REV. ELLIOT IN NEB.

From the Nebraska State Journal of Lincoln:
Rev. J. C. Elliott and wife of Albany, Ore., arrived in the city yesterday. Rev. Mr. Elliott was the pastor of the Presbyterian church in Nebraska City in 1886, leaving the state in 1870. During these four years he was detailed by the church to start a congregation in Lincoln, which had then just been made the capital of the state. Mr. Elliott came here, founded the church, preached the first sermons and appointed Howard Kennedy, father of Judge Kennedy of Omaha, elder. He was appointed by the first governor of the state, Governor Butler, to act on his first board of regents of the university. Dr. Elliott gave a short talk at the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning. In the evening he attended the Second Presbyterian church. Tomorrow he will look over the university and state farm, noting the improvements and expansion since he helped to build the present university hall. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott leave for their old home in Nebraska City tomorrow. After making a short visit there they go to Washington, D. C. where they will spend the winter with their daughter. Rev. Mr. Elliott grew reminiscent in recalling incidents of early state history. Among these were the impeachment trial of Governor Butler, and a lot sale held here when Lincoln was first made the capital. Eastern interests bought up these lots and made money from the investment. Mr. Elliott has not been in this city since he left over forty years ago.

High Toned Corvallis Wedding.

Gazette-Times:—At the new Presbyterian church last night Miss Cleo Johnson, daughter of Senator and Mrs. A. J. Johnson, and Mr. John Porter, until recently of Medford, were united in marriage. The affair was formal, attended by four or five hundred guests, and followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, at which a large number of friends tendered their best wishes and congratulations.

Mrs. Porter is a loveable young woman. With a charming disposition, many graces and all the virtues, a vocalist of considerable ability and withal a girl of practical ideas, she will make Mr. Porter as good a wife as he deserves. And "Jack" deserves the best there is: He is a jolly young fellow of fair ability and a good standing in the community. At present he is employed in the Benton County National Bank.

Eat 'em once you will want 'em again, Sealship Oysters at Tomlinson & Holman's.

THE EMPIRE TONIGHT.

Jim, the Ranchman—A Selig wild west drama, a good mixture of love and comedy, with wonderful scenic effects.

Pure Gold—A story of love and finance, showing the effects of Wall Street and impressing the old saying that "all is not gold that glitters."

Tommy gets his Sister Married—This youngster uses some methods that might not be satisfactory to the average unmarried female, but they worked in this particular instance.

Illustrated song—"I'm just a pining for you." Miss Cosmo.

Complete change tomorrow

Admission 10 cents.

The Electric.

TONIGHT

Another one of those famous Bison films you all know and like, a great western scene, Red Fern and the Kid; also one of those Eclair films, Martyr of Love and Sculptor's Easy work.

Do not forget that we change programs again tomorrow.

Admission only 5 cts.

REPUBLICAN PAPER

Will Fight Bowerman for Governor.

The following position taken by the Corvallis Gazette-Times speaks for the independence of the age, and for the consistency of the anti-assembly policies of the paper, except as to Hawley:
The Gazette-Times is against Bowerman for governor; for W. C. Hawley for congressman; for Victor P. Moses for Judge of Benton county; for Geo. Smith for Commissioner; and for the remainder of the republican county ticket. For judges of this district, Coke and Hamilton are the men. Both publishers of this paper are republicans, but this paper will support several democrats, as will be noted above. This decision has been made after a careful resume of the situation and in the confidence that the men named are the best men for the positions to which they aspire. From now until the election the Gazette-Times advanced reasons why it believes the men named are the ones to be elected.

A Harmony Meeting.

There is to be a harmony meeting at Salem today with the candidates who won out in the primaries and those defeated present. That sounds good; but it is all it amounts to. You can't whip the people into line for an assembly candidate like Bowerman and they are going to whack him good and hard on election day, giving a practical demonstration of popular power that will be startling. If a man of any strength had been put up against Bowerman he would have been nominated.

DOINGS OF THE WORLD.

Harrisburg this week had a field meet. E. S. Munger was a prominent winner.

Lebanon prune growers recently sold their prunes in a pool, receiving $6.96 for them.

A Corvallis wedding this week was Jas. H. McConnell, of Shedd, and Miss Mina Yates.

There are fourteen names on the democratic ticket of Marion county and only four are democrats.

Anna W. Riley, of this city, has bought 57 acres near Harrisburg, of R. G. Wigle, and the Bulletin says will move upon it soon.

Justice Bryson, of Eugene, yesterday gave Ed. Seward the maximum sentence for violation of the local option law, $500 and 30 days in jail.

A wedding of prominent former U. O. students took place at Eugene today, Harvey M. Stackpole, of Ketchikan, Alaska, and Miss Florence DeBar of Eugene.

The new morning daily Democrat, of Portland, has already been locked up by a constable. Started on nothing, with nothing at the back of it, evidently by men with nothing, it is bound to be a failure.

Baker City will now be run in the modern style by a mayor and three commissioners. The mayor will receive $2500 annually and the commissioners $200. The name of the place will be just Baker straight, without the city.

Jefferson Review:—Mrs. Wm. Meeker of Syracuse, has purchased the residence of W. H. Sherman, on 2nd street, and is moving into the same. Mr. S. and family have leased the residence of Lena Hochstetler, and the latter, it is reported, will move to Portland.

The Dallas Itemizer reports a subscriber who has taken the paper 42 years, which is seven years longer than it has been published under that name. The Democrat has a good many subscribers who have taken the paper 40 years, since it started, and some the former Oregon Democrat published by Delazon Smith.
