THURSDAY.
A FLOWER STORE.

Mr. Duncan, of Seattle, has moved to Linn county to reside. He will establish what is needed here, a floral store, and is now looking for a place in the business section for a display of goods at the proper time. Mr. Duncan has bought 5 1/2 acres of rich soil on the Santiam, where he will establish his not houses, bringing his flowers to his Albany store. He is an experienced florist, and will undoubtedly make the undertaking a success. Albany has had to send to Portland frequently for flowers, and this place with Mrs. Blount's well managed hot house, will probably stop this.

A Lebanon Incident.
It is reported by a Lebanon man that the advance agent of Mayor Rose visited a number of the prominent business men of that city soliciting them to take a place on the platform when Mayor Rose should appear there, to lend respectability to the occasion; but was unable to find one who was willing to do so, all uniting in the support of present conditions, and condemning any measure which might result in the return of the saloon.

At Dreamland.
The Indian Raiders is to be shown for the last time at the above theater. It is one of the finest pictures ever taken of real cowboy life, showing the punchers roping, branding and riding bucking bronchos. The Judgment of the Deep is another fine story, telling a tale of the sea, the comedy is a rip-roarer and the educational picture is interesting.

Lee Driver left this noon on a trip to Eugene.
Fred Harris has returned from a several days Portland trip.
The weather prediction is: fair tonight and Friday, cooler tonight.
Rev. Van Winkle, of Salem, is in the city on a visit with his son, Postmaster Van Winkle.
T. S. Townsend, of the Townsend Creamery Co. Portland, arrived this noon.

The annual foot ball game between U. O. and O. A. C. will be played at Corvallis Nov. 12.
J. B. Harrison has bought the Electric Theater, which he has taken charge of and will hereafter run.
Grant Dimmick spent $709.30, and would have been nominated but for the divided vote against Bowerman.
Wm. Schmitt, half back last year on the famous Notre Dame team, will coach Columbia, Portland, this year.
W. L. Jones, of Jefferson, has been re-elected chairman of the republican central committee of Marion county.
Roger Blain arrived this noon from Oakland, Calif., by way of Portland, and expects to remain here the coming year.

Mr. Beatty, nominee for state senator on the republican ticket, a delegate to the assembly, has been in the city meeting Albany people.
At the dancing school of Mrs. (George Tracey) tomorrow night, at Bussard hall, prizes will be given for the best lady and gentleman waltzer.
J. L. Irvine has renewed his contract for the coming year for the Chalmers-Detroit, Hudson and Buick automobiles. He has had a good sale of these popular autos, and the prospects for the coming year are gilt-edged.

H. G. Myer, of Salem and R. R. Wallace, of Astoria, of the state examining board of barbers, have been in the city, while on a tour of the valley, and made a formal inspection of the Albany shops under the state law.
A man giving the name of J. F. Moore claimed that he had been struck by an automobile, and covered with dust and mud was taken to the hospital at Eugene awhile ago. Yesterday he skipped with $550, the hospital money, in its box.
You can get your hats trimmed at the Bend Box Millinery Store, 116 Ferry St., for 25c and 50c. We will also give special reductions on all order work received Friday and Saturday, Oct. 8 and 9. Children's good school hats 75c and $1.00.
Crabtree is growing. Five or six new houses have been erected in the new Turnidge addition. A large water tower in the center of the tract is a feature. A $5,000 high school is being completed, also a Christian church and a lodging house and store combined.
C. L. McKenna, who recently bought a "barbaric" apple orchard, writes that he will have an exhibit at the meeting of the horticultural society at Portland, and will be a competitor for the Linn county prize. There should be many others.
At the dry farmer congress in Spokane Hillsman Renter, of Madras, Crook county, Or., took the sweepstakes prize, and also the first for the best collective exhibit, first on white and red onions, first on sheep display, first on alfalfa and first on individual display, a great Oregon victory in a contest open to the whole U. S.

A BANQUET
In Which the Saloon and Home Rule Bill Are Whacked.

