a guaranty of peace.
Use of natural resources for the benefit of the people.

Extension of the work of the agricultural department.
Regulation of terms and conditions of labor, children, women and men.

Clear division of authority between the national and state governments.
Direct primaries associated with the corrupt practice act.
Publicity of campaign contributions before and after elections.

Prompt removal of unfaithful or incompetent public officials.
A provision against any service for corporations by public officials.

Back from Foley.

Eugene Guard—A Portland party that stayed at Foley Springs in spite of the danger of the forest fires which were all around them enjoyed the novelty of it when all the others had left, consisted of Blaine R. Smith, of the Western Clay Manufacturing Company, his family, Miss A. L. Dimick, principal of the Brooklyn school of Portland, and Miss Becky Sox of Albany. They were in Eugene this morning on their way home in a large Packard automobile. They tell a thrilling story of the fires which were dangerously close to them. The smoke was very thick and at night they could see the red glow on nearly all sides. They made a quick trip down in the early morning from O'Brien's, where they stopped over night and left for Portland this morning.

'The Mikado.'

Gilbert and Sullivan's famous opera, now enjoying an immensely successful revival throughout the country, as well as in New York City, will be the attraction at Albany, Wednesday, Sept. 7th, as presented by The National-Pollard Opera Company. Since these two companies—one an adult organization possessing much more than ordinary talent, the other a famous lulliputian company—combined, The National-Pollard Opera Company embraces the grown-up members of the former Pollard Opera Company, viz: Eva, Alf and Jack, who appear in the principal parts, Yum-Yum, Ko-Ko and the Mikado, respectively. A real treat is in store for all lovers of comic opera.

Ed. Shoel Getting an Immense Flock for the Fair.

Mr. Ed. Shoel, the tall superintendent of the poultry department of the state fair, in town to-day, reports prospects of the biggest display of live poultry in the history of the Pacific coast. Already there are more than a thousand entries, and this will be increased to fully twelve hundred. Mr. Shoel has been making a special effort and is being rewarded with many more entries than ever before. The hen is one of the greatest business getters in the world and deserves all the attention paid her. The state fair does well to make a specialty of this department, and it made no mistake when it placed Mr. Shoel at the head of the department.

After a Big Thing.

Every day the Democrat gets an article on the Panama Pacific exposition in San Francisco in 1915, one of the greatest boosting campaigns in the history of the country, strenuous to the bottom, because another city is after the same thing, and an appropriation of $5,000,000 by the government. In order to secure it San Francisco has to raise about $17,000,000, and it is going to do it. The race is a frightful one. The world likes a fighter, and the earthquake city is certainly it.

Won a Gold Medal.

Mrs. R. M. Rice, of Gold Hill, has been awarded a gold medal by the S.P. for the highest percentage of efficiency in service and the best kept depot. Mrs. Rice formerly resided here. The second best was the Albany depot under Agent Montgomery. Mrs. Rice has been agent at Gold Hill four years.

FRIDAY.

At Dreamland.
The Dreamland is offering an extra attractive program tonight featuring the latest in "The District Attorney's Triumph" an exciting of the American courts and prisons. "The Escaping Royalist" is another good picture, being a tale of the olden days. The Western story is entitled "A Minor's Sacrifice" with two of the educational pictures, illustrated song and travelogue slides. This makes a program which should not be missed. By special request Miss Neilson will play a pianoforte selection "The Mocking Bird."

SOME DEALS
By an Albany Real Estate Man.

J. A. Howard, the real estate man, besides doing a large general business has also turned some big dollars for himself during the past few years. He has just sold two of his places: one the Church farm of 272 acres, between Albany and Brownsville, to John Kutsch, a recent arrival from Nebraska, for $22,000. The place was owned by Mr. Howard and W. W. Green, and the increase was from $50 an acre two or three years ago, to $75 an acre. Mr. Kutsch is an experienced farmer and will devote the place to diversified business. The other was Mr. Howard's stock farm on the edge of Knox's Butte, consisting of 640 acres, for $22,500, an acre, to Mr. Percy Stearns, a brother of H. A. Stearns of the Variety Store, who recently arrived here from Iowa, and who will make a specialty of stock raising, one of the valley's best industries. Mr. Howard just about doubled his money on this place in a few years. He has retained forty acres covered with timber for a Peterson Butte nest egg.

