THURSDAY

A GREAT JOY RIDE.

The Holley Trip a Red Letter Event.

The Know Your Own County Trip in automobiles to Holley yesterday was one of the best things of the year...

Because of a delay in starting no stops were made at Tangent and Shedd, about half an hour looking around Halsey and Brownsville...

It was a joy ride and a wonderful success, an event long to be remembered.

A neat event at Holley was a joy ride given the school children and old people...

All along the way the farmers had small displays to be seen, some big things, and were out with their families everywhere to see Albany go by.

Loug's Troubles. Doug Hamilton, of Scio, was in the city yesterday...

The Third Time. The subject at the Methodist church tonight will be: "This is the third time I am coming to you..."

An ordinance was passed providing for voting on issuing bonds not to exceed $15,000, for the buying of a city park, known as Hackleman's Grove, at the December election.

The matter of bonds under the Hancock act for paving assessments not paid was referred to the ways and means committee upon the request of J. W. Cusick & Co., bankers.

Adjourned until Monday evening to consider the ordinance providing for voting $75,000 bonds to replace the same due Nov. 1911, at a lower rate of interest.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

It was as slow a morning as one often runs into at the depot, generally a live place.

Ex-Sheriff Dave Osborn, one of Benton county's best democratic war horses, came over on his way to Portland.

Mrs. H. Y. Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Lingstrum and son came down from Lebanon.

Mr. Rookledge, the linotyper, returned to the tall tower in Portland.

A Novel Scoop. Nothing could ingratiate a reporter more in the eyes of the managing editor than a "scoop."

Killed a Grouse. Upon a plea of guilty in Justice Swan's court today S. A. Edmunson, a Troutdale saloon keeper was fined $25 for killing a grouse at Halsey.

The H S. A. A. The young men of the high school met yesterday afternoon and organized for the coming year with great deal of enthusiasm.

An Object Lesson. There is an object lesson at the Commercial Club rooms: eight plates of different kinds of apples, perfect in make up and color, raised by F. M. Vitebell, who sprays in Hood River style, and two or three plates from the orchard of a neighbor, measly looking things, covered with sores.

The Piper Boys. The three Piper Boys, of Seattle, are in the city on a visit. Geo. U. has been re-nominated for the state senate in the 34th district, the heart of Seattle, where he has resided continuously for 21 years.

The Weather. Range of temperature 78-44. The river .7 of a foot. Prediction: showers tonight and Friday.

MARRIED.

McGuire-McPherrin. In the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. McPherrin, among the giant oaks six miles northeast of this city, was a very happy event last evening at 8 o'clock, when their daughter, Lela E. was married to Harry M. McGuire, of Portland.

Guests were present from Portland and nearer points, about fifty in all, bringing many pretty presents, and enjoying the music and refreshments which followed the ceremony.

Both parties of the happy pair are first-class young people, and have the congratulations of a host of friends. After the honeymoon they will make their home in the Rose City, where "Harry" is a conductor on the street railway.

Lovell-Woolridge. At the home of Mrs. S. H. Campbell on East 2nd St., last evening at 8 o'clock, Thomas H. Lovell of this city, and Mrs. Nancy A. Woolridge recently of Lane county, were married, Rev. W. S. Gordon officiating.

Governor Benson is again Governor, in his chair at Salem.

The weather prediction is: fair tonight and Saturday.

Jake Bilyeu, of Scio, was in town yesterday in his auto.

Dr. and Mrs. Kimmell, of Lebanon, returned today from the Bay.

One of the fastest growing cities in the U. S. is Birmingham, Alabama.

E. E. Parrish left yesterday for Portland where he will reside the coming winter.

Mark Hulbert left this afternoon for Roseburg to attend the county fair and see the races.

E. B. Cummings and family have returned from Culver, where they have resided the past year.

Mrs. Nellie Henderson and daughter, of Oakland, are visiting at the home of T. L. Dugger at Scio this week.

Pendleton is having a cow boy show this week, and the casualties are many; but the attendance is big and Pendleton is wild with joy.

Hi Parker and family, after a residence of two or three years at the Parker mill in the foot hills has returned to his fine home place in North Albany to reside.

Martin E. Robinson, after putting Pianaforte at Eugene is in the city for the purpose of organizing Bellshazer and presenting it in two or three weeks.

An Idaho woman found a pair of shoes belonging to another woman in her husband's possession and is suing for divorce. He is a railroad man, Samuel Grant.

The lucky one winning the piano given away by the Woodworth Drug Co. will be decided to night by the following judges: H. N. Bouley, Chas. Cusick, O. A. Archibald.

Ellen Beach Yaw, with the greatest range of voice of any one in the world, is approaching. Medford and Eugene are the only Oregon cities outside of Portland to pay the price.

The New York democrats are in session at Rochester, N. Y., with Judge Parker as chairman. Chas. Murphy, a former Tammany boss, knocked out, is present trying to dictate affairs.

