

Physician and Surgeon Albany Oregon

W. F. JONES Veterinary Surgeon

NOW IS THE TIME FOR THE BEST

Advertisement for dental services including fillings, extractions, and dentures.

Wise Dental Co. Painless Dentists

SWAIN'S BACKACHE AND KIDNEY PILLS

For kidney and bladder troubles, sciatica, rheumatic pains, neuralgia, headache, weariness and sleeplessness.

EXPULSIVE THE POISON MAKE LIFE A JOY

Acting directly on the kidneys these mild pills give almost instant relief.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR SWAIN'S PILLS

So marvelous and universal are the results obtained that these pills are fully guaranteed.

SWAIN MEDICINE CO., INC. Kansas City, Mo.

FOR SALE BY NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT OF ADMINISTRATRIX

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed by the county judge of Linn county, Oregon, as administratrix of the estate of C. E. Fox.

PERCY R. KELLY, Atty for Admr. NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of the estate of John Barton, deceased, has this day filed in the County Court of Linn county, Oregon, his final account.

J. W. BARTON, Admr. HEWITT & SOX, Atty. for Admr.

At the stock show at Portland this week Ed. Schoel and W. B. Davis have swept the field on Chester Whites.

The Warren Construction Co. has begun paving seven blocks at Cottage Grove.

The members of the Epworth League last evening at the parsonage held a Looking Backward social.

A Portland physician accuses other Portland physicians of many criminal operations.

Eugene Register:—W. L. Gilham (lineman for the S. P. Co.), has been ordered to transfer his headquarters from Eugene to Albany.

Rev. Arthur A. Haudeicher, of St. Louis has just been sentenced to the penitentiary for stealing $18.10 in money and seventeen watches from his fellow theological students.

There is something doing over at the Independence hop yards.

One of the new teachers in the Roseburg schools is the coming year will be Miss Vera Horner, daughter of Prof. B. Horner, of the O. A. C. She was born in Roseburg and is a graduate of the Corvallis high school.

One of the U. O. young ladies of splendid character and attainments.

A POWER FRANCHISE GRANTED

The county court this morning granted a franchise to the Tri-State Railway and Power Co. for an electric power line from Eugene to Albany.

The Weather. Range of temperature 76-44. The River 7 of a foot.

Lawyer A. C. Condit came up from Salem this noon.

R. R. McKinney, of Holley, returned today from Portland.

Frank Burn, a one handed hop-picker at Eugene picks seven boxes a day.

Mrs. W. R. Struble returned last night from Seaview, much improved.

Dr. and Mrs. Blake, of Ashland returned this noon from a Newport outing.

Lafallett, the insurgent is now about fifty thousand ahead in Wisconsin.

H. A. Lake and family left this afternoon for Paxton, Neb. on a four week's visit with relatives.

J. M. Williams, of Eugene left this week for Atlanta, Ga., to attend the supreme lodge of Odd Fellows.

Superintendent Briggs left this afternoon for Cottage Grove after his family. They will reside at Catawpa and 4th streets.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. C. Brasfield, of Shedd, left this afternoon on an eastern trip.

John D. Roseclair was hanged to-day at Salem at 12:30 o'clock, as a just punishment for killing his wife several months ago.

The Portland, Eugene and Eastern R. R. has asked a franchise in Corvallis, and promises to begin work there within six months.

J. H. Mears, of Shedd, was in the city to-day. To-morrow he and Mrs. Mears will leave for the east on a visit at their old home.

Mrs. Tweedale and brother J. C. Little, of Sacramento, returned last night from a Portland trip.

Wilson Peery, a prominent high school student for several years, left today with his mother for Corvallis, where he will enter the O. A. C.

E. E. Parrish has sold 45 acres of his farm near this city to F. R. Cottage, recently here from the east, the consideration being $2800.

J. C. Hammell, of the Hotel Revere, has returned from his hop field, near Corvallis, where he has been looking after picking for a couple weeks.

One woman threw some acid on another woman at Eugene yesterday. It was partly washed off and only a little went into the face of the victim.

The Charles Gray farm, seven miles from Springfield, was sold this week to two California men at $200 an acre.

George Colton, a member of the celebrated boy's city council, of Portland, is in the city on a few days visit, the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. George.