W. F. Fortmiller, rep. filed today for coroner.
Some strawberries in Albany today, two or three crates.

The state convention of undertaker is in session in Portland.
Extra fine program at the Empire. See about it elsewhere.

Maurice Bigbee left this noon for the Independence hog fields.
Mabel and Mamie Beeson left today for an outing at Mt. Horub.

The Georgia democrats have endorsed Hoke Smith for president in 1912.
275 marriages and 36 divorces was the Portland record for August.

$89,382 is the cost of running the city government of Hoquiam a year.
Mrs. Baker and child, of Clackamas county, arrived this noon on a visit at W. S. Richards.

Mrs. Dr. Winnard, of Heppner, is visiting Albany friends after being at the Bay.
A $500 bet has been made at Medford on the Grants Pass and Western R. R. being a bluff.

The Panama exposition is to be a $50,000,000 show, perhaps the greatest ever attempted.
There were over 1500 arrests in Portland during August, half for drunkenness, and half were foreigners.

Miss Mary White arrived today from Caldwell, Idaho, to teach near Lebanon. She is the guest of Mrs. Beeson.
Mrs. M. J. Morris, of Turner, after a visit with Miss Clara Perry left this noon for Gottage Grove.

Dr. Calvin S. White, of Portland, and Dr. W. H. Lytle, state vet. of Portland, have been in the city.
Mrs. Matilda Cockerline went to Eugene yesterday on a visit with her son H. T. Cockerline.

Thomas Stacy, an experienced Eugene plumber, has accepted a position with the Metzger shop.
Miss Schack is here from the east on a visit with her sister, Miss Mathews, of the Chambers & McCune store.

John M. Stott, assistant passenger agent of the S. P. went to Newport yesterday for a two weeks' outing.
Roosevelt spoke yesterday in Kansas City to an audience of eighteen thousand. He told the people also to be fair.

C. G. Rawlings has just received the contract for 15,000 ten page colonist folders in two colors for the Southern Pacific.
Some immense ears of corn from the garden of Mrs. J. R. Metzger, are the biggest yet, and some flowers are appreciated.

Postmaster John F. Miller, of Jacksonville, has just had his first vacation for 13 years. He has been postmaster there since 1897.
Mrs. E. E. Leverich has returned from Roseburg, where she had been to attend the funeral of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Alice Leverich.

The city council of Corvallis has accepted the bid of J. A. Saucet of $110,700 for new sewers in the college hill section. One bid was as high as $153,000.
Prof. D. G. Crow, the optimistic lecturer and student, of Lebanon, has been in the city today. He expects to give a talk in Albany sometime in the future.

Buffalo Bill will show in Salem Sept. 21, and in Eugene Sept. 22, and Albany people are expected to go to one or the other places if they see it. They should stay at home.
Guelly, a Shoshone Indian, got mad this week because his mother-in-law refused to marry him and killed six other Indians before he got through, and all over a mother-in-law.

The Oregon Electric has accepted the Eugene franchise and has to build there within 90 months under a $10,000 bond, which does not also cover the Fifth street line, simply to Eugene.
C. M. Laport of near Lebanon, has sold his farm twice and bought it back twice, going elsewhere, but returning, and now proposes to stay. Each time he has had to pay a much higher price.

81 republicans and 23 democrats have filed their notice of candidacy for state and district offices. In this judicial district the democrats have only one candidate for judge. There should be another.
Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Evelyn Rhoades of this city, and Mr. Thomas W. Smith, of Oakland, Calif., at the First Presbyterian church, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 14 at 8 o'clock.

L. M. Curl has moved into his new block. One of the neatest places anywhere. The north side will be devoted to the abstract business, and the south side will be used for his legal department.
The population of New York City has been announced. It is 4,763,893, a gain of 28.7 p. c. in Greater New York. Other populations are: Jamestown, N. Y. 1,237, a gain of 26.7 per cent; Yonkers, 2,868, a gain of 66 per cent; Elmira, 3,176, a gain of only 4.2 per cent.