The Good Citizenship League last night gave a banquet to the business men of the city, filling three large tables in the W. C. T. U. hall. A fine spread was served by the ladies of the W. C. T. U. Lawyer C. E. Sox, presiding, stated the object of the banquet and introduced Dr. William Parsons, of Portland, who spoke to the point, with a sharp edge. He was born in Kansas, and this summer spent ten days there investigating prohibition, visiting twelve of the larger cities and traveling 1600 miles in the state. He pronounced prohibition there after thirty years trial, a great success, now practically absolute. It has doubled its population, and exclusive of the U. S. prisoners at Leavenworth, has one hundred less in the penitentiaries than thirty years ago, and there is not a drop in the bucket of liquor drunk compared with the open saloon state. Not a single place with a government tax could be found he hunted for a drunk and could find only one near the Missouri line. There are no executions for murder in the state, life imprisonment. In one county of 25,000 people there had been no trial for murder in twelve years, not a homicide in Kansas City, with its 100,000 people, in a year. Sweden has just passed a prohibition law because of an investigation of Kansas' prohibition. Financially business men declared it helped business, except an occasional emissary of the blind pig, which is rare. A sample of the liar was a man in Leavenworth who said there were 150 empty houses on one street. Mr. Parsons made an actual count of four old shacks and this is about the kind of misstatements Mayor Rose makes too according to reports.
This home bill is inequitable. It puts the burden on the county and state and the city gets the license fee. The county and state pay for the many crimes and poverty of the saloon and they have a right to vote on the question. This home rule is run rule. 418 blind pigs in Portland, more than in Maine and Kansas. The false stories about Maine made by Mayor Rose and others are just as untrue as those about Kansas. The bank deposits in Maine are $108 per capita and in Kansas were recently $115 per capita, far more than in the whiskey states.
Rev. A. F. Lacey, of Lebanon, was called for and told of his former state, Iowa, that went back to wet because of the manipulations of the politicians, and Mr. Elmore, of Brownsville, told about the great debate in Milwaukee between Mayor Rose and Samuel Dickey in which Dickey showed completely the falsehood of the stories of Rose, establishing the fact of the success of prohibition in Maine, even though occasionally a blind pig is found, even in coffins. Liquor hurts morals, business, everything and helps nothing.
During the evening a quintet, Messrs. Hammer, Bryant, Knott, Litter and Irvine, were heard in some live songs, closing with Oregon is Going Dry. We will keep Linn county dry and The Home Rule is on the bum.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.
Father Van Nevel, assistant to Father Lane, returned from Mt. Angel, where he had been to see the new abbott installed, coming back by way of Lebanon, and Father Lane left on a trip to Portland. He was unable to go to Mt. Angel yesterday on account of an important wedding.
Mrs. H. C. Harkness left for Vancouver to attend the annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society. Four delegates were appointed from the Albany church but Mrs. Harkness was the only one able to go. Mrs. M. C. Wire, formerly of this city, is president.
Rev. William Parsons, of Portland, Rev. Elmore of Brownsville and Rev. Lacey, of Lebanon who attended the good citizenship banquet last night, returned to their homes, aggressive men in the cause of righteousness, including the fight against the enemy of the home, the saloon.
Hon. M. A. Miller, of Lebanon, returned home. He is receiving a splendid support for the senatorship, based on a splendid record. People appreciate the fact that on account of his large experience he is a valuable man to have at Salem, and this fact alone is enough to elect him, but there are other reasons, too.
Mrs. J. W. Hart went to Portland. Josiah Flynn returned to Scio. J. S. Swank came down from Tallman.
R. K. Ohling left for Goreset Grove to attend a meeting of the Bankers and Merchants Insurance Co.
Mrs. Tom Riley came down from Corvallis.
W. N. Price left for Oregon City to look after a piece of property. He has made arrangements to trade with an Oregon City man his farm across the river, taking Oregon City property in part payment and went down to see it.
Jeff Isom went to Salem to look after the case of his son Jeff, jr., now before the grand jury, which took it up, and which was expected to report today, with prospects of a discharge upon a fair statement of the boy.