Miss Anna Farrell, after spending the summer at the home of her folks in this city, left today for Harrison, Idaho, where she will teach the coming year.

At the stock show at Portland this week Ed. Schoel and W. B. Davis have swept the field on Chester Whites.

The Warren Construction Co. has begun paving seven blocks at Cottage Grove.

The members of the Epworth League last evening at the parsonage held a Looking Backward social.

A Portland physician accuses other Portland physicians of many criminal operations.

Eugene Register:—W. L. Gilham (lineman for the S. P. Co.), has been ordered to transfer his headquarters from Eugene to Albany.

Rev. Arthur A. Haudeicher, of St. Louis has just been sentenced to the penitentiary for stealing $18.10 in money and seventeen watches from his fellow theological students.

There is something doing over at the Independence hop yards.

One of the new teachers in the Roseburg schools is the coming year will be Miss Vera Horner, daughter of Prof. B. Horner, of the O. A. C. She was born in Roseburg and is a graduate of the Corvallis high school.

One of the U. O. young ladies of splendid character and attainments.

A pamphlet of 17 pages containing the address of James J. Hill at the National Conservation Congress at St. Paul, Minn., yesterday, sent out from that city.

A post card from New Orleans, which begins: By constitutional amendment the state of Louisiana two years ago perpetually freed from all taxation all monies invested or which may be invested in paper secured by real estate.

A magazine section containing the address of Henry M. Byllesby, the head of the Northwestern Corporation that owns the Albany water and light plant.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Dr. J. L. Hill, Miss Cassie Thompson and Mrs. Georgia Hobbs left for Sherwood. Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Thompson went yesterday.

A number of people left for Portland to attend the stock show and races, among them P. C. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hogan and M. McAlpin.

Fifteen or twenty Albany Elks left for Toledo to attend the Lincoln county fair and pay the bunch of Elks there a fraternal visit.

Senator Miller came down from Lebanon and went to Salem. He will make an issue of the coming election.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pfeiffer left on their eastern trip. They will go directly to Chicago, where Mr. Pfeiffer will stop, going to Milwaukee, while Mrs. Pfeiffer goes further east for a visit with relatives.

Hon. S. M. Pennington and daughter Mrs. Alice P. Richards left on a visit with relatives at Industry, Ill., not a son as stated by the Democrat, but another Pennington of the same name.

Dr. Star came down from Brownsville. Miss Belle Chance of the Portland schools, returned home accompanied by her father.

Mrs. W. B. Chance and children went to Crawfordville for a visit. John Giblin left on a Bay trip.

Rev. Knott went to Marion county. Mrs. Tom Riley came over from Corvallis.

Senator A. J. Johnson, of Corvallis, passed through for Portland. Mrs. C. P. Bishop, of Salem, returned home after an Albany visit.

Miss Cecil Knox left for Mitchell South Dakota on a visit with her aunt.

The Pacific Tel. and Tel. Co. will issue a new directory October 1st, being the third this year.

B. C. Flagg died at 2:30 o'clock this morning at his home in this city at the age of 78 years.

The funeral will be held at the M. E. Church tomorrow at 2 p. m.

At the Hotels. W. W. Chesman, Eugene. O. M. Washburn, Coburg.

C. E. Ruch, Gresham. Mrs. J. R. Wyatt, Portland. G. E. Crowell, Eugene.

W. H. Sherman, Jefferson. C. W. Henry, Roseburg. E. M. Endicott, Joseph. L. M. Reeder, Salem.

Bud Kribs, Portland.

The Oregon System is Capturing the Country

Manager Struble recently wrote Senator Bourne complimenting him upon the work he had done for Oregon.

The most effective "boosting" I have ever done for Oregon was the delivery of my address in the Senate on May 6th, last, when I declared that Oregon has evolved, and demonstrated the best system of popular government in the world.

I believe that popular government, as demonstrated in Oregon, has done more than any other one thing to advertise this State throughout the Union.

Three or four Eugene men came down on the train this morning, shortly afterwards buying an Oregonian and reading the morning news.

Some Eugene Men.

Miss Emma B. Crosno, of the Empire, returned this noon from a Portland trip. Mrs. H. A. Loveall and baby, of Lebanon are visiting at the home of W. A. Cox.