BACK FROM THE EAST

W. A. Eastburn, one of Albany's best boosters, returned last night from his middle eastern trip and continues to declare the Willamette Valley to be the best place in the world, and Albany the Hub. He was in Illinois, Missouri, Iowa and Kansas, besides taking a run up into Canada, where he saw wheat fields so big it would take hours to get through them, 300 miles of solid wheat and flax. In Iowa there is such a shortage of apples hardly one can be seen. At his old home in Kansas the orchards were all a mass of confusion, a mixture of old trees and other trees and bushes. Farm lands there can be gotten for $50 an acre; but in Iowa the prices range from $150 up. Fortunately is the man anchored to the Willamette Valley.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Prof. and Mrs. Chas. Bushnell, after spending the summer at the home of Mrs. Bushnell's father, Judge Hewitt, left for Appleton, Wis., where Dr. Bushnell has been elected to the chair of sociology, in Lawrence College, a position in which he will have a large latitude in specializing. This is a fine college, under the M. E. church, and Appleton is a flourishing city of 18,000, well situated.

Bob Stewart and Earl Gilbert left for Newport, from which city they will at once begin a long tramp of over forty miles to Heeketa, and up into the hills. They took along a small tent and camping outfit and will get some genuine outing experience, besides a beach walk of nearly ninety miles.

E. U. Will returned to Portland after a Newport outing of over two months. Mrs. Will went home yesterday.
Miss Maud Miller returned to Wal-lowa to resume her work in the public schools of that city. Miss Olga Post, of this county, will also be in the school.

Mrs. Earl and baby, of Portland, returned home after a visit at the home of the father of Mrs. Earl, W. A. Thrift.
W. C. Bellknapp, the horse trainer, came over from Corvallis.

W. E. Yates returned from Browns-ville.
Prof. Hargrove returned from Lebanon.
Lawyer and Capt. J. M. Williams arrived from Eugene.

Dr. M. M. Davis, the oyster king of the Yaquina, left for Newport.
Mrs. J. C. Mayer came down from Lebanon to meet her husband, who has been at the Bay.
Mrs. F. M. French and son Seth Thomas left for some more Newport outing.

Mrs. Lacey, of Portland, returned home after a visit with her sister Mrs. Eagles, and brother Sam Dolan.
A. P. Blackburn came down from Lebanon. Mr. Blackburn recently returned from his eastern trip. He was in Illinois, Missouri and Colorado. Our prices of farming land haven't begun to reach eastern prices yet. There hardly anything can be gotten for less than $150, and they know how to farm.

The Col. Has Changed.

Some one has taken the trouble to go over the files of the Salem Journal, and some former remarks are reproduced showing how the Col. has flopped all over almost everything under the sun. Now the champion of the primary law in 1904 the Journal said: "The three questions are all pernicious. The direct primary law is a subterfuge of a few Portland politicians who are aspiring to control the state through the Portland machine. Kill it, kill all the freak bills, it is a scheme to give a few republican bosses a monopoly of nominations, wipe out other political parties and destroy independent voting." The assembly papers are now using this against the candidate for governor, and the Democrat reproduces it as a news item.

A Girl's Party.

Miss Catherine Bain yesterday afternoon gave a lawn party, with a crowd of twenty or twenty-five girls present. A delightful time was had, as full of life as a young kitten. Games were played and there were two contests, plying a tail to a cat, while blind folded, and hunting cracker animals around the yard. And there were some delicious things to eat.

The Banner Yield.

Portland, Or., Sept. 2.—What is thought to be the banner yield of oats gathered anywhere in the state during the present harvest has just been threshed in Scoggins Valley, near Forest Grove, Or. T. W. Smith got 117 bushels of oats per acre from a field of 17 acres. He says the grain grew on practically raw land and creek bottoms.

At the Hotels.

Byron Wolfe, Toledo
R. D. Burgess, Gales
G. C. Pewtherer, Salem
A. L. Faulkner, Portland
A. H. Davis, Portland
Geo. A. Nelson and W. Turner,
Chas. McSnow, Portland
G. McRovolds, Sutherlin
A. D. McKinnon, Holster, Calif.
Sterling Foster, Eugene.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 77-86
The river continues at 7.4 of a foot.
Prediction: fair tonight and Saturday

George McCourt returned to Plain-view after an Albany visit. He hasn't decided what he will do after leaving the farm, recently sold.
