A CATECHISM.

As catechisms are in order the following may be taken in one dose, immediately following that of the Oregonian of recent date.

WHAT THE NEWSPAPERS ARE SAYING.

Corvallis Gazette-Times: Unfortunately all knoekers in Corvallis have not been converted, and it seems death can't get its claws underneath the hide of some of those wooden headed, sadly misguided specimens.

SHOULD BE DEFEATED.

Granges everywhere in Oregon are discussing the infamous bill calling a constitutional convention.

The Lecture Course.

Representatives of the Lecture Bureau from whom Albany college has secured its splendid course for this year expect to canvas the people of Albany for the sale of tickets the latter part of this week and part of next week.

SATURDAY NIGHT THOUGHTS.

An election in Maine has caused a universal interest, as it shows a new order of things. Maine has been looked upon as the index finger to republican success, hence the manner in which it has rolled up a big democratic victory for the governorship has startled the entire country.

Of course Col. Roosevelt, though resting at Oyster Bay, continues to be the center of political action. Another man this week stepped into politics, who will be heard from, Wilson, the democratic president of Princeton University, nominated for governor of that state.

This week Oregon's state fair has been in session, the best one ever held in the state according to the consensus of opinion. It was a credit to this great state, speaking in a decided manner for Oregon and its marvelous resources.

There was a temperance lecture in Albany this week. We have been hearing these lectures so long, ever since we were old enough to hear anything, that we have become almost obtuse on the subject, inclined to lethargy; but we need to keep awake.

(FRIDAY.)

Mrs Stone Tonight.

At the M. E. church at 8 o'clock, Ohio papers say that she is a fine speaker, has a message for the people and delivers it in an attractive and forcible manner.

At the Hotels

Chas. Sterling & wf, Brownsville. W. Cochell, Brownsville. C. H. McFarland, Brownsville. R. A. Holmes & fam, Mitchuta, Kan.

For Superintendent.

Democrats will do well to write the name of R. R. Turner on their ballots for state school superintendent. He has been superintendent of the Grants Pass schools for six years, is a member of the state board of school examiners and was a member of the board of visitors of the state normal schools appointed by Governor Chamberlain in 1908, an educator of splendid attainments.

McKenzie to Albany.

Register-Engineer W. J. Hanna of the Bylesby company, is up from Portland getting men and materials together for putting in the transmission line from Springfield to Albany. It is a big piece of work and the setting of the poles and stringing of the big copper wires will be no small job and will offer employment to a number of men.

All Next Week.

The Athon Stock Co. appearing at the opera house all next week commencing Monday, September 19 are to have the time of their audiences fully occupied while at the theatre. In addition to their picture machine and a number of the latest films, they also put on a number of specialties between the acts some of which are really vaudeville acts that have appeared and made good in the circuit throughout the country.

Eighty Today.

Mrs. America Bowman today is eighty years of age, nearly sixty of which have been spent in Oregon. She is remembering the event with a dinner at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Walton, of the Walton Rooming House, in the new Schultz Brick. One of Linn county's best pioneer women.

A BIG DAY.

The attendance at the state fair yesterday was the biggest in its history, it is said. 2400 tickets were sold at Portland. 400 were sold at Albany, and other cities sent many. Wednesday the Albany sale was 265.

The universal verdict is that the display of the resources of the state is the best ever presented, and put up in the best shape. The improvement of the grounds and buildings is commended by all the visitors.

Yesterday was the racing event day of the week. Helen Stiles, a California mare, carried off the honors capturing the 2:12 trot, in the Lewis and Clark race, for $5,000. The time for each heat was the same, a remarkable fact. 2:09 1/4. A new record for the track in trotting. One of the horses in this race was Lady Malcolm, driven by J. W. Kirkland of this city; Ruby Light won the 2 year old pace, best time 2:27 1/4; George Woodward the 2:20 pace, best time 2:11 1/4.

In the cattle department Linn county had a couple splendid displays, securing some good awards. In Jerseys W. B. Davis of Sheed, took fourteen premiums, including five firsts. F. J. Porter, of Hasley, took 26 premiums on Red Polled cattle, including sixteen firsts, with two big red polled herds against him. D. H. Looney of Jefferson carried off the Guernsey honors.

A Grand Stand Story.

An Albany man tells of a peculiar incident at the state fair yesterday afternoon. In the big crowd in the grand stand was a mother and her two year old child. The child fell asleep regardless of the fast races in progress, and also fell through a hole in the seat, a good many feet to the ground below. The mother screamed loud enough to make a deaf man here, and there was a rush below, expecting a casualty for the newspapers, but strange to say, the child had struck just about right, and was simply awakened without being hurt at all, and the mother rejoiced. Also the sympathetic crowd, with its nervous heart.