A High School Dinner.
Saturday, Oct. 15, the high school will give a dinner from 11 to 1 and a supper from 5 to 7, at the W. C. T. U. hall. It is for the benefit of general athletics and for the purpose of paying off the present debt of the students body. All come. Admission 25c.
The presbytery of the Willamette will meet at Independence on Monday, and the synod at Pendleton during the week.

FRIDAY.
OFFICIAL VOTE.

The official vote of the recent primary election shows Bowerman 2984 ahead of Dimmick, receiving 16,735 votes. Dimmick 13,751, Hofer 6,965, Abraham 6,184. Hawley is only 2,094 ahead of Mulkey, while insurgent Lafferty leads Ellis by 2,575. Os West received 6,693 for governor on the democratic ticket and Jeff Myers 3,543. Best winning almost two to one. For secretary of state Benson beat Wingate two to one. In this connection the Portland Daily News makes the startling statement that the plan is for Benson to be elected, running on account of his popularity, and if Bowerman is elected, then Benson is to resign and John R. Coffey, the real candidate is to be appointed. Kay beat Hoyt 3,557 for state treasurer, Crawford beat Hart over two to one for attorney general. Dunniway leads Clark by 11,239. For labor commissioner Hoff is 2,253 ahead of Orton. Chinnok was a warm number and beat Gettings 9,487. For congressman in the second district John Manning beat Harry Lane 151 votes.

Over in Lincoln.
Denver, Oct. 3.—1 organized Five river grange last Saturday with 42 charter members.
The master is Bert L. Snell, lecturer, Mary J. Earnest; secretary, Anna Larsen.
The sentiment is strongly anti-assembly among the farmers of Lincoln county, and the known helpful work of the grange for civic righteousness, and along all other lines tending to the good of the people, makes the work of organizing much easier.
In all my organizing work, covering some 25 granges, I never before put in two granges within a week of each other, the other being Yachats grange. If I can keep up anywhere near this "lick" I will get the 25 granges I set as my mark by the first of next May. Some of these I hope to get in Linn county.
The people of this valley have a Development League. This and the grange together will certainly "boost" for more settlers and still better roads. "God helps those who help themselves." CYRUS H. WALKER.

The ding-a-ling toque is the latest. It looks like a bell, and is a lu lu.
H. C. Chamberlain, of Klamath Falls is in the city on a short business trip.
Rev. B. H. Barker of Florence will preach in the Grace Presbyterian church on Sunday.
Miss Nellie McPherson, daughter of a former Linn county sheriff, has returned home after an Albany visit.
Dr. S. C. Erowne, a resident of Scio for a number of years, has leased a hospital at Sumpter, and will soon move there to reside.
Miss Marie C. Brehm will conduct a week's temperance campaign in Eugene. She is an able woman and makes things go for better citizenship.
The republican candidates were in the city yesterday meeting with the central committee to make arrangements for the coming campaign.
Every once in a while some one is to be arrested for the Los Angeles wholesale murder, but the Democrat predicts no one will ever be convicted.
The convention of bankers in session at Los Angeles closes today. Several hundred of the bankers will return east by way of Albany, getting a view of the Hub.
George Drumheller, of Walla Walla, a wheat raiser, this week sold 106,000 bushels of wheat and received a check for $84,86005. That's farming some, and wheat is king.
Editor Hammersley, of the McMinnville News, was in the city today. He has a monotype machine in his office, a factory as well as type setter and is out selling some of his new type.
Lebanon Criterion:—Roy Tucker, has been employed for the last year or two in the First National Bank of this city has accepted a position in a bank at Corvallis, and went there yesterday to enter upon his duties.
The recital of the Albany College conservatory of music, announced for tonight, has been postponed until next Tuesday evening, when it will be presented at the U. P. church, with a good program arranged.
J. M. Myer has again won a verdict against T. A. Livesey, of Salem, for $241.56 for the third time, the case having gone to the supreme court three times and sent back for another trial. It is on account of some 1904 hops.
Senator Bob Taylor, who was in Albany last year, lecturing here, has again been nominated for governor by the democrats. He has been governor three times besides U. S. senator and will undoubtedly again be elected.
Mr. Will Taylor and mother arrived last night from North Dakota, and will spend the winter in the new home of their brother and son, Councilman George Taylor. Both have been here before and their friends here are glad to have them in Albany again.
Dr. E. M. Eckard and wife, of Peoria, are the guests of Dr. Shinn and family. Dr. Eckard, who is the surgeon of the Pennsylvania R. R., is interested in the new Linn County Orchard Co. and is here looking up the situation.
S. S. Myers, of Halsey, was in the city today, and made his October call. While attending the October term of circuit court as a jurymen nineteen years ago he called at the Democracy office and has been calling annually in October every since, a welcome visitor.
Bill Walker and Joe Krebler will leave tomorrow for their boyhood home in Tennessee, and anticipate the trip of their lives, going back after many years spent in Oregon. Bill declared that he would sleep again in the old log house where he was born.
Hon. T. B. Kay, the anti-assembly nominee for state treasurer, passed through the city this noon for Eugene on a business trip. Mr. Kay's campaign was a sample of the way the anti-assembly sentiment prevails through the state. He ran against a popular man personally, but one who was handicapped by assembly nomination.

