SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Linn. Department No. 2. Charles H. Wiltsey, plaintiff, vs. Teckla Wiltsey, defendant.

To Teckla Wiltsey, the above named defendant: In the name of the State of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff, above named on file with the clerk of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause, on or before the 14th day of October, A. D. 1910, the same being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication hereof; and you are hereby notified, that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as herein required, said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for and demanded in his said complaint, viz: for a decree of divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further order as to the court may seem meet and according to equity.

The time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons is once a week for six weeks, successively, and the date of said order for service hereof by publication is August 26th, 1910, and the date of the first publication hereof is September 2nd, 1910.

F. E. VAN TASSEL, and J. C. CHRISTY, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

CASITORIA. See the Signature of Charles H. Wiltsey.

STREET CAR EXTENSION.

Without any warning, soon after the arrival of A. Welch, of the Portland, Eugene and Eastern R. R., at this city from Portland a gang of six men went to work at Calapooia and Second street, all who could be secured, on the extension of the road from Calapooia and First, to at least the Hazlewood addition. More will be put to work as fast as possible. Some material left over at Eugene, after the completion of the loop has been brought here, and more will follow. Mr. Baker, traveling track man, arrived this afternoon from Eugene to take charge of the work. Under the franchise the road will run to Seventh and thence out to the Masonic cemetery, turning there along the county road southward.

In view of the announcement that the Hazlewood addition is to be boomed this is of special interest, meaning much for that part of the city's suburbs. The owners and others of the Hazlewood section recently raised quite a bonus towards the work.

J. E. Knox is here from Portland on a business trip. Mr. Hargrave returned to Portland this morning.

Mrs. John Clelan and grandchildren returned to day from the Bay. Ask Effie, She Knows, was in the city this noon with her husband, on their way to Corvallis.

The funeral of the late Frank Trites was held at 10 a. m. today at the Christian church, attended by a large number of friends.

Walt Mason, the prose poet, whose writings appear in many of the papers, committed suicide recently, on account of poor health. What's fame without health.

The S. P. takes both freight and baggage to the fair grounds, and has been doing so, notwithstanding a contrary report given the Democrat recently.

Col. Roosevelt has returned to Oyster Bay, and will rest in his usual way. He made many speeches and stirred things up a little more than any one during the past generation.

Mrs. J. L. Howard and family desire to express their sincere thanks for sympathy and many acts of kindness during the illness and after the death of their beloved husband and father.

Mrs. E. L. Williams of near Albany, has just returned from Portland where she has been for a month at the St. Vincent hospital. She is recovering from a very serious operation and is doing nicely.

E. J. Winans, a graduate of Willamette University, recently of Oxford, has been elected to the chair of Bible of Pekin, China, University, and will go there to teach. He formerly resided at Salem, a very bright young man.

Journalist—Mr. L. Elbert Warford, of Albany, who has had charge of the admission department of the Portland Livestock Exposition, arrived in Salem this morning, and will take charge of the admission gates at the fair grounds Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Young, of Spokane, are visiting at the home of E. H. Rhodes, having come to attend the Smith-Rhodes wedding Wednesday evening. Mrs. Young was formerly Miss Bessie Rhodes.

Maine is to have an election today, the principal contest being for governor. On account of the extravagant administration of the present governor the democrats hope to seat Frederick Plaisted, the present mayor of Augusta.

B. F. Mulkey is running an advertisement which reads: "Insurgent candidate for republican nomination for congress. Anti-Assembly. Anti-Cannon. And is progressive. Will work for direct election of United States senator."

Prineville Review:—The redoubtable Col. E. Hofer, insurgent candidate for governor, spoke to a fair sized crowd yesterday evening from the hurricane deck of his automobile and made a good impression. The colonel is stumping the state.

William Bell of Racine, Wis., is in the city on a visit with J. E. Hulbert, of the Hulbert-Ohling stock. Mr. Bell was elected county clerk in 1910, at the same time Mr. Hulbert was elected clerk of the court, and served eight years, Mr. Hulbert six.

Paul Costel, of Ashland, was in the city today, while on his way to Salem to attend the fair. He is now working in a machine shop at Ashland. When last in Albany he was a member of the famous Ringling circus band, an expert musician.

Robert Stewart and Earl Gilbert returned Saturday evening from their trip to the Yachats. On account of heavy rain they did not go up into the hills as they had anticipated. While they did not get any whales or mountain lions they had a good time.