Larkey Logan in Town.

Larkey Logan, a notorious Siletz Indian, with a big record, arrived in Albany from the Bay yesterday with a bottle of whiskey in his pocket, soon emptied, and Larkey was soon lying around on the S.P. platform. About the middle of the afternoon Chief of Police Munkers found him there, and took him to the city jail regardless of his celebrity. He was about sober by evening and waiting to go to Salem, was put on board the local, and will probably be heard from there Logan has been in the pen and was mixed up in different ways in several shooting scrapes, one or two of them fatal.

Geer Returned.

T. T. Geer passed through the city yesterday from California and Arizona, where he had been several weeks. He helped in the Arizona campaign and it went democratic a whooping, and through his animosity to the initiative and referendum that state will undoubtedly have these modern institutions in the new constitution.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 79-43. The river is .6 of a foot, the low water mark for the year. Rainfall, up to 5 a. m., .16 of an inch. Since then considerable more has fallen dampening both the state fair and a good many prunes on the ground. Prediction: fair tonight, Saturday air and warmer.

Sudden Death.

A. Z. Sears, of Medford, formerly of this county, being a resident of Albany many years ago, died in Salem yesterday while attending the state fair. Several weeks ago Mr. Sears visited Albany friends for several days, renewing old friendships.

Will Sell Coal.

A. W. Dockstetter will deal in coal this winter, and is now taking orders for the first car load, at $7.50 a ton, a very reasonable price for screened coal, a good many Albany people have put in furnaces and will hereafter use coal.

R. G. Smith, of Grants Pass has been generally suggested for the democratic nominee for congress, and democrats generally will wish his name in for the office.

SATURDAY.

Hammell's Hops.

J. C. Hammell returned yesterday from his hop yard near Corvallis, where he saw the cleanup for the season, just in time, and today he has a broad smile, congratulating himself. He has about 35,000 pounds of dried hops, a good deal better than last year. He says: "They didn't turn out quite as well as I expected, and I didn't think they would." With good prices prevailing the result is a good one for the yard.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 53-51. The rainfall was .26 of an inch, in the face of a prediction of clear weather and warmer. Mr. Beals prediction: showers tonight and Sunday.

GET one of those sponges at the Variety Store, 813 W. 1st street. 25 and 50c sponges for 17c.

MRS. STONE HIT THE SALOON.

Mrs. Stone, a good looking woman from Ohio, rolled into Albany yesterday, and last night at the M. E. church threw herself into the fight against the saloon, with vim and an eloquent tongue. Women have a right to speak against the infamous business, she said, because the liquor traffic antagonizes every interest that is dear to women.

One trouble now days is that men and women follow the $ to the gates of hell. There are 6,500,000 church members in the United States, and if they had been consistent the country would have gone prohibition fifty years ago. God says: "I will be with you no longer unless you put the accursed thing away."

Of all the saloons the most dangerous one is the gilded palace, where the boys get their start. The first glass is the one of danger. The higher the license the more dangerous the business. There should be no compromise with the business.

The proposed home rule law in Oregon is simply a rule of the saloon law, the old Reddy law patched up so as to look differently, and it should be beaten with a will.

Mrs. Stone gave a comprehensive review of the splendid work the W. C. T. U. has done in the development of a temperance sentiment in the country, resulting in so many states falling into the temperance line.

The meeting closed with the song: Oregon is Going Dry.

PERSONAL

Manager W. R. Struble is lying in bed in Portland ill with the lumbago.

F. F. Hockenoy, of Medford, a former Albany clerk, has been in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Pomeroy and Mr. and Mrs. Mimmick left this afternoon for a week's fishing at the Bay.

Uldine Prochnow was celebrating her seventh birthday this afternoon with a party, bound to be a fine affair.

Miss Louise Blackwell, one of the city's most popular teachers, has returned from Idaho, where she spent the vacation season with her folks.

Mrs. L. E. Hamilton and Mrs. L. E. Blain yesterday afternoon entertained with a luncheon, for Miss Flo Nutting, previous to her leaving for Chicago next week, to resume her studies. A dozen young ladies enjoyed the afternoon at the Hamilton home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Lee and daughter Dorothy returned last night from the east, where Mrs. Lee and daughter spent several months at South Bend, Ind., with one sister, and at Gilliam, Mo., with another. Mr. Lee recently joining them for a short trip and to accompany them home.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest L. Young and son, of Spokane, left for home after being here to attend the Smyth-Rhodes wedding. Mr. Young is with Jones & Dillingham, dealers in paints, oils and building material, and is a member of the Spokane chamber of commerce. He liked Albany and enjoyed his first visit here immensely.