MR. ROSE'S ADDRESS.

David S. Rose, ex-mayor of Milwaukee, a man whose record has been with the saloon all his life, spoke last night at the Opera house to a good sized audience.
He was introduced by Dr. J. L. Hill, who spoke for nearly half an hour, and the Democrat appreciates a personal notice.
Mayor Rose professed to be talking because of his interest in temperance, but he has been against temperance all his life and is now.
He claimed that the labor organizations were all against prohibition and enlorged such men as Gompers, declaring him to be for the saloon. But Gompers last year in the convention at Toronto said: "The time has come when the saloon and the labor movement must be divorced." And John Mitchell said he did not believe that if you closed the liquor traffic you bring about a calamity. Nothing has done more to bring about misery upon innocent women and children than the money spent to drink.
Another big labor leader said: "Never a foul plot is organized to injure public rights and social wellbeing but the saloon is used for the job." But Rose didn't say anything about these men's opinions that way.
He pictured the blind zig zag in awful colors, but he didn't tell how the saloon city has just as many as the dry town, and that Albany had them when the saloon was here just the same.
His statement that the recent democratic victory in Maine indicates the overthrow of prohibition there, is a falsehood. Prohibition has nothing to do with it.
His statement about Maine, Kansas, Georgia and other places were false, as well as his general statement that prohibition is going backwards.
Mr. Rose is a good talker, and may possibly impress some, but the average man is impressed with the fact that he has been brought out here at great expense by the liquor dealers association of Portland, now sailing under the name of the Home Rule Association, to help keep Oregon in the wet column.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.
T. S. Townsend, of the Townsend Creamery Co., Portland, returned north after looking over the field here. On account of the long dry season there has been a decided shortage of cream and high prices have prevailed, now 30 to 37 1/2 cents for butter fat.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Brodie left for Boring, a suburb of Portland, to reside. Mr. Brodie was carrying one of his feet in a sling, the result of a recent accident.
Mrs. Jennie Brown left for Brownsville to make arrangements for Mrs. Hembree's visit there Monday in the interest of the G. A. R.
W. H. Rhodes left on his regular semi-annual trip around the circle, visiting the larger cities of the coast, taking about six weeks. His line is carpets and rugs, American make and he has a big trade among the large carpet and rug houses.
W. H. Raymond, years ago an Albany insurance man, returned northward, after spending the night at Albany.
Rev. Mochel left on a Woodburn visit, his former home town.
Mrs. Roy Newport went to Lebanon for the day.
Prominent drummers leaving were J. R. Flynn, W. F. Jeffries, Wayne Stewart and H. Prag.

