THIS MORNING A P. O.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

No. 16 was four hours late and No. 14 three hours late, due to a bridge being burned out in Southern Oregon.

Attorney General Crawford after spending the night in Albany went out to Lebanon on a short trip. In the primary contest in this county Mr. Crawford according to indications will beat Hart for nomination five to one, perhaps more. Regardless of the fact that Hart is the assembly candidate he is about as much qualified for the important position as a dog is to run an automobile.

A. C. Woodcock, lawyer, farmer and insurgent, arrived from Corvallis on his way to his home at Eugene. He is one of the busiest men in the valley, a man who has made a success of his business.

Frank Patterson, after a visit of a week or two with his family, left for Minnesota on a visit with his parents, when he will return to Panama by way of the Mississippi and a gulf steamer. He is interested in a business there, and besides has a government position open for him if he wishes to accept it.

Maek J. Monteith left for the Breitenbush to join Mrs. Monteith, who has been there with her father and sister for several weeks.

Ed. Hall, of the N. W. Co. arrived from Corvallis.

George Finley, the timber dealer, came down from a visit with his folks at Crawfordsville, and went to Portland.

George Simons left for Newport for a hunt and fish.
Mrs. G. B. Nicholls and daughter went to Portland, and Mrs. Nicholls mother to Seattle, on a visit.
Mrs. L. H. Fish left for Portland for a couple days visit.

J. W. Morgan, of Plainview left on a trip to Oregon City, Portland, Seattle, Everett and other Sound cities.

Al. Gordon went down to see the big Portland races.

C. L. Morris arrived from his home between Brownsville and Halsey.

I. A. Phelps after a Lebanon visit left for Gist, Crook county, to help re-establish the saw mill recently burned.

Jeff Laom left for Portland to attend the stock show and races. One of the horses of particular interest to Albany men is Maurice Winter's trotter.

T. J. Philpot arrived from Holley on county business.

Orville Monteith left for Hillsboro to spend three months with his father. He will return upon the arrival of his grandmother back from Oskaloosa, Iowa, in December.

There was an unpleasant case up before Justice Porter last evening. Adrian Moore of this city, an employee in the plumbing shop of Medin & Stuart, a native of Albany, was charged by Miss Eva Dodge, of Lebanon, who has resided in this city some, with fornication. He was held by the Justice for the circuit court under $200 bonds, which he was unable to furnish and was placed in the county jail. If the bonds are not secured he will have to remain there until the October term of court.

SUGGESTION.

By direction of the Post Office Department, the attention of the patrons of this office is invited to the advantage of providing facilities for the receipt of their mail by erecting convenient accessible boxes or cutting suitable slots in their doors. Such action would enable the postmaster to give a prompter and better delivery service with the means at his disposal, since the carriers can cover much more territory in less time if not compelled to wait for an answer to their ring. Private receptacles for mail are also a great convenience to the householder, obviating the necessity of responding to the carrier's call at inconvenient moments and permitting the safe delivery of mail in the absence of members of the household. They also prevent the occasional necessity of a carrier's proceeding on his route without delivering mail because of failure to answer his ring within a reasonable time, and enable him to make deliveries to patrons living on or near the end of the route at an earlier hour.

It has been shown by actual experience that the benefits derived by patrons of city delivery from the use of such receptacles far outway the small expense involved. As this office is interested in furnishing the best possible service at the least expense, your compliance with the foregoing suggestions will be much appreciated.

Respectfully,
J. S. VAN WINKLE, Postmaster.

Not as Bad as Reported.

Superintendent A. C. Briggs has returned from Southern Oregon, where he had been to look after his timber land holdings. He and two brothers own four quarter sections in the midst of the recent fires. He found about nine million feet of sugar pine ruined; but there is left that much of good timber, so that it is not as bad as first reported and they will have something to show for their undertakings in the timber line.

Held Under $200 Bonds.

THE MIKADO

TONIGHT

Gilbert and Sullivan's famous comic opera, will be presented at the opera house tonight, with Eva Pollard as Yum Yum, Alfred Pollard as Ko-Ko, Jack Pollard as the Mikado, and the entire National Opera Company, principals and chorus, in the cast. "The Mikado" is one of the most popular comic operas that has ever been sung by a light opera company, and the rendition the National-Pollard Opera Company gives it is certainly on an equality with the best ever seen by a traveling company and fully equal to the very best metropolitan production the opera has received during its revival in New York. The catchy airs and whistley tunes in "The Mikado," together with the splendid comedy action of the opera, has made the revival quite as popular with the masses as the original production, twenty years ago.
