SUMMONS.

(MONDAY.)

WILL HVE GAS PLANT.

The city council Saturday evening heid a special session to meet with P. G. Roe and discuss the matter of a gas franchise. The terms of the franchise were agreed upon and the ordinance will come up for consideration at the next meeting. It will call for a forty year term, a rate not exceeding $1.75, with a 25 cent reduction for cash with-in a certain length of time, and work must be begun on it within six months. Mr. Roe informs the Democrat that he and his partner mean business, and propose to have plants at Albany and Corvallis just as arranged, selecting these two cities because of their near-ness, making it possible to run them un-der one management.