Adrian Moore secured $200 bail yesterday and was released from the county jail.

W. D. Washburn has begun the erection of a new residence at Third and Main streets.

Miss Marcus, the evangelistic worker, has been in the city on a visit with Albany friends.

Dr. R. E. Watkins, of Butte, Mon., is in the city on a visit with his mother Mrs. Dr. Shinn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Williams, and daughter returned last night from Newport, where they had been for a week.

Mrs. M. M. Newton and daughter recent arrivals from Dakota, have rooms at the Congregational parsonage.

The Lebanon Criterion endorses all of the assembly nominees but Hart, declaring for Crawford for attorney general.

Girl wanted at the Crest Confectionery for housework and to assist in the store. Good wages and steady work for right party.

Miss Myrtle Pease, of the boys and boy's home of Portland, is in the city this afternoon. Tonight she will go to Medford on a trip for the home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Stoddard, residents of Albany for several months, left this afternoon on a Roseburg visit after which they will go to Sandiego, to spend the winter and reside.

The Corvallis and Eastern went through the form of its annual election in this city, elected J. P. O'Brien president, J. K. Weatherford vice president, and H. E. Wilson secretary.

F. J. Devine twelve days ago went to Astoria and his friends of the Elks are getting concerned about him.

The fire bell rang last evening at 5:40 caused by some rags at the home of E. J. Seeley catching fire and blazing up in a live manner.

The Democrat mentioned a young man being arrested recently for being drunk and disorderly and fined, named Seeks, from Lebanon.

Chas. Cooney, the tailor, and H. M. Grant, of Portland arrived this noon on a short Albany business trip.

The California legislature has appropriated $10,000,000 for the Panama exposition San Francisco and her citizens will furnish another $7,500,000.

Who is the fastest runner in Albany. Last evening on the college grounds Charles Anderson beat Hi Torbet at 50, 75 and 100 yards.

Rev. A. W. Moses, of Corvallis, was in the city to-day to attend the funeral of Mrs. Mary Beard Wilson, going this afternoon to Tangent.

The pictures entitled "The Usurer" will be shown tonight for the last time at Dreamland.

The picture entitled "The Usurer" will be shown tonight for the last time at Dreamland.

County Candidates

Time for filing announcements of candidates for county offices closes tonight.

Republican:—State Senator.—Park B. Beatty, Halsey.

Representative.—Everett L. Jones, Albany. Sheriff.—Sol Lindley, Lebanon; A. M. Templeton, Brownsville.

Clerk.—W. L. Marks, Albany; P. R. Conn, Albany. Recorder.—Grant Froman, Albany; Martin F. Wood, Tangent.

Treasurer.—W. W. Francis, Albany; C. Scott Tangent. Commissioner.—O. H. Russell, Sweet Home.

Coroner.—W. F. Fortmiller, Albany. Justice.—O. T. Porter, dist. 1, Milton J. Knerr, dist. 14 1/2; E. G. Margason, dist. 8.

Constable.—John Catlin, dist. 2; Chas. A. Osburn, dist. 12. Committeemen.—F. H. Weber, N. Brownville; R. K. Ohling, West Albany; L. M. Curl, East Albany; J. H. Turpin, Waterloo; J. C. Hardin, LaCombe; Chas. A. Warner, North Scio.

Democratic:—State Senator.—M. A. Miller, Lebanon. Treasurer.—W. A. Kinsey, Albany. Commissioner.—C. H. Ellswick, Brownsville.

Justices.—J. N. Bilyeu, dist. 12. Committeeman.—C. W. Cruson, S. Lebanon.

Friday. Miss Emma B. Crosno, of the Empire, returned this noon from a Portland trip.

Adrian Moore secured $200 bail yesterday and was released from the county jail.

W. D. Washburn has begun the erection of a new residence at Third and Main streets.

Miss Marcus, the evangelistic worker, has been in the city on a visit with Albany friends.

Dr. R. E. Watkins, of Butte, Mon., is in the city on a visit with his mother Mrs. Dr. Shinn and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Williams, and daughter returned last night from Newport, where they had been for a week.

Mrs. M. M. Newton and daughter recent arrivals from Dakota, have rooms at the Congregational parsonage.