Mr. Bier, of Vancouver, Wash., left for home after a visit with his daughter Mrs. Geo. E. Sanders. He was considerably interested in the manner in which Pointeater swept things in Washington after being left out entirely by the bosses.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Simpson and son left for Seattle to attend the annual convention of laundrymen, which Mr. Simpson never misses. Last year the convention was held in Spokane.

Mrs. Varnum Elliot, of Portland, left for home, accompanied by her brother-in-law President Crooks. Mr. Crooks tonight will go to Oakland, where he will spend tomorrow, also at Sutherlin. He reports excellent prospects for the college the coming winter in attendance.

Miss Lottie Morgan returned to Plainview for another visit before returning to school work.

Among those coming down from Lebanon were Ray Roberts, Prof. Hargrove and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Devine. Editor Brown of Brownsville went to Corvallis on a business trip.

Miss Emma Sox left on a Portland trip. W. D. Washburn left for Brownsville.

McCAMEY, Admr. with Will annexed of said estate. AMOR A. TUSSING, Atty. for Admr.

MISFITS.

The Cannon is being spiked everywhere.

Oregonian: Cheer up, the worst is to come.

The population of Cleveland is announced as 569,663.

Mr. Roosevelt is hitting the Bryan gait good and hard.

Good evening, have you heard from Me', Wash. and Ari.

The elephant is getting some sense into his noodle, that's all.

These other fairs are all right, but watch for Albany's apple show.

These enormous Cannon candidate defeats must make Mr. Hawley a little nervous.

The Democrat has received some bright editorial suggestions from an assembly candidate. Nit.

Even the Oregonian sees the handwriting on the wall and predicts all kinds of dire calamities—politically.

No more kicks about dry weather, the rain has set in, and predictions will now be easy for Mr. Beals—sometimes.

The Criterion says Sol Lindley has a cinch on the republican nomination for sheriff. A. M. Templeton also has it.

The stand patters are going to be moved now whether they will or not. The people have turned against the oppressor.

A Lane county paper says the Democrat is supporting I. H. Bingham for joint senator. Just simply as between Bingham and Bean.

It is several days since Maine went democratic and the Oregonian has not yet accused all the democrats of registering as republicans.

Either Harry Lane or J. M. Garin can beat W. R. Ellis, the assembly-Cannon candidate for congress in the second district.

The anti-assembly candidates are whacking it to the assembly candidates with telling effect, and the voters will do the rest. Oregon will not be behind Washington.

The first name on the new register of the new Hotel Marion, of Salem, the old Willamette, or Chemeketa, fixed up, was a Eugene man. Is that a distinction or a hoodo.

A Marshfield minister has filed a petition in bankrupt proceedings, with $400 assets and $32,000 liabilities. The average minister does well to leave frenzied finance alone.

Three hard-headed supporters of Cannon in Maine were defeated in the election this week. Oregon should follow suit. From Me. to Or, the Cannon men should be dropped. The country needs the example.

Now that Cannon is kicked out by the people his old friends are deserting the ship and yelling that they will not vote for him again for speaker. You bet they won't; but they have shown that they can't be trusted, and should be kept at home.

The Lebanon Criterion says this anti-assembly movement is just a democratic game. Wait and see how the republicans themselves vote in the primaries and it will be found to be a republican insurgent game, a protest against boss rule.

Some people have to talk anyway. A man saw a one armed man and remarked "I see you have lost an arm." "The one armed man gazed in an interesting way into the empty sleeve and remarked: Bless your soul, I believe you are right!"

The Corvallis Gazette-Times denies the statement made by some papers that Jay Bowerman has made a good impression in this campaign. On the contrary it says he does not possess a good stage presence that would recommend him to thoughtful people. If nominated it will be simply because there is no strong man against him.

The Market.

Wheat $90. Oats 88c. Beef 6c; veal dressed 9c. Pork dressed 12c; on foot 9 1/2c. Lard 15c. Eggs 30c. Chickens on foot 10c. Hams 22c to 27c, sides 20 to 25c. Shoulders 15 to 18c. Butter 30c to 35c. Flour $1.50 to $1.7c a sack. Potatoes 6c per bu. Hay, from $10 for some clover to $13 the best timothy.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to all whom it may concern that the undersigned had been duly appointed administrator of the co-partnership estate of Charles E. Fox and George B. Cummings, doing business as co-partners under the firm name of Fox & Cummings, Charles E. Fox, deceased, by the county court of Linn county, Oregon. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same to the undersigned duly verified as to the law, received within six months from this date as in place of business at the corner of Second and Montgomery streets, Albany, Oregon. GEORGE B. CUMMINGS, J. K. WEATHERFORD, Admr.