A good many Albany people are now using coal. A need here are some bunkers, where coal can be gotten at any time without the long delay incident to the order system.

Mrs. C. O. Lee, a resident of Culver for several years is visiting Salem relatives. Mr. Lee has rented his farm and will return to the valley. It has never agreed with Mrs. Lee at Culver.

Walter Brooks runs a flying machine yesterday from Chienro to Springfield, with two stops, 187 miles in 7 hours and 21 minutes and won a $10,000 prize. This is a new record for a continuous flight.

John Alden Seabury and John H. Blakely, formerly of Salem, are preparing to start a daily paper at Bandon, to be called the Eagle. Recently they have been publishing the Advance at Aumsville, a live paper.

Dr. Warren H. Landon, president of the theological seminary, of San Anselmo, Calif., was in the city yesterday, while on a trip through Oregon. He was formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Portland, and once delivered the baccalaureate for Albany College.

J. W. Baker and family are moving from Cottage Grove to Albany to reside. Mrs. Baker is former state warden and was president of the W. C. T. U. of Cottage Grove. They are parents of Claire Baker of this city, and Albany people are glad to have them come this way.

Rev. M. C. Wire will now look after his prune orchard at Newburg and other interests. He has been placed on the retired list at a salary of $300, and with his personal income will be in a position to enjoy life. He has fought a good fight and retires from the active ministry with a splendid record.

Monmouth, Ill., papers tell of an interesting pole climbing contest between the sophomores and freshmen of Monmouth college, won by the freshmen. An Albany boy, Will White, formed the freshmen wedge, and a foot ball game was hardly in it with the contest. The freshmen finally got a man to the top of the pole with their flag.

The nine largest U. S. cities are New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Boston, Cleveland, Baltimore, Pittsburg, Detroit, in the order named, with Buffalo and San Francisco candidates for the tenth place. In ten years the Democrat predicts the Northwest will have a city among the first ten, and that it will be Portland.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar No Alum, No Lime Phosphate

OBSERVED

By the Man About Town.

A big shipment of new fixtures for the bank of J. W. Cusick & Co., from Sheboygan, Wis., which will be placed in position at once in the enlarged bank offices under an entirely new arrangement, making a very attractive place when completed.

A peculiar incident was the finding of a nest of rats in one of the frames, evidently hatched on the way out here in the freight car.

Red arrows are seen everywhere. Sterling Foster's method of attracting attention to the Hazelwood addition, and it does. A man in the dark could not help knowing something was going on at Hazelwood. Mr. Foster reports a fine sale of lots, with a pleased lot of buyers. When a man like Foster pushes things have to move.

The Sand & Gravel Co. expected to start their plan this week, but the big work of preparation has required a delay until next week. Albany is securing a big thing in this institution.

A number of the big Alexander apples are seen in the market, fine lookers, but some of the smaller apples are much better eaters. Apples generally look pretty well. A poor looking apple should not be allowed in the market, and a fruit inspector is needed to keep them out.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains. These items were picked out of a very dense fog, along the platform:

Mr. and Mrs. J. Clem, of Eugene, came down from a visit with their son in Lebanon, and went to Salem. Mr. Clem is a former Linn county populist senator. He is now a shining light in the assembly party of Lane. He has sold his small farm near Eugene, and is looking for a location, but likes Eugene so well may remain there.

William F. Fortmiller left for Tacoma with the body of the Chinese cook, Ying Yat, who died a month or two ago, which will be shipped to China for burial among the bones of the Celestials. Mr. Fortmiller will also visit his sister, Mrs. Lee in Seattle.

Prof. Kent, one of the O. A. C.'s best men, went to Canby to officiate as a judge of stock at the county fair. He is one of the best authorities in the N. W.

Jake Cowdrey, proprietor of the Lebanon pool rooms, returned home after being in Albany to join the Elks, which he did, and got the whole program. One Elk said he never laughed so much in his life. Jake enjoyed the fun too.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fox returned to Portland after an Albany visit. C. M. Giddings went to Corvallis. Peter Bither returned to Brownsville after running a night with the herd. C. L. Morris came down from his farm.

R. Edson, the miner, went to Salem. Richard Scott, a prominent Corvallis resident, left for Oregon City. W. B. Chance took a mill inspection hike. N. M. Newport came down from Lebanon.

S. A. Lasselle, of the prune packer, left for Salem. He has already shipped about a dozen car loads of prunes and expects to have about seventy-five car loads this year.

A New System Established.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Northwestern Corporation on the fourth page. The company has instituted the postal card system here. Under it users of water and lights will receive a card the first of the month with the amount of their bill, which if paid by the 10th of the month will be given a ten per cent discount, making the price of water 13 1/2 cents a kilowatt, a reduction of 1 1/2 cents a kilowatt, which will no doubt be generally taken advantage of.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 75-50. The rainfall was 3/4 inch. The river .7 of a foot. Prediction: Showers tonight and Sunday.
