IT IS HUMOROUS.

One of the pleasantries of the day is Jay Bowerman, an eastern Oregon railroad lawyer, running for governor, the product of the assembly, posing as a friend of the direct primary and statement number one. On the face of it he is not a friend of either and cannot be. The assembly system is directly antagonistic to the primary system. It is the old caucus system the primary was established to do away with. The old system disgraced politics and the people turned to the direct primary for relief. This didn't suit the bosses and some of the politicians and they devised this assembly as a means for gradually undermining the primary and causing its destruction. In the last legislature an effort was made to have a law passed making the assembly a legal affair, but it was defeated. In the face of this the assembly was created, a lawless concern in the spirit of the law. Now Mr. Bowerman has the colossal gall to come out and declare he is for the direct primary and statement number one. The reason is plain. It is the same as inspired Congressman Hawley to declare that he would not support Cannon again after he had seen in big letters the handwriting on the wall. Mr. Bowerman also sees some big letters staring him in the face. Just four letters are making him wince. They are WEST, and he is looking east, south, north, in all directions, for something to help him to swim. He will not fool many, though voters have been fooled frequently with less reason for it. Oregonians are a wide-awake people and they are going to do their own voting regardless of the fumes that emanate from the tall tower.

At Dreamland.

Dreamland has for its feature Selig's latest great wild west picture entitled The Indian Raiders. The picture tells a tale of the Indian cattle stealers in the early 70's, and also shows some marvelous horse riding stunts. The Judgment of the Deep is a sad and pathetic tale of the sea. Troubles of a Policeman is a rip roaring comedy.

PERSONAL

Mrs. Henry Phillippi, of Eugene, was in the city today, a former resident of this county.

W. R. Dumbeck and A. A. Mapleton, of Mapleton, Minn., are in the city looking around.

W. E. Frazier, the grocery drummer, has just returned from an outing at Foley Springs.

Mrs. Dr. Yearick, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is in the city on a visit with her friends, L. H. Fish and family.

A. Weidman, of Albany, N. Y., was in Albany, Or., today with his Hamilton watches, an old-time commercial traveler.

Prof. L. E. Wegner, who has been at Lebanon during the meetings, went to Woodburn this afternoon to assist in a big service.

Mrs. Carter Allingham, of Sisters, after a visit with Mrs. Etta Carter McKenzie, at Corvallis, went to Harrisburg this afternoon.

Miss Maud Laughead is in The Dalles doing institute work, in charge of the primary department, her specialty. She has a splendid reputation all over the state as a primary instructor.

It transpires that the J. W. Miller running for the legislature on the republican ticket is the county clerk, and not J. W. Miller of Halsey, who was a delegate to the assembly.

Elmer J. Gilstrap, district manager of the Occidental Life Insurance Co., left this afternoon for Eugene, where he will enter the Bible school for a six years course preparatory to the ministry.

Texas Rangers Tonight.

A Texas Ranger, presented by the Majestic Amusement Company will be the attraction at the Opera House tonight.

The company carries a band and orchestra and will give a free street parade and a concert in front of the theatre at 7:30 p. m. The Texas Ranger is the greatest of all western plays and is presented by a company of players of recognized merit.

Seasonable Goods that you'll need in Styles to Please

Rainy Weather Apparel

My! How it rains this morning as we write this advertisement! But we are in Oregon so we expect it, only we like to be fixed for it.

A good umbrella, raincoat and rubbers and it can pour down just as much as it wants to—we don't care.

We are showing some mighty nobby styles in rain wraps this season—some stylish long coats that the rain will just rattle off of and will keep you dry.

We have them for the little tots and the grown-ups too.

As to Rubbers, we show all styles for little folks, misses and children.

They are the best quality new line goods that will give you the best of service. Let us fit you.

IT'S TIME FOR WARMER UNDERWEAR.

A large and complete assortment of all styles in women and childrens underwear is shown now in this department.

We have the soft white garment in color—either separate or union suits, in a number of most desirable styles. Also woolen garments in like styles in white, cream, grey and scarlet. Every garment is excellently made and shaped—and will be perfectly comfortable as well as most serviceable.

For the baby and the little ones the assortment is just as complete.

Prices are right to please you too.

Large Warm Blankets

Cooler nights mean more blankets. The rain leaves the air so pure that it is doubly good to throw the windows clear to the top and get all the fresh air possible. Just step under a fine soft cotton or woolen blanket, the kind that we are showing now on our counters, and you will get the greatest benefit from your night's rest.

We have never shown a larger nor better line of blankets in wool or cotton at the low prices which we offer these for. We have them in plain or fancy—large, medium and small. We believe we can make it worth your while to call. Cotton Blankets per pair, 50c to $4.00. Woolen, $4.50 to $18.00.

RUB-DRY TOWELS.

We are agents for these famous Rub-Dry Towels—we think that they are about the best towels we have ever seen. That's the reason we bought them.

Just as soft as can be and perfectly absorbant. Hundreds of little sponges make up the towel and these reach down into the pores of the skin, cleaning perfectly.

We show them in several sizes and we believe you will delight in using them. Try one anyway, you'll buy more the next time you need towels if you do.

WHEN you buy a pair of shoes for your little girl, get the kind that conform to the natural shape of her feet. Educators are the sensible and scientific shoes. "They let the feet grow as they should." Examine a pair and you will see how much better they are than the ordinary kind. Made for girls of all ages.

Look for that brand on the sole.
