THIS MORNING

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Elmer Wills, of Roseburg, formerly of Lebanon and Corvallis, and his brother Rube, of Lebanon, went to Brownsville to attend the funeral of Mrs. E. G. Sperry, a relative. The former reported Roseburg progressing wonderfully with its seventy blocks of pavement and other improvements, but he also complimented Albany upon its good looks.

R. Edson returned to the Quartzville mines after being in Albany a few weeks. He reports a new strike up that way, and continues to have faith in what some call the Santiam mines. A few years ago several hundred thousand dollars were spent there in development work and a fine mill installed; but suddenly things dropped.

Prof. E. L. Wilson, the accomplished violinist, left for Salem, where he has a class. He is making good as a teacher, a thorough student of one of the best musical instruments invented.

J. F. Robinson, of Portland, a resident of Eugene, for many years, returned home after spending the night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Littler.

F. M. French left on the Springfield road on a watch inspecting trip.

Mrs. G. E. Nicholls returned from Corvallis, once her home town.

E. A. Johnson left on a short trip up the Brownsville road.

Albany Apples in St. Paul.

One hundred boxes of apples are being gotten together for shipment to St. Paul, for a special window display in the windows of a big establishment there, a display that is bound to attract attention. With Albany, Or., on as fine a looking display as can be found in the U. S. it will help. Things like this will put Albany in the Medford and Hood River class.

Our Apples.

Mr. Stone, an experienced Colorado fruit grower has located here, taking an interest in the Linn Co. Orchard Co. He has been surprised at the splendid showing of apples here. The quality and looks of our apples that have been raised right cannot be beaten in the world. Mr. Stone sees no reason why the Willamette should not become famous as an apple raiser. All that is necessary is the right methods, and this is coming.

MARRIED.

Kavanaugh—Lugger.—On Wednesday morning, at 8 o'clock, at the Catholic church in this city, Dr. H. J. Kavanaugh and Miss Katherine Lugger, both of this city, were united in marriage. Father Lane officiating. Mr. Harry Shea appeared as best man and Miss Minnie Lugger, as bridesmaid, Sister Clementine performing the wedding march.

The groom is a member of a prominent Portland family, a successful and popular physician here and the bride is an accomplished and lovable young lady, daughter of H. K. Lugger, chief engineer of the North Western Co.

They left this afternoon for Seattle on their bridal trip, after which they will be at home in this city.

The Tuesday Club.

The Tuesday Club held its first meeting of the season yesterday afternoon with Mrs. C. V. Littler, with a good delegation of Tuesday callers. The social session was enlivened with a strenuous contest in making things out of gum, and it transpired that the club had several sculptor geniuses. Mrs. E. Hulbert won the first prize. A large butterfly could almost work its wings, and the assortment of animals would have made Teddy take to his heels. Notwithstanding the amount of gum chewed the delicious refreshments coming afterwards were greatly enjoyed, and the entire afternoon was full of pleasure.

You Will Be fagged.

The Civic Improvement Club is preparing for tag day, when Albany people will be requested to go down into their pockets liberally for the depot park fund. A splendid start has been made, and it is proposed to have things assume still more improved form, with some green and plants. The S. P. would make a ten stroke if it would put in some cement curbs with its Grants Pass sand.

The Club has also voted to join with the Modern Travelers in a chrysanthemum show this fall.

Notice to Contractors.

Sealed bids will be received by the clerk of School District No. 20, Linn county, Or., until the hour of 7 p. m. Saturday the 15th day of Oct. 1910, for the erection and completion of a public school building for Dist. No. 20, Linn county.

Plans may be seen at the office of the architect, Wm. Hand, Flinn Block, Albany, or of the clerk, J. A. Jones, Albany, Or., R. F. D. 2.

Ed. Schoel, Linn county's famous poultry and pig raiser, has just won the silver cup at the stock judging contest at North Yakima. There were sixteen contestants, and draft horses, sheep and dairy cows were entered.

When You Buy Clothes Our Way

You cut out the elements of doubt. We've a habit of using the word "satisfaction" as something more than a mere "talking point." It's an existing reality, and it proves out in the clothes. That means a lot of care and knowledge on our part. We handle only clothes on which we know you can not fail to get the greatest measure of service. Don't let the season half slip by before you get your new suit and overcoat. Be one of the first with the new styles. In buying here and buying early insures you double satisfaction.