Rev. Gesebracht arrived home Saturday evening and preached there yesterday. He has been offered a professorship in the state university at Iowa City, and this week it will be known whether he will go there or not. Albany people generally hope to see him remain here.

Miss Lucille Hart has returned from a visit with Miss Evah Cushman, at Acme, on the Siuslaw, over towards the Pacific, where she had a delightful time for several weeks. Miss Cushman will return to Albany in time for the fall term of the college, now a junior.

There was a large attendance yesterday at the funeral of J. L. Howard, Rev. Jones, of Brownsville, preacher, and the sermon. It is a striking fact that every member of the large family was and is a church member. The floral gifts were many, expressions of appreciation of the worthy life lived.

The O. A. C. will begin next year's work with 21 new professors and four new buildings. A number of prominent O. A. C. students have been given places. F. E. Ewert in electrical engineering, F. R. Brown and R. W. Rees in agriculture, P. E. Pernot in electrical engineering, F. E. Rowland chemistry and Bertha E. Hesse in the library.

STATE FAIR HAS BEGUN.

The state fair began today with prospects of the best in the history of the fair, a fact, not a fancy. The exhibit space has been taken to the limit, also the camping space, new buildings have been added, and everything possible has been done to make it a hummer.

Monday, opening day.—Band concert at 10 a. m. Races, two year old Oregon futurity, 2:12 pace for capital city purse, 2:25 trot. Address tonight by Prof. A. B. Cordley and concert, with moving pictures.

Tuesday, German day, with an elaborate program, and Germans from all over Oregon there.

Wednesday, Salem day. Thursday, Portland day, with the fastest races of the week. Friday, Oregon Agricultural College day.

Saturday, children's day. Races, everyday with the best horses on the coast entered, and an address and concert every night.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

A number went to Salem to see the fair get a start: Mr. and Mrs. Mel Dawson to camp out. Mr. Dawson was down and located his tent last Saturday. Albert Tozier, mayor of the tented city, remembered exactly where he was located the last time, as well as every one else of the former tenters.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Hodges, W. A. Ledbetter with his nursery book, Mrs. Worth Huston and daughter, Mr. Carl Huston, F. G. Will, Harry Schlosser, Bert Lupper, F. P. Devaney and others, were in the crowd.

Prof. J. B. Horner, of the O. A. C., left for the fair today, and Wednesday will go to Portland, where he will deliver a lecture in the evening.

Hugh Kirkpatrick, of Lebanon, went to the fair with a good supply of Cascadia mineral water, which he will introduce during the fair. It is one of the most palatable waters on the coast, as well as a healthful beverage and there ought to be a demand for it.

Mr. Thomas Wylie Smith arrived from Oakland, Calif., to take part in an interesting event Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church.

Miss Marcus, the evangelist, and Miss Doris McClain returned from Lebanon, where they attended the Taylor meetings. Miss Marcus will return and assist in the meetings the coming month. A good start has been made.

Mrs. A. Bowers and son went to Portland for a few days visit. Eh Keebler and Ote Keebler and family of Lebanon, left for Alberta on a few weeks visit.

Rev. P. A. Moses returned to Corvallis after a tangent visit. Budge Stewart went down to Jefferson to help on the new bridge.

Rev. Jones of Brownsville, returned home. He preached at the M. E. church twice yesterday, besides conducting the funeral sermon of J. L. Howard in the afternoon.

Miss Nancy Ralston, of the treasurer's office, returned from a Halsey visit. Mart Bilyeu returned from an over-Sunday visit at Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. Stetter, Mrs. Coon and Mrs. Shea returned from a Sunday visit at Lebanon.

M. S. Woodcock, Corvallis' wealthiest citizen, went northward. W. W. Bailey arrived from Brownsville.

Len Killick, manager of Dreamland, went to Portland after some parts for a new machine for Dreamland. He is making things go at Dreamland in a live manner.

Will Be Built Next Spring.

The project of erecting a modern church at the site of the Presbyterian church will be pushed the coming winter, by completing the subscription for it, and the church will be erected in the spring. Already a good start has been made, and the completion of the work is assured. The plans show one of the finest structures in the valley, a building that will be an ornament to the city.

An Old Key.

Thos. Humphrey, the mail clerk on the Detroit run, has the distinction of carrying right along one of the oldest mail pouch keys in the United States, being number 4 out of about 250,000 of them issued. It was carried for many years by his predecessor on this run, Mr. Skinner, who was a veteran in the mail service.

