A WONDERFUL DEMONSTRATION

Of the Value and Importance of our New York Office and Buyer

Mr. Kragen, our New York Buyer, is on the ground floor, looking after our interests, at the same time the interests of every woman in Albany and the Willamette Valley. You are all aware of the big strike that has been on for the past six months and only ended one week ago. You can appreciate how impossible it would be for factories to fill mail orders.

The man that is on the ground floor will get the pick and cream of the New Suits and Coats as they are manufactured—that fact is being demonstrated by this store, for every day we are receiving twenty-five to fifty Suits and Coats, the first choice of the factories' productions, selected by Mr. Kragen. They are different from what you will see in any other store. They are exactly like the styles you see advertised in the Ladies' Home Journal and other Fashion Magazines. There are too many different kinds to describe. Come and see for yourself. We are glad to show you.

THE FAIR

Dampened by Rain and Mud.

There were about 3,000 at the fair yesterday regardless of the rain. Thursday, Portland day the paid admissions were 12,194, Wednesday 10,500, Tuesday 4,000 and Monday 1,000. That is 30,000 paid admissions in all, with today to hear from.

The races yesterday were slow ones, due to the muddy condition of the track. The 2:20 trot was won by Prof. Heald, the best time being 2:31 1/2. The consolation 2:08 pace was won by Lord Lovelace, the best time being 2:23 1/4. The 2:05 pace was won by Sherlock Holmes, the best time being 2:24 1/4.

One of the entries in the 2:20 trot was Babe H. owned by R. H. Huston, of Corvallis, and driven by Woodcock of this city, taking third place.

In horses A. C. Ruby, of Portland, took most of the premiums, leading in Percherons, Belgians, English Shires, German Coaches and Hackneys. William Snyder, of near this city, took two premiums on draft horses.

It is almost a startling fact that five deaths occurred at Salem indirectly the result of the fair: Those of Fred T. Saxon, by a Southern Pacific train; Harvey Massey, with some horses at the grounds; Bert Smith, a horseman, struck by the Shasta Limited; A. Z. Sears from apoplexy, and Teabo, the Chemawa Indian, by an Oregon Electric train.

A Warm Reception.

Stayton Mail:—
Dr. F. H. Thompson and bride returned to Stayton Thursday night last, having been met at Turner by W. L. Frer's auto. Although an effort had been made to keep quiet the exact time of their arrival, everybody knew when they reached the city, and it did not take long for the fun to start. The phone was disconnected and the water mains and electric lights were treated the same way. Then at a signal from the leader of the troops of revelers, a mighty outburst of discordant sound smote the evening air. The doctor promptly "came through" and the happy pair escaped relatively easy. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson received a large number of beautiful wedding gifts. The "newlyweds" will be at home to their friends in their new bungalow after Oct. 8th.

SALEM MAN

Had Thrilling Experience in Honduras

Statesman:—New Orleans, La., Sept. 16.—H. C. Downing, a railroad engineer from Salem, Or., has reached here after a thrilling experience in Honduras, where his life was threatened because he was suspected of being in sympathy with the revolution of Marshal Bonilla. Downing and another American, F. E. Miller, were living together at LaGuna, near the government barracks. The night that General Maria's division was replaced by the revolutionaries both started for the marine headquarters to investigate the situation. The government troops pursued them and a Honduran cried, "Kill the blank American," reaching Miller's hut, and the American flag was raised.

The flag was torn down by the Honduran soldiers and the two men were forced to flee to the home of Mr. Van Blaricum. There a sentry was found on the front steps Miller and Downing for 16 days was kept prisoners in one place surrounded by troops demanding their surrender before the American vice consul at Puerto Cortez could act and procure a bond for the men. Later in their absence the two men were tried by court martial and convicted of being revolutionaries. But for the fineness of Mr. Van Blaricum in refusing to give them up the Americans would no doubt have been murdered.

THE EMPIRE

Admission 10 cents.

PROGRAM TONIGHT ONLY.
"Wooling Out"—A Vitagraph comedy, with all the usual vim and realism shown by the Vitagraph company. The way the young people teach their teachers the art of love-making is the best merrymaker yet.
"The Art Lover's Strategy"—A drama full of love and pathos that touches the hearts of each and every one, ending right.
"The Mexican Domain"—Scenes in Mexico, showing the beach at Santa Cruz, and the military parade with the president, and a great many other scenes of interest.
"John Graham's Gold"—A very interesting drama, beautifully portrayed, showing the power of gold, and the worldly ambitious mother giving her daughter's happiness away, through its influence. A beautiful lesson well told.
Complete change tomorrow.