The Lebanon Criterion endorses all of the assembly nominees but Hart, declaring for Crawford for attorney general.

Girl wanted at the Crest Confectionery for housework and to assist in the store. Good wages and steady work for right party.

Miss Myrtle Pease, of the boys and boy's home of Portland, is in the city this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Stoddard, residents of Albany for several months, left this afternoon on a Roseburg visit after which they will go to Sandiego, to spend the winter and reside.

The Corvallis and Eastern went through the form of its annual election in this city, elected J. P. O'Brien president, J. K. Weatherford vice president, and H. E. Wilson secretary.

F. J. Devine twelve days ago went to Astoria and his friends of the Elks are getting concerned about him.

The fire bell rang last evening at 5:40 caused by some rags at the home of E. J. Seeley catching fire and blazing up in a live manner.

The Democrat mentioned a young man being arrested recently for being drunk and disorderly and fined, named Seeks, from Lebanon.

Chas. Cooney, the tailor, and H. M. Grant, of Portland arrived this noon on a short Albany business trip.

The California legislature has appropriated $10,000,000 for the Panama exposition San Francisco and her citizens will furnish another $7,500,000.

Who is the fastest runner in Albany. Last evening on the college grounds Charles Anderson beat Hi Torbet at 50, 75 and 100 yards.

Death of J. L. Howard

J. L. Howard died at his home in this city this morning of paralysis.

He was born in Haywood Co., Tenn., May 12th, 1838, residing there until 1852, when with his father's family he moved to Iowa City, Iowa.

He was a kind father and devoted husband, giving his entire life for the comfort of his family and a devoted Christian, being a member of the M. E. church.

He leaves a wife and seven children, with one deceased. Those that survive him with his wife, Mrs. R. A. Howard, six sons and one daughter.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains. F. H. Hughson, of North Albany, went to Salem to assist in placing and looking after the Benton county exhibit at the fair.

Dr. Sievers of this city, went to Salem to make arrangements for taking down his string of fowls for competition in the poultry department.

W. L. Gilham, head lineman of the S. P., between Eugene and Woodburn, went to Salem to look after the wires at the crossing of the new line of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern R. R.

Among those going to the fair at Portland were Mrs. Tony Austin and Miss Maud Blount. Mrs. Claud Swan came over from Corvallis.

Misses Lenora Powell and Hazel Weller came down from Brownsville and went to Portland, where they will teach the coming year.

Mr. Loring, the S. P. depot superintendent, went up to Jordan, where he has a farm.

C. Allingham, of Sisters, formerly of Halsey, was in the city to-day. Mrs. Allingham is visiting Corvallis relatives.

A Wife Murderer's Advice. John D. Roseclair, the wife murderer hanged at Salem yesterday, talked 15 minutes before the drop.

The Warren Construction Co. has begun paving seven blocks at Cottage Grove.

The members of the Epworth League last evening at the parsonage held a Looking Backward social.

A Portland physician accuses other Portland physicians of many criminal operations.

Eugene Register:—W. L. Gilham (lineman for the S. P. Co.), has been ordered to transfer his headquarters from Eugene to Albany.

Rev. Arthur A. Haudeicher, of St. Louis has just been sentenced to the penitentiary for stealing $18.10 in money and seventeen watches from his fellow theological students.

There is something doing over at the Independence hop yards.

One of the new teachers in the Roseburg schools is the coming year will be Miss Vera Horner, daughter of Prof. B. Horner, of the O. A. C.

One of the U. O. young ladies of splendid character and attainments.

At the Hotels. W. W. Chesman, Eugene. O. M. Washburn, Coburg.

C. E. Ruch, Gresham. Mrs. J. R. Wyatt, Portland. G. E. Crowell, Eugene.

W. H. Sherman, Jefferson. C. W. Henry, Roseburg. E. M. Endicott, Joseph. L. M. Reeder, Salem.

Bud Kribs, Portland.

PATENTS PROCURED AND DEFENDED.

PATENTS PROCURED AND DEFENDED. Write or come to us at 623 Ninth Street, opp. United States Patent Office, WASHINGTON, D. C.

CASNOW & CO. PATENTS

PATENTS PROCURED AND DEFENDED.

CASNOW & CO. PATENTS

DSWIFFING