Gov. Benson may be home by Sept. 19. He is wanted politically. Bert Smith, a horse race driver fell off the cars the other side of Salem and was killed.

Rev. H. W. Davis, the new pastor of the Baptist church at Eugene has arrived to take up the work.

Few people know that Col. Roosevelt is the author of twenty volumes, a part of his indefatigable career.

Barney Oldfield made a mile on a circular track at St. Paul yesterday in 42.25 seconds, a new record.

45,000 people attended the live stock show and races at Portland last week, making it a financial success.

MARRIED.

Hornback-McDowell.—On Sunday, Sept. 11, at the new home of the bride and groom, in Sunrise, Mr. Ernest Hornback and Miss Lulu Fay McDowell Rev. S. A. Douglas officiating. The wedding was private. They began keeping house at once in the new and elegant bungalow, just completed. The groom is a member of the firm of Newport & Hornback, one of Albany's best young business men and the bride is a beautiful young lady. May the sun never set on their happiness and prosperity.

Eastern Capitalist Acquires Hazelwood Addition.

Mr. Sterling Foster, a capitalist from the east, but who has been a resident of Eugene for the past year, has, we understand, secured all of the unsold portion of Hazelwood addition to the city of Albany, consisting of about one hundred and forty lots, and will in all probability make Albany his home. It is rumored that a syndicate, who owns valuable timber interests up the C. & E. R. R., and above Lebanon and Brownsville have lately been negotiating for the purchase of the ground and lake lying between the fair grounds race track and the Calapooia for the purpose of building a saw-mill, so as to have their own trackage from the mill to the Lebanon switch.

Work commenced this morning on the extension of the present city electric line southward on Calapooia street and it is supposed that it will be extended as far as Hazelwood in the near future.

This line is the property of the P. E. & E. electric line, building from Portland to Eugene. The Oregon Electric survey passes through this section of Albany and it is supposed that active work will soon commence on the construction of this line, thereby making this section of Albany the most desirable location to purchase either for a residence or as an investment.

Colts Won Again.

The Albany Colts added another game to their long string of victories for the season, defeating the strong O. R. & N. team of Portland 5 to 1, outplaying the Portlanders at about every point. Salsbury pitched a strong game for Albany, well caught by Gleason, and Sullivan and Myers were the battery for Portland. The Colts are strong at the bat, a fact that has materially helped them, but they also field. Harry Shea umpired the game.

Sam Simpson's Poems.

Sam Simpson's poems have just been issued in a volume that deserves to be in every library, small and big, in Oregon. None have been received in Albany yet, but will be in a few days. Simpson was a poet far more than average genius. Some always connect him with the Ad Willamettam poem, with its beautiful rhythm, a masterpiece; but he produced many others, covering a wide range of thought, it is said will surprise many.

At the Hotels.

Mrs. M. E. Stubbs, Stockton, Calif. L. J. Barber & wf, Portland. J. N. Pearey & wf, Portland. Austin Lofferty, Corvallis.

W. A. Shewman, Oregon City. Joe Wharton & wf, Grants Pass. W. J. Russell, Grants Pass. O. L. Holm & wf, Portland.

C. N. Brown & wf, Porterville. R. B. Rice, Portland. A. F. Prael & wf, G. W. Sanborn & wf, Guy Saurborn, Astoria.

W. H. Creswell, Medford. F. D. Hood, Blanchard City. Jesse W. Moore, Harrisburg.

A Famous Crowd.

Distinguished men on the register of the Hotel Revere yesterday were P. H. McCarthy, the mayor of San Francisco, hustling for a wide open city, that is a disgrace to the country; Abe Rueff and A. Schmitz, the noted grafters, Claus Spreckles, who helped to convict them, Burns the detective who did great work in getting evidence, and F. J. Heney, the prosecutor, now in the east, who represented the government, a crowd who would not be found together any where this side of hades.

A New Crook Co. Town.

Metoles is a new town over the hills, a popular name among the old time fishermen of Linn and Crook counties. It is 6 miles south of Madras, exactly east of Albany, and it is said will be the first division point on the Oregon Truck line, with the shops there. A 677 foot well has been dug, with good water appearing. There are 200 acres in the town, and it is laid out with 60 foot streets and several small parks.

The Weather.

The range of temperature was from 53, the warmest Sunday, to 47, early this morning, followed by fine weather this afternoon, warm and agreeable. The river is down to .6 of a foot. Prediction: fair tonight and Tuesday, one very pleasing to the state fair people. Good weather will mean a record attendance.

Opened a Flour and Feed Store.