Death of Will Larroch.
William J. Darroch died early this morning at the home of his brother-in-law Senator F. J. Miller, at the age of 55 years. He was taken sick while here on a visit two months ago and gradually failed. His home was in Klamath Falls, but he formerly resided in Eugene. He leaves a wife and one son, aged fourteen. He was born in Kansas and resided in Oregon about eighteen years. He was a member of the Elks.
The remains were taken to Eugene this afternoon for burial, the funeral being held there tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Ritchie Home.
William Ritchie returned this noon from a trip to his former home at Grater, North Dakota, where he continues to have valuable property interests. He also owns some land in the suburbs of a city in Canada, that cost him only $250 an acre quite a number of years ago, now worth at least $300 an acre, which is going some. Mr. Ritchie is delighted to be back in the best valley in the world. At least this is what the newspapers has to say anyway, and it is generally a fact.

Fine Apples
A sample of what can be done in apple raising right here at Albany, when done right, are some more apples left at the Commercial Club rooms today by E. M. Mitchell. They are perfect in color and quality, and were raised on low land too, a fact that takes away from the chances. More attention is being given in Linn county than ever before to apple culture, and it is going to mean something. Men are spraying their apples as many as seven times in a season who formerly did not spray and the result is being seen in the local market.

The Weather.
Range of temperature 70 to 73. The river is up to 1.7 feet. The weather prediction: fair tonight and Saturday, cooler tonight.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

LOOKING TO OREGON.

Louis Hill, president of the Great Northern, accompanied by fifteen eastern business men, has been in Oregon, coming up the valley as far as Salem, as far as his road runs, and returning east by the North Bank. Mr. Hill has been in Albany and his statements are always of interest here. He said:
"There is more inquiry about Oregon in the east than any other section; the people look more to Oregon for homes and all this state needs is development."
The people in the east cannot realize what the future of Oregon will be. We are doing all we can in the way of exploitation and development and the people here are doing the same. The display of apples, the exhibit in the chamber of commerce and the general advertising of this section and that for farms and fruit are bringing results.
"In Oregon we will carry all the work now under way to completion and by the time that has been done things may have changed so that it will be possible to take up new projects here."
"Dunn and Bradstreet rate the northwest as the most prosperous section of the country."

Two Arrests.
Los Angeles, Oct. 6.—Two men were arrested here today in connection with the local hunt for the Times dynamiters. They are Charles Nehr and Frank Russell. The former, according to a report turned in by the arresting officer, declared the "unions have something up their sleeves." Russell was recently involved in a case growing out of alleged slugging of strike breakers.
Chief of Detective Flammer indicated tonight his belief that the plot to wreck the Times building and the home of its owner was carefully worked out and that ample provisions for the escape of the men provided before the outrage was completed.

A Brakeman's Accident.
A serious accident happened at Oakland during last night to Brakeman Jewitt of one of the freight trains. He was making a coupling, when in some way he got caught between a couple of freights and was mashed and bruised in a serious manner, his side pushed in. It was thought he stood no chance of recovering. He was a Harrisburg man, having been at work only a few months. His folks took No. 13 at Harrisburg for Oakland to be with him.

Two Lane Men.
M. M. Peery will make the race for senator in Lane county on the democratic ticket. He is a former Scio man. He received the nomination without effort and at no cost and will make a good fight for the position, a man who can be relied upon to represent the people. C. C. Hammond, who married an Albany young lady, is running for clerk on the democratic ticket. He is very popular and will receive a big vote.

The Dredge Working.
The dredge of the Albany Gravel and Sand Co. began running today, filling the first scow, ready for the sifter and bunkers, which are expected to be working tomorrow or next day, when there will be a new era in the sand and gravel business in Albany.

Who is the Artist.
Lebanon Criterion:—Mrs. J. S. Hughes went over to Albany yesterday. She said she was on her fourth trip to that city looking after the making of a gown fit for a California lady to wear, which was being made by the best artist in that city.

The Flower Store.
Mr. Duncan, the florist, has rented the place recently vacated by H. Hofflich and will soon open a flower store, getting his flowers from other places until his hot beds on the Santiam get to working. The announcement is meeting with popular favor in the city. Another metropolitan trail.

Married.
Mr. C. A. Engstrom and Mrs. Laura East, were married at her home on Monday evening, Oct. 3rd, by Rev. Gell of the Evangelical church, in the presence of relatives.
