MISFITS.

The complainer always hits himself.

Don't be a grouch. Look in the glass.

The auto may knock the horse out, but the cow is here to stay.

It is a fad these days to thank people very much; but you can't always tell.

"It is not necessary to wear a frock coat and plug hat to be a man" said Bishop Smith.

An umpire at Portland yesterday was told that he was as blind as a bat and crooked as a snake.

A Medford man is so short he can't reach high enough to comb his hair. That's nothing. An Albany man is so short he can't walk on a sidewalk with the nails sticking up.

A Lebanon man in town today suggested that there be signs put up for strangers to get their bearings. Albany is changing so fast, he declared he hardly knew where he was.

The Lottery Man.

After its long run at the Bijou Theatre, New York, Rida Johnson Young's comedy, "The Lottery Man," will be seen at Albany next Friday.

The New York press was unanimous in pronouncing the comedy one of the most delightful entertainments of the season. Though termed a comedy, it is more in the nature of a farce, containing all of those comical situations and amusing incidents characteristic of farces which prove their worth by their popularity. And the popularity of "The Lottery Man" is unquestioned. "Lizzie" who contributes so much to the humor of the play, has been one of the most talked of characters extant among Broadway attractions.

FOR SALE.

A John Deere back, heavily new, and set double driving harness.

Two registered Berkshire sows, one with ten and other with eleven pigs by side.

One registered Berkshire boar, one year old, imported from California. Eleven gilts six months old, and one fat hog.

Fifty head of Cotswold sheep, some registered, several nice yearling and lamb rams in flock, also one 3-year-old ram, registered.

Some Angora goats, eight wethers and one registered Angora buck.

Also two wagons, one nearly new; one 10 H. P. Russell engine and Birdsell clover huller, nearly new; and a Carley Bros. feed roll, nearly new; and household goods consisting of three heaters, two cook stoves, kitchen table, dining table, cupboard, sewing machine and numerous other articles.

Call on A. F. Zimmermann, seven miles north of Albany and two and one-half miles northwest of Millersburg, and get some bargains as I am going to leave. Phone Farmers 37.

Parents Should Know.

It is the duty of parents to ascertain if the eye-sight of their children is perfect or defective.

Immediate, timely attention may save your child much misery and yourself future regret.

TEN DOLLARS IS ENOUGH

There is no other place to put your money where it will be so safe and grow so steadily as in Albany suburban Real Estate.

Property in Albany during the next year or so will double, treble and may quadruple and will continue for the next generation.

During the next few years no other investment will come anywhere near earning the big profits that wisely chosen Albany suburban real estate will earn.

RIGHT NOW IS THE TIME TO INVEST. You will never be able to buy cheaper than you can buy today. Albany is not going backward, it is going forward at a rate that is simply astonishing.

Do you realize what the Oregon Electric will mean toward the progress of Albany? Do you realize that the prices of Albany real estate are ridiculously low compared to what they will be two years from today?

The millionaires of today started their fortunes yesterday by making wise real estate investments. The Astors of New York, Marshall Fields of Chicago, Crocker of San Francisco, and Mr. Ladd of Portland, did not hesitate to invest when property was cheap. Now they are reaping their rewards by receiving rents from office buildings, stores, hotels and apartment houses. These men made themselves. They started with small amounts of money and by using good judgment became rich.

IN BUYING REAL ESTATE Do not buy in localities where it is already developed and improved, for the return on your investment will be too small, and the expense of keeping it too great: Buy "outside" property and hold until it becomes "inside." BUY THE FRINGE. Buy where the people are going, but buy before they get there. No other investment is so safe, so sure, and so certain to enrich its owner. It is the best insurance policy a man can leave his family—better than any stock or bond—and will yield greater returns than banks or trust companies can afford to pay. It cannot be stolen and costs nothing to maintain.