Bishop Moore, who recently returned from a trip east, has opened a flour and feed store at the corner of 2nd and Jackson streets, under the name of the Missouri Feed Store, a familiar name at that corner. Mr. Moore is a better satisfied than ever with Albany and its surroundings. He is a reliable business man and may be repeatedly mentioned.

TUESDAY. BUSY

With Some of the Results.

A new enterprise nearing completion, of a good deal of importance to the future of the city, is the cleaning plant of the Albany Sand & Gravel Co. on water street between Broadalbin and Elsworth. The dredge and scow have been completed for some time, and recently a force of men have been building a wharf, driving piles for it, the groundwork of a platform for operation. It takes an extensive plant, but the output will be inexhaustive, and will create a demand for clean gravel and sand outside of Albany.

The floor of the new automobile garage of Barrett Bros. was completed last night and the office and workshop are being put in. The cement floor is the largest in the city, 13,500 square feet of cement, put down by E. L. Umphrey and crew. The place is to be used exclusively for automobiles, well situated for the business.

A crew of painters of the Foster & Kleiser Co. are in the city putting some bright colors around with lettering appropriate to the place.

The new Schmitt block corner is one of the busiest places in the city. The contractors are pushing the work in a manner to speak for their competency.

The new heating plant of the Central building was completed today and at once given a thorough test in the presence of the directors, working satisfactorily. It is a good one, a strong feature being the ventilation, which furnishes a complete change of air every seven minutes.

To High School Students.

Principal E. P. Bradley, will be in his office at the high school building from 10 to 12 a. m., Friday and Saturday of this week to meet those who are to enter the high school for the first time, or wish assistance in making choice of studies. New students who come from other schools should present their credentials and avoid the rash of the opening week.

The high school will open next Monday for enrollment. Receptions will begin Tuesday morning. As far as possible let all be ready the first day.

Johnny Merrill returned this noon from a Portland visit.

Jan. Elkins jr., arrived this noon from his homestead at Big Elk. S. N. Steele arrived from Portland this noon on a short Albany business trip.

Dr. Lowe, the well-known optician and optometrist, will be in Albany Friday and Saturday, Sept. 23 and 24. Charles Duncan Monteith was in Salem this forenoon. Thursday or Friday he will leave for Cornell University to resume his work.

A purse was lost in this city containing about $12.50. The finder will confer a favor by returning it to the Democrat office or telephone.

T. J. Edwards, a former Linn county man, who has been residing at La Grande is preparing to return to the Willamette Valley to reside.

$57,000 of gold bullion has been stolen while in transit from Alaska out by steamer, and who got it is beyond the comprehension of the detectives.

Prof. Bradley, of the high school will be glad to meet all students, expecting to do high school work, at the new building, Thursday and Friday, 10 to 12 o'clock.

J. L. Green deputy game warden, arrived this from Salem, where he spent several days securing the conviction of four men for running deer with dogs in the Elkhorn country. All were fined.

The warmest weather in Lakeview during August was 80 above and the coldest 44 above. On four days there was no variance, on seven days only 1 or 2 degrees, the most on any day being 10 degrees.

O. M. Barton and family will leave tomorrow for Puyallup, Wash., to make their home, excellent people who will be missed. Superintendent Briggs will occupy their residence, next block to the high school.

Mrs. Ross, of Chicago, stopped off this noon on a short visit with Mrs. Craft, while on her way home. They became acquainted at the Bay during their summer outings.

Mrs. Fiuella Turner and mother went to Portland yesterday, the latter continuing her trip to her home in the east after spending the summer with her daughter. Mrs. Beryl Turner Marks joined them this morning for a day in Portland with them.

Why be bothered with 2 pairs of glasses? Have Dr. Lowe show you the new glasses with no line to catch dust or cement to come apart with which you can see all distances. He will be in Lebanon Sept. 21 and 22, Albany 23 and 24.

Willis R. Donniway, state printer, is ill at his home, and unable to get out over the state. He doesn't need to secure the nomination. The anti-assembly people will attend to that. The indications are that he will carry this county over Clark two or three to one.

Nellie Richards has brought suit for divorce against her husband, Edward Richards, at Eugene, on the grounds that he is a Holy Roller and does crazy things, performing rites when naked and wanted her to do likewise, and because she would not take her clothes and threw them in the fire, yelling "go devils." He should also be sent to the asylum.

