THIS MORNING

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

The platform and depot were crowded from end to end with people, nearly all going to the state fair. There were so many it was impossible to pick out those going anywhere else. Wednesday and Thursday are the drawing days and Albany always sends its share.

Editor Brown of Brownsville and Postmaster Brown of Lebanon, were in the crowd coming down on the Cummin's flyer, of course bound for the fair.

Grant Pirtle, of the St. Charles, a resident of Albany for six years made his first state fair trip, and will be one of the heavy weights there, 291 pounds with his shoes on.

The Dowd Bros. and their father, of Sunrise, recently from Connecticut, went down to see if an Oregon fair would show up with a nutmeg tair. A New England fair is certainly not like an Oregon fair, and yet a fair is a fair the world over.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Warford left for Minburn, Iowa, on a visit with Mr. Warford's folks. His father and mother in a few days will celebrate their golden wedding, an important event worthy of consideration in the family circle.

Dr. Wright Lee of Junction, came down on a visit with his sister, Mrs. Fred Fortmiller and family.

HELP WANTED

OBSERVED

By the Man About Town

A good many people around hunting for suitable presents for a bride. What's harder than finding something no one else thought of that is appropriate and expressive. It takes the patience of a woman to do it.

Some fine looking iron work on the ground for the new Schmitt Block. Watson Bros. did it, good foundry work. They have the contract for the iron for the building, which will require considerable.

Some boys riding an old kangaroo bicycle, laid aside for fifteen or twenty years, once navigated by the author of this item. He tried again after years of lower down riding and took a tumble.

Some strawberries in the local market. The Portland papers have been telling how all the berries now seen were from Southern Oregon, but these are from out near the strawberry city, and are good ones, the most delicious of all berries. Linn county takes no back seat when it comes to strawberries, and Lebanon is the dish.

One man has been added to the crew of workmen on the street line extension; but more are wanted. It is almost impossible to secure help.

A picture in the front window of Tomlinson & Holman's store, reading underneath, Our New Home. It's the Schmitt block, and this firm will have a double floor space of 50 by 100 feet.

At Dreamland.

The Cheyenne Brave. This name suggests an Indian story, and it is so. It is an exciting one of love, revenge and war. What gives it an extra interest you not only see the Indians' every day life, but the story is told in one most beautiful part of the world. The biograph shown is an uncommon story, showing how a neglected child gets into mischief, a good picture. The comedy end is held up by a Selig entitled The Emigrant, is very good.

Parents Should Know.

It is the duty of parents to ascertain if the eye-sight of their children is perfect or defective.

Immediate, timely attention may save your child much misery and yourself future regret.

E. C. Meade, Optometrist.

All overcoats just $15 at W. F. Pfeiffer's.

National Lecturer.

Mrs. J. C. Stone, a national lecturer of the W. C. T. U. will be at the M. E. church Friday evening.

Read what has been said of her: The speaker has been engaged in lecturing on temperance for many years in various parts of the country and in foreign lands. She was one of the original Ohio crusaders who inaugurated a vigorous movement against the legalized liquor traffic several years ago, and from that time her energies have been almost wholly devoted to lecturing on the evil nature and results of our state and national policy relative to the revenue system of our government.