Dr. T. B. Ford, now of Pendleton, charges, Rev. Easter, who exchanged pulpits with him two years ago, who is on his way to Oklahoma, with numerous things, cheating, lying, etc., three more different names. Rev. Hubbard is also accused of being a liar and dominionist. These church affairs are far-reaching, both in Oregon and generally childish and unprofitable.

PAMPHLETS

That Tell the Story of a Coming Election.

The Democrat has received two pamphlets from Salem: One is headed: A pamphlet containing a copy of all measures referred to the people of the legislative assembly, referendum ordered by petition of the people and proposed by initiative petition, to be submitted to the legal voters of the state of Oregon for their approval or rejection at the regular general election, to be held on the 8th day of November, 1910, together with the arguments filed, favoring and opposing certain of the measures. Compiled and issued by Frank W. Benson, secretary of state. Publication authorized under chapter 226, laws of 1907. There are 208 pages required to cover the different bills.

The other is a pamphlet containing cuts and statements of democratic candidates who have duly filed their petitions, etc., to be submitted to the democrat voters at the primary nominating election on Sept. 24, together with the arguments, etc. The only cut and argument are those of Jefferson Myers for governor, presented by R. D. Inman, et al.

Another is a pamphlet containing cuts and statements of democratic candidates who have duly filed their petitions, etc., to be submitted to the democrat voters at the primary nominating election on Sept. 24, together with the arguments, etc. The only cut and argument are those of Jefferson Myers for governor, presented by R. D. Inman, et al.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

A large crowd left for the state fair from Albany and adjoining towns: The Dutch were well represented, for this is German day at the fair. Among the Albany Germans were Henry Broderick, Harry Suesens, John Schlosser and Henry Oberg, Wm. Ehlert of Lebanon joined the crowd.

Councilman Taylor went down to see the show, and from Lebanon were Misses Crawford and Reed, Harvey Loveall and others.

Rev. Esson, of this city, and Rev. Berry of Southern Oregon, went to Portland to attend a session of the state board of their church to convene there this week.

The remains of Jas. G. Robertson were shipped through from Snohomish to Gates, up the C. & E. for burial, in charge of Robert Robertson. He was killed by the cars in an accident at Snohomish.

Miss Edith E. Neilson, the accomplished pianist and singer, who has been at Dreamland a month or two, left for Portland, where she has an engagement. She may return later.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brennemann left for their home in Nebraska, after a visit with their son, M. Brennemann and family of Wright's Addition.

Rev. Mochel left for Woodburn, where his family have been visiting, their former home.

Clairbel Seeley went to Salem for a visit with relatives and to attend the fair.

MARRIED.

Simon—Crooks.—At the home of the bride's brother Mr. John Crooks, of Toledo, Sunday, Sept. 11, 1910, in the presence of a few friends and relatives Mr. George Simon, worthy resident of Albany, and Miss Josie Crooks, highly esteemed of the same place, Rev. C. R. Ellsworth officiating.

After an artistic and dainty dinner had been served, with the very best wishes for a happy married life, the happy pair left on the evening train for Albany, where they intend to make their future home.

Returned to Kansas.

Mrs. A. K. Curtis and children left yesterday, and Mr. Curtis this afternoon, for their former home at Garden City, Kan., to resume their residence. Rector Curtis will leave tonight with their car load of goods. They liked Albany, its people and climate, but Mr. Curtis has large holdings there that require his attention, over 1400 acres in all, about 1200 acres being some of the famous alfalfa land, worth $100 an acre. They made many warm friends in Albany, who will hope for their return later. Mr. Curtis sold his home property here to his neighbor, W. A. Eastburn, and another lot to some one else.

Hit by a Train.

Cline Porter, son of J. C. Porter, had a close call yesterday north of Albany a few miles. He was driving and attempted to cross the Southern Pacific track, when the horses balked. Just then a passenger train came along, and struck the team, or rather the horse nearest the train, killing the first horse, and throwing the other back. The harness was all torn off the killed horse but the collar. It was a close call for young Porter.

About Albany People.

Seattle, Sept. 12.—Whitworth College Tacoma, opens Tuesday Sept. 13, with Kate E. Lee, formerly of Albany, as assistant teacher of English, and Bertha F. Lee, entering as freshman in the college.

Dr. C. J. Bushnell and wife made Seattle a pleasant call last week en route to their new home in Wisconsin.

Mrs. C. C. Parker and daughter Haddie, made a Seattle visit last Friday en route to their old home in Missouri.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 80-52. The river continues at .6 of a foot. Prediction: Showers tonight and Wednesday.
